

Clarke-Hansen Wedding

LEAVING THE RECEPTION at Klamath Lutheran Church, the "just-weds" hasten through a shower of rice.

SOCIETY

by Milly Ramsby

THE LOVELY BRIDE-TO-BE receives the "last moment" smile from her mother of assurance that the cap and veil are properly in place.

LITTLE FLOWER GIRL, Judith Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Rose, 2623 Turnage Avenue, and the bride.

"TO EACH OTHER"

PASTOR IRVIN TWEET, left, the bridegroom, and best man Reginald Salmas, while the marriage certificate was being signed in the church office.

MRS. RICHARD FRANKLIN CLARKE . . . early spring bride, who before her marriage March 23, was Donna Marie Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Hansen, 4412 Laverne. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Goddard Clarke, and the late Mr. Clarke, of Portland. Rev. Irvin Tweet of the Klamath Lutheran church officiated.
All wedding photos by Guderian.

Home From England

Engaged

MRS. DAVE LISKEY, 1041 Eldorado Avenue, announced the engagement of her attractive daughter, Maxine, to Bruce R. Wirth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sol Wirth, 3135 Sunset Drive, at a dessert bridge luncheon given at her home, March 22. The wedding date has been set for May 25.
Photo by Guderian.

HOME FROM ENGLAND for a few days before leaving for Donaldson Air Force Base, Greenville, S.C., were Major and Mrs. George Warren Kinney (Helen Moore) and George Warren Jr., born June 16, 1951, in Savernake Hospital, Marlborough, Wiltshire, England. They were houseguests of Mrs. Kinney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Moore, 304 N. Carroll. The Kinneys were in England for a year and a half, while the Major was an exchange officer with the Royal Air Force. Young George's paternal grandparents are Mrs. Nell Kinney, 2349 Eberlein Avenue, and Mr. Oliver Kinney, Sprague River.
Photo by Kettler.

New Bride

MRS. WESLEY EDWARD WILLIAMS, the former Marilyn Janice O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Connell O'Neill, 1130 MonClaire. The attractive young bride's husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Williams, Airway Avenue. Rev. Stephen C. Thomas, First Methodist Church in Reno, read the marriage service, uniting two prominent Basin families. Several informal parties have been given for the popular young couple since their return from Reno, and more are planned.
Photo by A.J. Edwards, Oakland