Partridges To Be Raised

PORTLAND—The Oregon Game Commission hopes to raise 10,000 Asiatic Chukar partridges for release in Eastern Oregon next fall.

The Hermon game farm is being converted to handle 7,000 and the remainder will be raised at the Ontario game farm, the commission said.

In the past two years, the commission has built up a breeding flock of 1200 Chukars. A trial plant of 270 Chukars was made in the Warner Valley near Lakeview last October and survived one of the severest winters on record for the area. Norman Minnick, game agent, said.

The birds have been planted successfully in rough, arid regions of Washington and Nevada.

Chorus Due April 12

Tickets for the annual Klamath Falls Barbershop Parade, set April 12 for the Pelican Theater, go on sale starting at 1 p.m. tomorrow at Derby's Music Store.

More than a dozen of the Pacific Coast's top quartets and choruses are slated to put in an appearance.

They include the "Uncalled Four" from Berkeley, rated one of the top quartets in the nation, and Klamath's own House Brothers, rated high in the Pacific Northwest.

Ticket Chairman Charles Bane has announced that tickets generally go pretty fast for the Parade, and warned those wishing to go to get their duets as soon as possible.

Last year the Barbershop Parade drew a full house.

Rewey Death Learned Here

Word has been received here by Verle Hazeltine of the death March 17 of Charles G. Rewey, one time resident of Klamath Falls. He was 41 years old. Cause of death was attributed to a heart attack.

Mr. Rewey and his wife, Mrs. Georgia Rewey left here in 1941 to make their home in Missoula, Mont.

While here he was employed as a glass cutter for Balsiger's. He also operated his own glass shop for a time and farmed with his father, B. B. Rewey.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Georgia Rewey, Missoula, Mont.; one son, Cpl. Floyd G. Rewey, Greenville, S. C.; one daughter, Carolyn Rewey, Medford; one sister, Mrs. John C. Eckert, Reading, Penn.; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burley B. Rewey, Anchorage, Alaska, and two brothers, Harold with the Air Force in England and Delmar Rewey, Arlington, Va.

Funeral services are being held today in Missoula.

There are approximately 44,000 persons living on the Caribbean and of Antigua.
