House Scorns Vatican Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House voted heavily today to one Friday night to prohibit the government from setting up a diplomatic mission at the Vatican without Senate approval. But President Truman is free to renew relations at any time through a personal representative. The 159 to 82 vote was in connection with a provision in the bill denying the use of funds for any diplomatic mission "in any state or country" before the Senate has confirmed the top diplomatic official or chief of mission. Rep. Preston (D-Ga.), author of the provision, said its main purpose is to prevent President Truman from appointing an ambassador to the Vatican or from establishing a mission there during a congressional recess. This is an aftermath of the President's recently-disputed appointment of Gen. Mark W. Clark as ambassador to the Papal City. The Senate did not confirm the appointment, and it later was withdrawn at Clark's request. The legislators took precautions against being recorded individually on the controversial Vatican issue. They rushed it to a quick vote and avoided a roll call.

Truce Negotiators Fail To Make Headway Again

MUNSAN, Korea (AP) — Negotiators made no headway Saturday toward breaking a two-way deadlock holding up agreement on a persistent rumors that an armistice may be signed soon. The subcommittee on truce supervision wrangled for 20 minutes over Communist nomination of Soviet Russia as a neutral inspector and a U.N. demand for a ban on aerial construction. Observers said staff officers apparently were near agreement on a formula for exchanging prisoners of war. The secret prisoner talks were recessed indefinitely Friday. The observers said both sides are busy bringing their prisoner lists up to date. The U.N. Command has insisted that it will repatriate no prisoners against their will. The Reds want all U.S.-held prisoners back. Settlement of this bitter dispute might pave the way to agreement on the other two unsettled problems. Communist newsmen, who frequently reflect official thinking, hinted Friday that the Reds would be willing to withdraw their nomination of Russia if the U.N. Command abandoned its demand for an aerial ban. But after a brief session of the joint subcommittee on truce supervision Saturday, Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison said the Communists "have suggested no solution. . . They have advanced no new ideas." When asked about reports that a trade was in the making Harrison replied: "They haven't said anything about it. I can't negotiate on the basis of hints or what is said on the road outside the conference tents by Communist correspondents." TOYS - GAMES - KITES - HOBBY SUPPLIES — at POOLE'S 222 So. 7th

Phone Strike Bars Sought

DETROIT (AP) — The Michigan Bell Telephone Co. increased its wage offer Friday in an attempt to avert a threatened strike Monday, but the union quickly rejected the proposal. The company hiked its rejected $3 to $6 weekly increase to $3 to $7. A company statement called the new offer a "last ditch effort." The offer, made in an effort to avert a strike Monday by 13,000 Michigan workers, was rejected almost instantly. The offer was made as union heads were in session planning strategy for a strike which may involve 57,000 workers.

Farm Surplus Total Down

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department says its investment in farm surpluses has dropped from a peak $4,200,000,000 in 1950 to $1,830,000,000. It declined 123 million dollars the past month. The new level compares with $1,587,000,000 tied up November, 1948, in farm products stored under price support loans to farmers and products owned outright by the government. The department said losses on price support operations totaled $40,442,000 during the first eight months of the current fiscal year, which ends June 30. Losses were $345,599,000 during the last fiscal year. The drop in farm surpluses was attributed to the Korea War and the failure of farm production to keep pace with increased needs.

New Revised Bibles Due for Sale Soon

By SHERRY BOWEN AP Newsfeatures Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Almost a million Bibles which are different by many thousand words and phrases from older English versions will be out soon. The Revised Standard Version is authorized by the National Council of Churches which holds the copyright. Working with the Council are a number of denominations which do not belong to it. Included are almost all the major churches in the United States except the Roman Catholic. A large committee of Bible scholars has been working since 1937 on the version. The New Testament was completed in 1945 and published in 1946. About two million copies have been sold. Now the old Testament is finished. Three sets of presses will complete printing the new Bible about Sept. 30, when first copies will be released to the public. Thomas Nelson and Sons, the publisher, says it is the biggest first edition in history. Included are 25,000 copies of the whole Bible and 50,000 two-volume sets of the Old Testament. Orders are on hand for over a half million copies. Dr. Luther A. Weigle, dean emeritus of Yale Divinity School and former president of the Federal Council of Churches is chairman of the committee which made the revision. "We have sought to recover the Bible," he says. "We have sought to preserve the great values, literary and religious of the King James version. We are seeking to restore the Bible to its rightful place in American life." Weigle expects RSV will replace the King James for most English-speaking churches, although he and other members of the committee recognize the King James has been a mighty force in religion and that millions know the scriptures only in that version. "For more than a century, schol-

