Burglar Nabs Checks, Cash

A prowler who broke into the Palmerton Lumber Company office 425 Pine, over the weekend made off with $4,376.51 worth of payroll checks plus a small amount of cash, personal checks and cigaret lighter.

The money and checks were taken from various desk drawers, Bruce Braaten, assistant secretary for the firm, said.

Some of the payroll checks were signed and others unsigned. They were to have been distributed to employees today.

The loot included $113.50 in cash, a personal check for $20 and another for $7.70, from the desk of one employee. Payment on the checks has been stopped.

How the prowler got into the building had not been determined this morning. The burglary took place sometime after Saturday noon.

MEETING

EUGENE — The first meeting of a Lane County petition drive to put a legislative reapportionment measure on the November election ballot will be held in Eugene Thursday night.

Spud Expert To Speak

Al Mercker one of the USDA's top potato authorities and recognized from coast to coast as a spud expert has arrived in the Klamath area and will speak at 8 tonight to Basin potato growers in the Merrill Recreation Hall.

Mercker comes here from an extended tour through the California potato-growing areas.

Whitney Tharin executive secretary of the National Potato Council, apparently won't be here as was originally hoped.

Election of three members to the potato marketing agreement committee from this area is also planned.
