Those Days, Noel, Old Boy

LONDON — A British peer tried to walk across the Thames Tuesday the way the Romans used to do. He wound up swimming, but finished the trip in 17 minutes.

Lord Noel-Buxton, 35-year - old poet, politician and bird-watcher, emerged from the river at the north end of Westminster Bridge and explained to reporters:

"There was much more water than I expected of course, it has been raining."

Noel-Buxton undertook the walk as part of his research for a forth-coming book on the topography of poets and explained to reporters:

The young peer is six feet three inches tall. According to his figures the river at ebb tide would be give feet three inches deep at the site of the old ford.

A cheer went up from hundreds lining Westminster Bridge as Noel-Buxton handed his raincoat and sports jacket to his wife and entered the water from the south bank Tuesday morning. He wore a sweat shirt, Jersey, old flannel trousers and a pair of gym shoes.

"Good luck," shouted Lady Noel-Buxton. "You don't want my umbrella, do you?"

Lake Cutting Circle Hit

WASHINGTON (#) — Rep. Engle (D-Calif) asked the House Agriculture Committee to approve a bill which would abolish the Lakeview, Ore., sustained yield forest unit in Fremont National Forest.

Engle accused the Forest Service of acting "arbitrarily and capriciously" in establishing the unit. He said the boundaries of the unit excluded the Willow Ranch Corp. in Northern California from bidding on timber within the area. He contended the Willow Ranch Corp. should have been included in the unit. Corp. should in the unit. The comm

The committee deferred action on the bill, introduced by Engle, pending further hearings.
