Woman Treated After Accident

Two men pulled a woman from the water of a borrow pit on Laverne St. at about 10:30 last night, and Mrs. N. B. Webb, 44, 2437 Pershing Way, was still being treated for shock in Klamath Valley hospital this morning.

D. L. Cobb and C. L. Pruell, who both live at 2491 Laverne, found Mrs. Webb wet and cold after being roused from their nearby residence by shouts.

How Mrs. Webb came to be in the borrow pit was not explained this morning.

Glenn Thomas Death Learned

Word has been received here of the death, March 16 in Stockton of Glenn Thomas, long-time resident of Klamath County. He submitted to surgery December 14 for cancer.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Thomas, pioneers here, now living in Santa Rosa. He was a printer, working at various times for the old News as night foreman before the Herald and News evening and morning additions were consolidated, for the Klamath Basin Progress and other early publications.

He is survived by his widow Eva Mayfield Thomas, a step-son, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and a sister, Mrs. Ray (Edith) Rigor.

DISEASE

YOKOHAMA, Japan (AP) — The Yokohama Plant Quarantine Station reported Monday finding 603 ergot, a fungus disease, in a cargo of barley that arrived from Vancouver, B.C., March 22. It ordered the cargo sealed in a harbor warehouse.
