INDIAN DICK WOLFE IN ACTION AGAINST SLIDER

WOLFE HEADS RING CARD HERE

Indian Welter Champ Meets Oakland Negro

Klamath Falls breaks a ten-months fistic silence Saturday night at the Armory when Promoter Mack Lillard presents an outstanding boxing card of 34 rounds—or less—highlighted by the appearance of Indian Dick Wolfe, Pacific Northwest welterweight champion.

Wolfe, target for matchmakers' affections up and down the coast, faces Sonny Green, busy club fighter from the Oakland area in the 10-round main event.

Wolfe, 24-year-old Pitt River Indian, turned professional in 1946 after a brief and impressive amateur career. He has appeared in main events in all leading cities on the Pacific Coast and has whipped every top Northwest welterweight the past three years, winning the title from Jimmy Nolan in Calgary, Canada.

Now making his home in Portland, Dick married a Klamath Indian maid and has one child, a girl.

Included among Wolfe's victims is Chester Slider, one of the best fighters ever developed in the San Francisco Bay area. He had Slider on the floor.

Wolfe also counts Paul Kennedy, Dave Ball, Al Cliff and Joey Ortega in his list of victories.

In 85 pro bouts, Wolfe has won 65, 25 by knockouts.

In losing a close eight-round decision to sensational Earl Turner of Oakland on the recent Ezzard Charles-Joe Kahut card in Portland Wolfe won the prize for the best action bout.

A Turner-Wolfe rematch is in the making.

BUSY

Green is a busy Negro battler who throws plenty of leather. He'll give Wolfe bad moments.

Ralph Weiser will have to be at his best to beat Jimmy Proctor in the six-round sem-windup. The Bay area Negro scored an upset recently over highly-touted Bobby Doll of Boise, Ida. Fistic fans are looking for a knockout in this one.

The welterweight special event is also expected to be punctuated with more leather than the fans can follow. It's a local grudge bout, putting Rudy Carlson against Darrell Harrington, both Kalpine employes here.

BREWING

This bout has been brewing for some time.

Blastin' Billy Sunday, who usually figures in a knockout, either on the giving or receiving end, meets Brave Junior in the top four-rounder, another bout earmarked for action.

The opener shows Clyde Phoenix, Willow Ranch, Calif., against Billy Plummer, Weiser's sparring partner.

Lillard may put on one other four.

Reserved tickets are on sale at Dick Reeder's.

Prep Baseball Player Killed

COMANCHE, Okla. (AP) — A group of Comanche High School baseball players were limbering up, throwing the ball around the infield. It was a spring-like day and everyone was set for a good game.

Suddenly a ball thrown at 16-year-old Gary Eldon Moore struck him in the chest, just above the heart. No one thought much of it until Gary slumped to the ground.

Masters Tee Meet Opens

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — The flower fringed August National golf course waited like a tremendous and treacherous but deceptively beautiful trap in the East Georgia hills Thursday for the opening round of the Masters Tournament.

The field of 72 is the largest and probably the best on record here, but few expect more than three or four players to beat the National course 72-hole par of 288.

Last year when Ben Hogan finally won his first Masters with 280 golf, only four men were better than the 288 standard—Hogan, Skee Riegel, Lloyd Mangrum and Lew Worsham.

Eighteen amateurs are among the 72 taking their trip across the 6,950-yard layout. Willie Turnesa, 1948 National and 1949 British amateur champion, is the notable absentee.

Tee Favorites Clash In Trans-Mississippi

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Competition in the Trans-Mississippi Women's amateur Golf Tournament swung into the second round of match play Thursday with a program resembling a three-ring circus for the gallery fans at the Arizona Country Club.

Eight duels were on the bill and at least three of them pitted players against each other who are considered good enough to go all the way to the title in this 22nd edition of the tournament.

The three:

Defending Champion Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore against Mrs. Lyle Bowman of Richmond, Calif., former Oregon state champion.

Grace DeMoss of Corvalls, Ore., runner-up for the Trans-Miss championship in 1950, against Barbara (Bobby) Dawson of Piedmont, Calif.

Barbara Romack of Sacramento, Calif., newly crowned North-South amateur champ, against Mrs. John Holt of Longview, Wash., one of the better players from the Northwest who has been inactive in tournament play for several years but is now making a strong comeback.

Sharing attention with these three were battles between Marjorie Lindsay of Decatur, Ill., 1950 Trans-Miss titlewinner and Curtis Cup player, and Mrs. Jack Kennedy of St. Louis, and Edean Anderson of Helena, Mont., medalist here two days ago, whose opponent is Miss Marie Jacks of Phoenix, onetime all-around star athlete at the University of Arizona.

