Westside

By MS. MERLE O'NEIL

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Friday are receiving congratulations on the birth of a baby daughter at the Lakeview Hospital on Wednesday. Grandparents of the baby are Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Dameron and family visited last week during the spring school vacation at Los Angeles with Charlie's relatives. Congratulations are also in order for John Dee Chandler and his new bride, who according to word received here by his parents Mr. and Mrs. Dee Chandler, were married around the middle of March in Los Angeles where John Dee met his bride-to-be. His many friends here wish them much happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crowl and Charlie accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Anderson and sons to Klamath Falls on Wednesday evening where they attended the wrestling matches at the armory.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Moores of the Dry Creek District moved last week to Lakeview where they will now make their home. Ross Foster trucked their furnishings to town. We regret to see them move.

The Tomlins and Stewarts were among those from West Side who made business trips to Klamath Falls last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Warner and children visited at the Merle O'Neill home on Friday evening.

Delmer Woods visited in Klamath Falls over the weekend.

The Vern Howards were visiting relatives on the Westside over the weekend, from their home in Klamath.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Bolton entertained several friends Friday evening when Mr. Bernard Busic of the Lakeview soil conservation service, showed several interesting films. Present were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Ed Garrett and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nelson and Jim, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Busic and sons, Mrs. Harry Crowl and Charles, Bob Worstell and the Boltons.

The Raymond Johnsons are expected home this week. They attended to business matters in Portland and spent several weeks visiting with relatives in St. Helens and Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crowl accompanied by John Crowl visited with relatives in Alturas Saturday. They were overnight guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Hartlerode. They attended the stock sale at the Modoc Auction Yards and several others from Westside attended. They were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Albertson, Jack and Lynn Albertson, Howard Warner, Bill and Bob Warner, Lloyd Haskins and Ralph Renner.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nelson and James were dinner guests Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pendleton in Lakeview, after which the ladies attended a stork shower for Mrs. Pendleton's daughter-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Renner left Saturday for a several weeks trip visiting relatives in southern California. They plan to be gone around a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Capps and son spent the weekend visiting with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Friday and Dale. They are now making their home in Central Point where Vernon is employed at a lumber mill.

Mrs. Henry Albertson and Mrs. Melvin Millard left Monday for Idaho where they both plan to visit relatives.

The roads are finally getting pretty well dried up except for a few bad spots. Saturday the road near Ashcraft was pretty well flooded from the runoff of snow.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Emory and daughters of Alturas visited her sister at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
