

SOCIETY

by Milly Ramsby

Teenage Brothers and Sisters

JUDY, 14, and DICK, 17, with their snow-fighting weapons used on a recent snowfall. Mother of the hard working team is Mrs. Violet E. Pleser, 1410 California Ave.

MICHAEL, 17, and SALLIE SUE, 14, share an enthusiasm for records. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. I.C. Burke, 1834 Melrose. Young brother is Dean, 8.

LEROY, 16, and KAREN, 15, just home from school after one of the recent "spring snows" enjoy a moment of sunshine. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd L. Foster, 2031 Van Ness Avenue.

PAT, 16, and ROBERTA, 14, with the list of "mests" for Pat's spring vacation trip to Sun Valley. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kittredge, 1225 Pacific Terrace, and they have an older brother, Bill, who recently married.

KLAHATH FALLS IS PROUD of its young citizens and a small representative group is pictured here in brother and sister teenage teams. Unfortunately, space does not permit more of them.

All Photos by Kettler.

DICK, 15, and NANCY, 13, engrossed in plans for completing a model "runabout" which boasts an operable inboard motor. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. George H. Clark, 2021 Lavey. The boat, a gift from Laurence Brown, is as yet unlaunched and unnamed.

MARCIA, 14, and LYLE, 16, at the piano. We know Marcia is at home at the keyboard, but are not sure that Lyle inherited his father's keen interest in close harmony. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. L. Delos Mills, 1201 Eldorado.

NADINE, 15, and JERRY, 17, are cheerfully occupied with homework. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. R.E. Wilkerson, 4435 Boardman Ave., and their older brother Ronnie, 19, is a student at SOCE.