Ager Rites Set Tuesday

Funeral services for George Washington Ager, 83, pioneer Klamath Basin rancher, are to be held tomorrow, 2 p.m. from O'Hair's Memorial Chapel, 6th and Pine. He died in a hospital here Saturday night.

Mr. Ager, born in Siskiyou County, California, in April, 1869, came to Klamath in 1900. His ranch home was near Keno.

His father, the late Jerome Ager, was one of the early settlers in Siskiyou and the town of Ager was named for him.

Besides the widow, Mr. Ager is survived by: two daughters, Mrs. Helen Longmeir and Mrs. Irma Quirk, both of Klamath Falls; three sons, Julian and George, Klamath Falls and Lowell, Ashland; two brothers, Charles, Klamath Falls, and Jerome, Yreka; four sisters, Mrs. Lucy Van Sandt, Yreka, Mrs. Kate Freeman, and Mrs. Fannie Anderson, Sunol, Calif., and Mrs. Alice Parriott, Punet, Calif.

The Rev. David Barnette Jr. will officiate at the funeral and interment will be in Klamath Memorial Park.

Cry To Him

By GEORGE N. TAYLOR
One of our mission stations overseas reports 50 natives converted last year. These have a cheer, hope and God-nature unknown to them before they opened their hearts and let Christ in.

Yreka, Mrs. Kate Freeman, and Mrs. Fannie Anderson, Sunol, Calif., and Mrs. Alice Parriott, Punet, Calif.

The Rev. David Barnette Jr. will officiate at the funeral and interment will be in Klamath Memorial Park.

Few ever go to a physician until they know themselves to be sick. And no one ever comes to Christ to be saved until he knows himself to be lost. Only God can convince men that they are lost. ONE—Give men the Message of salvation. TWO—Pray God to convince them. Most saved people have been prayed for. Plead with God to bring them through. This space used by a family who would see you saved.