Death Takes Huston Walter

LEBANON, Ore. (AP) — Word was received here Friday of the death of C. Huston Walter, prominent Lebanon lumberman, at Tucson, Ariz. Walter, 47, a native of Iriquois, S. D., who was vacationing in Arizona, died Thursday night. He bought the Lebanon Lumber Company in 1937, and 12 years later sold out that firm and other holdings to the Santiam Lumber Company. After his retirement, he continued his interest in thoroughbred horses. He was one of the backers of the Lebanon Meadows Race track, a director of the Lebanon First National Bank and a member of the Arlington and University Clubs of Portland. His widow, Mildred, and son Jimmy, 11, survive.

Triplets Add 15th Child

WILLIAMSTON, N.C. (AP) — Mrs. Viola Brown, a 23-year-old Negro, was resting comfortably today after giving birth to her 13th, 14th and 15th babies. The triplets, weighing about five pounds each, were born Friday and were reported getting along fine at Martin General Hospital here. The father, PFC Lonnie Brown, is serving with the Army in Korea. The attending physician, Dr. L. S. Lewellyn, gave this portion of Mrs. Brown's medical history: "She gave birth to quintuplets July 12, 1950. They were about three months premature and did not survive. On Feb. 16, 1946, she gave birth to quadruplets, which also were premature and did not survive. In 1948, she gave birth to a son, and to twins April 15, 1951, all three surviving."

Woman Killed, 3 Men Injured

MYRTLE POINT (AP) — A woman was killed and three men were injured near here Friday in a head-on auto-truck collision. The driver was Mary Minter, Chicago. Injured were Roger Meisman, driver of the car, and Jack L. Valentine and Clemens J. Barth. They also were from Chicago. The driver of the log truck was not hurt.

Foot-and-Mouth Disease Fought

WASHINGTON (AP) — New steps to aid in the control of Canada's foot-and-mouth disease outbreak in Saskatchewan, and to guard against its spread south of the border, were reported Thursday. The United States has sent an expert from the Mexico eradication campaign to aid in the fight. He is Dr. Francis J. Mulhern. The Department of Agriculture reported also the tightening of inspection and quarantine regulations at the Canadian-U.S. border. It said 24 new inspectors have been employed for patrol work to guard against Canadian livestock crossing the border.

Wreck Injuries Prove Fatal

WALLA WALLA (AP) — Edwin Platt of Hermiston, Ore., critically injured in a head-on automobile collision which killed his wife Wednesday, died Friday night in a Walla Walla hospital. "One American photographer shouted, 'Hey, Queen, move over,'" said one awed Dutch newsmen, adding almost with disbelief: "And she did."

WARNING TO OUR FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS

Are you being approached by itinerant siding, roofing, and insulation applicators who use high pressure methods in their selling technique? If you are, we suggest the following procedure:

1. Do not sign a contract or make a deposit immediately.
2. Check with one of the dealers listed below for estimates on the same work.
3. Remember that the firms listed below are tax-payers of this community . . . and will be here to render you service on your building problems year in and year out . . . and to stand behind their materials and workmanship.
4. Do not be misled by honey-coated words. Particularly beware of demonstration home deals. Your local dealers and workmen will give you quality materials and workmanship at prices based on the actual value of the job . . . and NOT based on how much you can be high pressured into accepting.

We are inserting this ad because some of our friends tell us that itinerant siding, roofing, and insulation applicators have implied that they are representing or have connections with some of the dealers listed below or are representing the manufacturer of the materials directly. There are no such connections. For your own protection, check with your local dealer before signing any agreement.