Favorites came through handily in the first round.

Only one, Miss Lindsay, got a slight scare. But Marjorie settled down and ousted Mrs. T. C. Wilmoth of Phoenix by a 5 and 4 score.

Miss Anderson dusted off Mrs. Robert Sanders, Phoenix, 6 and 5, and Miss Downey applied the same score to Janice Vought, Denver.

Slender Mrs. Bowman defeated Joan Nelson, comely blonde from the University of Arizona, 6 and 4.

The widest score was the 8 and 7 win by Mrs. Holt over Mrs. Roger Hafford, Phoenix, and the shortest was Miss Jacks' win, one up on the 18th, over Mrs. John Wheeler, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Miss DeMoss eliminated Mrs. Tanya McLaughin, Phoenix, 4 and 3.

Seals' Hafey Doubles

By The Associated Press

A five-hit shutout by Oakland's Leifty Lloyd Hittle over the San Diego Padres featured second day play in the Pacific Coast League's 1952 season.

The 5-foot 11-inch 27-year-old from Lodi, Calif., who has served two hitches with the Washington Senators, was never in trouble as he stopped Salveson in a pitching duel, 1-0.

At Sacramento Los Angeles' Tod Davis batted five for five to spark the Angels to an 8-6 victory. The third baseman got a triple, a double and three singles, driving in three runs.

At Hollywood Tom Saffell bashed in his first PCL run — and a lulu it was. With one out in the last of the ninth, the score tied and Gene [illegible] on first, the new Hollywood outfielder lashed a triple to deep center and Seattle succumbed 7-6.

The Rainiers kicked the game away, making five errors which led to three unearned runs. The [illegible] Wilson, shortstop who helped Oakland win the pennant two years ago, accounted for three. One of them let in the tying run in the eighth.

A timely blow told the tale in the [illegible] encounter, too. It was pinch hitter Will Hafey's double in the ninth. It scored Arcadio Biasatti and gave the Seals a 5-4 win over the Beavers.

A wild and sloppy contest, it was tied up in the eighth at 4-4 on a home run by Portland Outfielder Clint Conaster with Don Eggert on base.

Villanova Appoints Athletic Director

VILLANOVA, Pa. (AP) — Villanova College Thursday announced appointment of Art Raimo as director of athletics to succeed William F. Connelly who resigned.

Raimo will continue as head coach of Villanova's football team.

RALPH CARROLL, Pelicans' fast-baller who has been having trouble with wildness of late, will be held in reserve when the Klamath Falls nine faces Grants Pass Friday on the Cavemen's diamond. Fred Friedel gets the starting assignment.

TIME OUT!

"Sure a smart caddie that kid; he knows that 2 and 2 make 3!"

Recruit Fight Proposed

CHICAGO (AP) — The North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools has proposed a get-tough policy against athletic recruiting Offenders would be stripped from the group's accredited list.

The association's action at the start of its annual meeting Wednesday was the first offered by an accrediting group in support of the American Council on Education's proposed rigid sports control program.

The North Central, agency for 19 states from West Virginia to Wyoming, avoided action on the A.C.E.'s suggested ban on out-of-season football practice and bowl games.

The North Central program would eliminate "snap courses" for athletes, athletic scholarships, over - emphasis on winning, and hiring of high-salaried coaches whose sole job is to produce winning teams.

Friedel Gets Pel Kill Nod

It will probably be Freddie Friedel against big John Harbour when the Pelicans open their baseball leagueiare at Grants Pass tomorrow afternoon.

Pelican Coach John McGinnis settled on Friedel after the junior hurler showed more control than letterman Ralph Carroll against Redding last Saturday.

Harbour is the 220-pound football and track star who pitched good ball for the Cavemen the last couple of years.

Friedel's battery mate will be Ron Owings, switched from third base to strengthen the catching post. The Klamath infield will have George (Butcher Boy) Hanson at first base, Don Dexter at second, Harold Metler at short and Sam Wilbur at third.

Outfielders will be Ing Montgomery and Dick Lundsten and either Clayton Hannon or Calvin Gilmore in left field.

Other experienced hands on the Grants Pass team are Catcher Norm Hedgepeth, shortstop Dick James (of football and basketball fame) and Outfielder Ron Swisher, the student body president.

Swisher will work the outer gardens with Bill Krumholz and Don James, Dick's brother.

TOOLE 'BRAINS'

CORVALLIS (AP) — Bill Toole, freshman from Klamath Falls, led in the "brains" division of the Oregon State College basketball squad with a winter term grade average of 3.43. Perfect is 4.0.

The entire squad averaged 2.74 and half the members had 3.0 or above.
