Girls' League met recently to help plan the spring formal in Pelican Court KUHs, scheduled for April 5. The dance is to be engineered by Dance-a-Lot Club, sponsored by Girls' League. Beverly Eells presided at the meeting assisted by Margaret Powell. The girls pictured above modeled formals and represented different classes. From the left, Sophomore, Freshman, Senior and Junior. This is an annual dance and the girls are planning lavish decorations with "Symphony of the Sea" as the theme. Music to be by the Starliners. Photos by Charles Carlson

MANZANITA CHAPTER 172

The initiatory degree was beautifully exemplified by the officers of Manzanita Chapter 172, OES Friday evening March 21, at the IOOF hall, Gladys Chubb, Jean Grams and Ray Grams were welcomed into the order. Thelma Clugston served as courtesy candidate. Worthy Matron Vera Fritsch and Worthy Patron John Larson presided at the meeting. Betty Hunter, grand representative of Pennsylvania to Oregon was introduced and escorted to the east. Being "Men's Night" a program of music was enjoyed. Beatrice Denison at the piano, accompanying group singing in honor of the birthday of the Worthy Matron. The social hour was held in the dining room where table decorated by Dora Austin and Helen McCormack featured the Oriental motif. Pink, green and yellow streamers led to a miniature Japanese gateway planted with flowers and gifts honoring the birthday of Vera Fritsch, Worthy Matron. Articles from Japan, loaned by Corinne Larson, highlighted the decorations. Refreshments of Girl Scout cookies and ice cream were served by John Larson, Everett Biehn, John Stanley and Allan Betsch.

The Leo Huls Home From Trip to South

The Leo Huls returned March 22 from a five and one-half weeks trip through the south. They went by rail and leisurely stopped at Albuquerque, Oklahoma City, Memphis, Charleston, S.C., New Orleans, Houston, Savannah, Jacksonville, Fla., El Paso, Juarez and so on. They visited the Scottish Rite Temple in Guthrie, Oklahoma, largest in the world; once seen—never forgotten. They found the same southern hospitality prevailing that had been enjoyed on previous trips and outstanding was the service and courtesy at the Savannah Hotel in Georgia. They were presented with "Mr. and Mrs." make-up sets, which included all the essentials for both of them even to razor blades for the "Mr." On the way home they saw the Charles Carcelons, Henry Moe and Glenn Houts, all living around Palo Alto. Now at home, 219 N. 9th Street, they are enjoying the trip in retrospect, and are still amazed at the startling changes in Houston's skyline since they were there two years ago.

Couple at Home In Coquille

In a lovely, informal ceremony, March 16 at the First Methodist Church, Phyllis Jean Zenger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zenger, 4604 Boardman Avenue, became the bride of William P. O'Neal, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. O'Neal, Coos Bay. The one o'clock double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Lloyd Holloway. Preceding the service, Don McKenzie sang "At Dawning," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. Gordon Morris at the piano. The young couple took their vows before an arrangement of pink and white snapdragons and woodwardia fern. The bride entered the room escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a light blue suit made with short-fitted jacket and flared skirt and her close fitting profile hat was made entirely of white velvet flowers. She carried a white Bible with an arrangement of white orchids and stephanotis. Mrs. James O'Neal was matron of honor. Best man was James O'Neal, brother of the bridegroom. Don Zenger, brother of the bride, was usher.

A DOUBLE RING SERVICE at the First Methodist Church, read by Rev. Lloyd Holloway, at 1 p.m., March 16, united Phyllis Jean Zenger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zenger, 4604 Boardman Avenue, and William P. O'Neal, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. O'Neal, Coos Bay, in marriage. They are now at home in Coquille, where the bride teaches at Empire, and her husband is athletic coach at Bandon. —Photo by Davidson

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT D. MARTIN — who were married at the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert O'Hara, Ashland, Virginia Ann Lutz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Lutz, 4631 Thompson, to Robert D. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross F. Martin, Tacoma, repeated vows in a double ring ceremony in front of the living room fireplace before a gathering of friends and relatives. Rev. Ross Knotts of the Methodist church officiated. Ashland Home is Nuptial Setting

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert O'Hara, Ashland, was the setting for the marriage of Mrs. O'Hara's sister, Virginia Ann Lutz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Lutz, 4631 Thompson, to Robert D. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross F. Martin, Tacoma. Rev. Ross Knotts officiated at the double ring ceremony, 4 p.m., March 16, before a fireplace interspersed with daffodils, white stock and baby iris, illuminated with lighted tapers in floor candelabra. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a turquoise blue suit styled with cape sleeves. She wore gray accessories and her off-white hat was trimmed with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of baby orchids and stephanotis on a white Bible. Mrs. Robert O'Hara, matron of honor, was attired in a beige suit with lavender accessories and she wore a corsage of violets. George Weyerhaeuser, Eugene, was best man, and Robert O'Hara, brother-in-law of the bride was usher. Kathleen O'Hara, bride's niece, received at the door. Mrs. Lutz chose a navy blue costume with pink accessories and a white orchid shoulder corsage for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Martin, wore navy blue with white accessories and her corsage was the same as Mrs. Lutz'. Phyllis Bridge, North Bend, a friend of the bride, served punch. Ann Martin, the bridegroom's sister from Tacoma, served the cake, and Jed Stanwood, OSC classmate of Virginia Ann's, Caldwell, Idaho, passed the bride's book. For the wedding trip to the coast the bride wore her wedding suit and the orchids from the bridal bouquet were her corsage. The newlyweds will be at home, 1307 Bayview, North Bend.
