

MARKETS and FINANCIAL

Stocks CHICAGO (U) - Grains drifted lower at the board of trade today after an early show of firmness. Soybeans developed a soft spot, reflecting a weaker vegetable oil market, and grains went lower. There was a slight upward business in wheat, but it was not enough to withstand the downward drift. Italy took a cargo of wheat overnight, which gave the market a better tone for a time. At the finish wheat was 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 lower than Monday's close, May $2.50 1/2-3/4; corn was 1 1/2 to 3/4 lower, May $1.45 1/2-3/4; soybeans were 1 1/2 to 2 cents lower, May $2.91 1/2-3/4; and lard was 1/2 to 3/4 lower, May $11.65.

Panel On Registration Vetoes Suggestion For Penalizing Non-Voters

A six-member "Build the Basin" panel last night decided it would be wrong to inflict penalties on eligible voters who fail to cast ballots. During the program, some members of the listening audience phoned in suggestions that some form of penalty might be the best answer to getting out the vote in this county. But a poll of the panel resulted in an almost unanimous opinion against any such penalty system in the U.S. Delap said that in the last Australian election approximately 98 per cent of the voters participated. As for why more people don't vote, the principal reason arrived at seemed to be the popular excuse "one vote isn't important."

Russ Chief Says Reds Seek Peace

Continued from page 1 all-Germany election can be assured. The western powers have insisted that such a determination must be made before the integration of West Germany and East Germany can be considered. West Germany is occupied by the United States, Great Britain and France. The Soviet Union occupies East Germany. With little hope of unification, the West is going ahead with plans to rearm Western Germany under the leadership of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer. The fourth point of the Stalin statement - on the co-existence of capitalism and Communism - is a typical Soviet view. It says, in effect, that capitalism and Communism can exist in the world side by side and peacefully - on conditions satisfactory to Moscow. Wick is one of a group of editors who returned by plane Tuesday from a month's fact-finding trip that took them to Belgrade and many other European points. He said the editors telegraphed the questions to Stalin from Rome several weeks ago. Earlier the group had requested permission to go to Moscow and interview Stalin. Wick said two Russians brought in the statement. They appeared at his apartment home shortly after he had reached it from Idlewild Airport. Almost simultaneously, Wick received a telegram in English containing the same replies, with only minor changes in wording. The telegram, sent from London via radio and dated Tuesday, was signed "Zarubin, ambassador of the Soviet Union in Great Britain."

Youths Tell Of Robberies

Questioning last night of two juvenile boys by City Police and Juvenile Officer Francis Mathews cleared up eight cases of petty thefts over the weekend and revealed plans for a major burglary job planned by one of the 14-year-olds. The big job planned by one of the boys was burglary of the K Cafe and the Pastime Tavern on Klamath Ave. The youth showed police a detailed floor plan of the two establishments, that he had drawn from memory, and which showed location of all cash registers, counters, passageways and other places where money was reported kept. The burglary was planned for Sunday night, but one of three youths in on the deal couldn't get out that night, and it was postponed. The petty thefts, some of them ranging back three or four weeks, involved about 10 boys whose ages ranged from 8 to 14 years, according to Mathews. He said the editors telegraphed the questions to Stalin from Rome several weeks ago. Earlier the group had requested permission to go to Moscow and interview Stalin. Wick said two Russians brought in the statement. They appeared at his apartment home shortly after he had reached it from Idlewild Airport. Almost simultaneously, Wick received a telegram in English containing the same replies, with only minor changes in wording. Lounge Group Eyes Election

Representatives of 35 city and county organizations, members of the Klamath Basin Civic Service League, responsible for operation of the Community Lounge on N. Hill St., met last night in the lounge for their second annual board meeting. Mrs. Earl Kerns, presiding, explained the proposed levy that will be on the city election ballot, May 16 for financing the city's share of the joint city-county program for aiding the lounge budget which is augmented by contributions from women's organizations and individuals. Successful continuation of the lounge program will hinge on this 3.10 of a mill levy that will cost the average city taxpayer an approximate 35 cents annually. The city budgeted $2000 the first year the lounge operated $1000 last year against $4,000 budgeted by the county. Cost of operation last year was $4953.43. Registration figures presented at last night's meeting by Mrs. Fred Rueck, secretary, on use of the lounge shows almost a 50-50 balance between city and county residents. Registration fluctuated from a low during the winter months to a surprising high during the summer, totaling 13,700 for 1951 and an overall registration of 22,744 since the lounge was opened in July, 1950. There are numerous out of state registrations also. The lounge provides small rooms for care of babies, facilities for warming bottles, sleeping rooms for adults, a committee room for hire, reading service with books furnished by the Klamath County Library and rest rooms. Mrs. Nina Beck, matron in charge, there are no fees or admission charge. Mrs. Lee Holliday, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick, Merrill, were elected to succeed themselves as board members and Mrs. Lawrence Birk, representing the Evergreen Garden club was elected a new member of the board. Juanita O'Hair resigned due to pressure of other duties.
