WTC - Camp 6

By ELEANOR THOMSON
It is most heartening to look out one's window these days and see the snow gradually diminishing, after months of watching it pile up.

Monday, March 31, a fine spring day, a number of women turned out for a Stanley party held at the home of Mrs. S. R. Glassburn. They were Mrs. Gordon Good, Mrs. Pete Katchis, Mr. Henry Napier, Mrs. Glenn Adams, Mrs. Thomas Thomson, Mrs. Elmer Morehead, Mrs. E. D. Heywood, Mrs. R. R. Ross, Mrs. Dick Fairfield, all of Camp 6, and Mrs. Harold Marks of Klamath Falls, formerly of Camp 6. Mr. Bill Jones of Klamath Falls was demonstrator. A delicious dessert course was served with coffee at the close of the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Huck and son, Vern, spent the weekend at the Bly school. The Napier, Fairfields and Thomsons attended the Bly School from Saturday night, March 29. It turned out to be a candlelight dance as the electricity for the town of Bly was off due to a damaged transformer. The worst inconvenience suffered was the lack of hot coffee to go with the midnight lunch. Nancy Lybrand of Bly was crowned queen.

An afternoon of pinocle was enjoyed at the home of Mr. Thomas Thomson, Thursday, March 20. A dessert luncheon started the afternoon off. Besides the pinocle players, Mrs. E. D. Heywood and Mrs. Peter Katchis were guests. During the week of the school spring vacation busdriver George Smith and Mrs. Smith drove to San Diego and back. I guess Smith deserved a little respite from the snows of this territory.

Mrs. Peter Katchis entertained friends March 13 at a 1:00 o'clock dessert luncheon at her home. Breek desserts, one which was called "Pentecost." These were served buffet style, with coffee and shelled nuts. A game of Bingo was then played, which Mrs. Katchis enjoyed greatly. Readers of this column may remember that Mrs. Katchis arrived from Greece only last fall. She is getting along well and seems to be enjoying her Camp 6 home very much. She is fast learning to speak the English language with the help of her husband and neighbors, especially her next door neighbor, Mrs. Gordon Good.

The night of March 10, the school bus had a breakdown on its way home near the Liskey Flats. Bob Winfield happened along on his way home from work and took the message to School Supt. Earl Graham at Bly. Graham came along in his stationwagon and brought the children home. The next morning George Smith and Mrs. Thomas Thomson took the children to school in their family cars. Since then the bus has been replaced by a newer model. Mr. and Mrs. Sam James and sons Jackie, Sammie and Billy of Talent, Ore., were guests over the weekend of March 15-16 at the home of James' daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Fairfield and children, Karen and Dick Jr.
