BONANZA
The Bonanza Extension Unit met March 11 at the Library. Mrs. Henry and Mrs. Ralph were appointed to go to the Klamath Basin Civic League meeting. Purse making was the lesson with 10 members taking instruction.

LINDLEY HEIGHTS
Mrs. Edgar Sample was hostess March 12 to members of the Lindley Heights Home Extension Club. Mrs. Jim Eie and Mrs. Chester Owens gave a report on the square dancing lesson they had attended to represent the unit.

Mrs. H. Barton and Mrs. Ray Billings were chosen to attend a meeting March 31 concerning the community lounge. Each member was asked to fill out a cooperative report and balloting on the program for next year was completed. Dorothy Tolleth gave a demonstration on kitchen storage and advised the group on materials needed for purse making, project for the next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Gordon Loomis, 216 Pine.

Mrs. Mathews was a guest.

RLV
Parents and Patrons of Bly school met March 6 at 8 p.m. Following the business meeting Patsy Bates, Zelda Flanagan and Georgia Thompson, students participating in the Klamath County Speech Festival gave their speeches.

Entertainment was also provided by Mrs. Herb Dennis, Mrs. Avis Little and Rev. Dick Staub who sang "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Staub was at the piano. The next meeting is April 3.

OTI
OTI Home Extension met March 20 at the Richard Hessig home in Klamath Falls. Home Agent Dorothy Tolleth used color slides to illustrate how any home maker can rearrange kitchen storage for more convenience and efficiency. Mrs. Guy Davis, Mrs. W. E. Rodgers, Mrs. Earl Bairey were named a nominating committee. The annual election of officers will be held next month. Mrs. "Skeets" O'Connell will be hostess for the April 17 meeting.

Vets Sought So Claim Can Be Paid

SALEM (AP) — The government is looking for five Oregon veterans who are entitled to compensation for the period they were held as war prisoners during World War II. The men, and their last-known addresses, are:

Benjamin Harold Remley, Linfield College, McMinnville; William Otto Cox, 902 North 32nd St., Corvallis; Wallace Givnn Taylor, 745 N. Russell St., Portland; Dewey W. Passmore, 4212 N. Juneau St., Portland, and Ned McCormick, 7215 SE 78th Ave., Portland.

JOBS GAIN

SALEM (AP) — There were 424,600 persons working in non-farm jobs in Oregon during February, the Oregon Unemployment Compensation Commission said Thursday. The total was 4,400 more than in January, but 5,200 less than a year ago. It also was 51,000 less than the total of last August.
