

REFLECTIONS FROM

Milly's Mirror

ONE JRG PROJECT—has been completed and a letter of thanks received from Mrs. Betty Williamson for St. Patrick's Day tray favors made and sent by Mrs. Newton and Mrs. Harris' 2nd graders at Roosevelt.

THE MARVIN NERSETHS entertained for their son, Marvin and some 80 of his schoolmates at a spring sports dance at Hennessey and his junior reporters all enthusiastically agree that the clever St. Patrick's Day decor—good music—refreshments carried out in the St. P. motif made it one of the outstanding parties of the year.

BORN TO the Steve Kessler at Klamath Valley March 15, Leta Louise—7 hrs 14 on first granddaughter of the J. W. Kessler—2027 Leroy Young miss arrived on her great-grandfather's 84th birthday—Mr. Steve Kessler who with his wife Ite in Portland—Mr. and Mrs. C. Charles Watt are maternal grandparents. Mr. Watt is here to be with her daughter.

RUTH KING—had double reason to celebrate St. Patrick's Day—Ray Ann—born to the Glenn I. Yapples, 4900 Anderson—March 17 at Klamath Valley—Mrs. Y is Ruth's daughter—and the new arrival has a sister Beverly Jean—2 years—Ruth was too worn out engineering the women's forum to do any celebrating.

A LITTLE MOMENT—of relaxation AWAY FROM THIS SNOW!!! was stolen by the Ray Oldenburgs recently when they took a short trip to the Bay Area—meeting the Ted Medford's at Mills Field where they had flown from Portland—They sipped up sunshine and vividly absorbed color from flowers—flowers and flowers—part of the time spent in Carmel—JUST THINK—no snow moment!

THE PAUL DELLEIS—have special visitors at their home 2925 Earle—Mr. D's parents—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jensen—from South Dakota—have been in Portland with another daughter for two moos—and came down here to enjoy spring (1952) in KP.

THE DELTA INITIATE—Narcie Edwards, daughter of Mrs. Catherine Edwards and sister of Tommy, was initiated into Theta Tau chapter of Delta Delta Delta at the University of Idaho—She also was simultaneously elected and installed as historian of the chapter.

THE MEN WERE REALLY BUSY—A casual glance at the above picture of the Elks women's crab feed is positive evidence that there were no idle hands in the Armory, March 13, after 6:30 p.m., either serving or eating. The crowd overflowed into other rooms where additional tables were set up by the hard-working committee. —Photo by Guderian.

Merrill Grange 717 Meeting

MERRILL—George Willms, president of Merrill Grange 717, presided at a regular meeting of the group March 18. Home economics chairman Anna Howard and insurance agent Frank Hadley made reports. Several members gave reports on agriculture, in the absence of chairman John Giacomin. Plans were made for an apron sale on May 2.

Lecturer Marguerite Hadley was in charge of the literary program. She also asked Grange members if they wanted to continue on their community service program, of which the purchase of a piano for the recreation hall was a start.

Ruby Taber entertained at the piano with a selection of Irish airs.

Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Taber served refreshments.

Next meeting will be a social evening and card party on March 24. The public is invited.

Tulelake City Panhellenic

TULELAKE—Tulelake City-Panhellenic met at the home of Ruth DeFrait, March 15, 2 p.m. This important business meeting was held to make plans for the second annual tea for the Tulelake High School senior girls and their mothers. It also was decided to donate usable clothing to the Frankfurt, Germany, Panhellenic group who has established a charity center there for the needy. All bundles of clothes are to be turned in to Lena Mae Schindler no later than April 20.

Pinocle Party

LANOCELL VALLEY—Mrs. Joe Potueck entertained with a pinocle party at her home in Upper Langell Valley on Tuesday afternoon.
