

Fewer Cows, More Work

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's cow population is dwindling but the cows on hand are doing their jobs better these days.

That word came from the Department of Agriculture Monday.

In 1950, there were 12 per cent fewer cows in the U.S. than in 1945, but they produced nearly as much milk, averaging 500 pounds more than their sisters of five years back.

Here are the figures:

In 1945, there were 25,329,000 cows in the country and they turned out 121 1/2 billion pounds of milk, an average of 4,797 pounds per cow.

In 1950, 22,729,000 cows produced 120,600,000,000 pounds of milk.

That's an average per cow of 5,292 pounds.

Ike Says America Drifting Too Far To The Left; Tells Of Platform In New Story

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Eisenhower has expressed the view that "we have drifted too far to the so-called left."

His opinion was disclosed in a 1950 "off-the-record" interview, published Monday by the weekly magazine U.S. News & World Report.

With it was a letter from Eisenhower dated March 14, indicating he had reviewed the material recently and approved its publication.

The general said "America is not the kind of country that needs socialism."

"There are people in this country, of course, who want to go clear over to the left," he said. "I just don't agree that America's future lies in that direction."

He said he has a distinct feeling that "we have been lacking on the moral side."

The letter was written after Eisenhower had swept the New Hampshire Republican presidential primary but before the 100,000 write-in vote given him in last Tuesday's Minnesota primary.

In it, the general said merely that he had permitted others to publish "letters" and statements from that period — while he was serving as president of Columbia University — and was giving the magazine the same privilege.

In the interview with editor David Lawrence, Eisenhower said that "experience in handling men may possibly be the key" to White House success. He intimated he has that experience.

"It may well be that the presidency is too big a job for one man, but there again—as in any post of responsibility — all depends upon the kind of men he gathers around him," Eisenhower said. "It depends too upon the spirit in which controversial questions are approached."

Eisenhower said he had spent "a good many trying hours" during the war attempting to reconcile differences among the Allies.

He said this experience convinced him "the settlement of con-happiness that you become president of the United States," Eisenhower said it wasn't.

Asked, in effect, if he thinks the Taft-Hartley act imposes too many restrictions on labor unions and employers, Eisenhower said the whole question was one of "human relations."

"I don't think there's any law that can be written which can assure good faith in its interpretation when there is deliberate design to act in bad faith," he said.

"I believe of much more importance in labor-management relations is the spirit that both sides show toward each other . . ."

He said he agrees with the "generalization that we should have a little of government in business and private affairs as is feasible in our modern, complex life," but added:

"Surely nobody is going to advocate that people should be allowed to starve or that unemployment should reach such a point that people, through no fault of their own, are actually in want or suffering privation."

He said the government must act to tide people over in an emergency, but he opposed "using wrongfully the idea of 'emergency' to install some kind of socialistic system or government paternalism."

Shriners Meet In Bay City

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Thousands of Shriners poured into San Francisco for the opening Monday of annual meetings of the Shrine Directors Association of North America and the Western Shrine Association.

The directors, including representatives from Mexico and Canada, open business sessions Tuesday under direction of President William S. Johnson of Duluth, Minn. Business sessions of the Western Conference start Wednesday. Both conclude Thursday.

Imperial Potentate Robert Gardner Wilson Jr., of Boston is a special guest of honor of the joint conventions.

Marching bands, parades and banquets for Wednesday's big parade up Market Street are coming from San Diego, Fresno, Sacramento, Los Angeles, Oakland and Portland.

Gehrmann Runs Half in 1:51

NEW YORK (AP)—The United States Olympic Association was about $10,000 richer Monday — a tidy sum for one night — but still was more than a half million dollars short of its goal.

The association realized the money from the Olympic Carnival at Madison Square Garden Saturday night.

Don Gehrmann provided the big show — competitively as usual, by running the half mile in 1:51, the fastest ever on an 11 lap track.

Willie Heppe May Retire

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Willie Heppe, 48 times a world billiard champion in 47 years, plans to retire next fall—perhaps on his 65th birthday. That's Oct. 11.

Heppe won his first championship, at 18.1 bakline billiards, in 1906.

He won the title he now plans to be his last—the three-cushion crown—Saturday night, defeating the Japanese star, Kinrey Matsuyama, 50-37 in 60 gruelling innings. It's his 12th year on the three-cushion throne.
