

DOCTOR GALLAGHER

... Dusette's choice as partner.

Dusette Chooses Doctor

Wrestling fans didn't like it when Dr. Gallagher clobbered Frenchy Roy Wednesday night, opening a huge cut in the French-Canadian's head.

Referee Wally Moss didn't like it either, and gave Roy that match over the rugged Ohio chiropractor.

But Georges Dusette liked it and promptly chose the blond boned wrestler as a partner in Wednesday's tag team match at the armory.

Dusette and Gallagher team up against Kurt Von Poppenheim and Eric (Look At My Muscles) Pedersen, the duo that scuffled to a draw with Dusette and Cowboy Carlson last week.

TEAM UP The Prud Prussian and the showoff Scandinavian combined all out tactics to sideline Carlson for the last 10 minutes of the bout.

Dusette, probably the strongest grappler in the Northwest circuit, warded off his two mat foes the rest of the way to get a draw.

But the popular full nelson expert immediately clamored for another shot at Eric and Kurt. He figured Gallagher, whose brutish style of milling belies his good looks, was the man who could team with him for the victory.

UNHAPPY Von Poppenheim and Pedersen weren't happy with the deadlock either and quickly accepted the match.

Matgoers are also looking forward to seeing in action Tot Yamato, sensational Japanese wrestler from Singapore. The slippery Nin gets Carlson in the opener.

Both matches are billed for one hour or the best two of three falls. Reserved tickets are on sale at Castleberry Drugs.

Witte Loses In Finals

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) — Winning NCAA wrestling championships by one point is beginning to unnerve Port Robertson, who coached Oklahoma University's Sooners to their second straight title Saturday.

Oklahoma edged Iowa Teachers College 22-21 for the team title in the 22nd annual NCAA tournament.

Last year Oklahoma won by 24-23 over its state rival, A&M.

The team scores behind the top three included: Indiana, California and Pittsburgh 6 each, Michigan State and Oregon State 5 each.

MAKE GOOD

MONTREAL (AP)—The Montreal Canadiens in the NHL are finding out that they don't have to look any further than their own backyard to discover outstanding hockey players.

Seven members of the team this season were born and developed right in Montreal. They are Maurice Richard, Butch Bouchard, Doug Harvey, Bernie Goelet, Jean St. Laurent, Ken Mosell and Dickie Moore. All seven are graduates of the Quebec Amateur Hockey Association.

George Ford, University of New Hampshire basketball forward, wore jersey number 44 and connected for 44 per cent of his shots during the season.

Nelson Reed Registered Shoot Winner

Millers, Shaws Win At Reames

Low gross winners were Mr. and Mrs. Stan Miller while Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw won the high gross prize in the husband-and-wife two-ball foursome tourney at Reames Country Club yesterday.

The Martins shot a 48, the Shaws put together a 65 in the nine-hole meet.

Pro Earl Schneller reminds Reames golfers that one week remains to qualify for the spring best ball tournament.

A supper followed yesterday's tournament.

Cougars Ski Meet Winners

SKYKOMISH, Wash. (AP) — Washington State College skiers scored 397.8 points out of a possible 400 Sunday to win the seventh annual Pacific Northwest Intercollegiate Ski Association championships.

The University of Washington team was second with 378.1 points, and Seattle University's No. 1 team finished third with 344.9.

In compiling its total, Washington State took the cross country and finished second in the slalom Saturday, and won team jumping and was second in the downhill Sunday.

The four-way combined title was won by WSC's Allan Fisher who collected 363.5 points.

The Pittsburgh Pirates have scheduled a benefit game with the Detroit Tigers for the night of July 21 at Forbes Field.

Max Zaslofsky, one of the top basketball players in professional ranks, was only a substitute on the St. Johns college cage team.

Berra Blasts Homer In Return to Yanks

By The Associated Press p Irv Noren must feel like a gold fish in a bowl — in full view, but don't touch, please.

Ever since the start of the training season, the 27-year-old Washington outfielder has been a prize in the trading mart.

The Nats polished off the Detroit Tigers Sunday, 6-3, and in the process Noren got two hits, both doubles.

The Yankees' Yogi Berra, who has been out of action with a sprained ankle for the past two weeks, returned to action and blasted a home run in his first trip to the plate.

Jack Hurley, Matthews' manager, announced Sunday he has completed arrangements for the Bay City match.

However, Hurley said the fight will not be the first of 1952 for Matthews, a leading light-heavyweight contender.

Matthews will headline a Tex Salkeld show in Portland April 14 against a still-to-be determined opponent, possibly Dick Wagner of Toppensh, Wash., Hurley said.

Kid Signs For Kaplin

SEATTLE (AP) — Harry (Kid) Matthews will meet George Kaplin, Brooklyn heavyweight, in a ten-round bout in San Francisco April 28.

Jack Fadden, trainer for the Boston Red Sox, is also the trainer for the Harvard football team and has been for the past 25 years.

went seven innings for the Yanks. SIXTH The Cincinnati Reds, who have been burning up the Grapefruit League for the past week, won their sixth in a row by nipping the Philadelphia Phils, 2 - 1. Ewell Blackwell held the Phils to four hits in seven innings.

Home runs spelled a 6-4 victory for the Pittsburgh Pirates over the St. Louis Browns.

The Cleveland Indians beat the New York Giants 6-5, by the same formula for the second day in a row — a rally in the ninth inning.

FIVE HITS Clem Labine and John Rutherford combined to hold the St. Louis Cardinals to five hits, while the Brooklyn Dodgers were running up a 7-2 victory.

Three other Major League clubs fattened their averages at the expense of Minor League teams. The Boston Red Sox stopped the Birmingham Barons of the Southern Association, 9-2; the Philadelphia A's nipped the Baltimore Orioles, 6-4, and the Boston Braves "B" team whitewashed the Atlanta Crackers of the Southern Association, 5-0.

Tank Coach Pessimistic

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — Ohio State won the NCAA swimming championships with a record point total, but Coach Mike Peppe claims he's "pessimistic" about the Buckeyes' chances of a followup triumph in the National AAU indoor championships next week end at New Haven, Conn.

Although most coaches are a pessimistic lot, the man who guided Ohio State to its seventh NCAA team triumph in 10 years last week end at Princeton seems to have some cause for alarm.

His boys whipped Yale by a 94-81 margin, but this week it will be Ohio vs. the New Haven Swim Club. That means Yale's varsity, plus freshmen and those alumni still able to get through the water in a hurry.

SPORTS in BRIEF

The highest total of goals scored by two teams in an American Hockey League playoff game was 14, when Buffalo defeated Cleveland 12-2 in 1943-44.

Imogene "Mo" Upton, a University of New Hampshire co-ed, was fifth in the women's slalom in the Winter Olympic Games.
