Birthday Party For Macdoel Boy

MACDOEL — Norman Holbrook was honored with a party on his 5th birthday, March 26, by his mother, Mrs. Archie Thrapp, in their home at Macdoel. In the center of the living room was a unique and attractive centerpiece made up of all types of balloons. A special birthday song was played over KFJI requested by Mrs. Jim Whit. The little guests played games in the yard and movies were taken. The birthday cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Jim Whit. Under the pines in the front yard was the guest table which was centered with the cake. Gay trimmings of "The Lone Ranger" completed the decoration. After the traditional blowing out of the candles, cake, ice cream and punch were served to Norman's grandmother, Mrs. Maggie Criss; Mrs. Bud Stevenson and Barbara; Mrs. Leland Criss and Susan; Mrs. Arnold Criss, Russell and Larry; Mrs. Donovan Griffin and Jimmie; Mrs. Rhoda Eskilson; Katrina and Kenny Holbrook; Mrs. Delmer Criss, Lou Ann and Arthur Michael; Mrs. Martha Brannan; Mrs. V. G. Holbrook; Mrs. Jim Whit, Macdoel; Mrs. Mary Wiggins and Marietta, M. Hooper; Mrs. Fay Clark; Mrs. Howard Beck, Velma Jean and Eldon, Red Rock; Mrs. Irene Todorovic, Doris and Alice Driscoll of Klamath Falls.

Guests were Bennie, Jimmie and Billie Brown, Lorna and Leah McFall, Michael, David and Danny Grallan, Nondice and Linda McFall, Cecily Deason, Laria and Doug Schmiedl, Susie Wootens, Tommy, Jimmy and David Seater, Gary, Judy, Susie and Debbie Randall, Mrs. Homer Roberts, Mrs. Jack McFall, Mrs. Ted Schmiedl, Mrs. Bob Seater, Mrs. Louis Randall, Mrs. Jesse McFall, Mrs. Mike Dearborn, Mrs. Eddie Grallan, Mrs. Partridge, Mrs. Clyde Wooten and Mrs. Brown.

SOJOURNERS

Sojourner members and guests met in the Paul Bunyan Coffee Shop in the Willard Hotel for a no-hostess luncheon March 28, followed by a short business meeting conducted by Mrs. Winston D. Purvine. Guests of the afternoon were: Mrs. R. B. Ernst, Mrs. R. W. Feder, Mrs. L. D. Leslie and Mrs. D. A. Piper. New members welcomed included: Mrs. Mary Leckembry, Mrs. D. A. Richardson, Mrs. Lynn Zeigelmeyer, Mrs. H. R. Scribner and Mrs. C. L. Mutsch. Mrs. C. L. Dakin, spring dinner dance chairman, reported that the dance at the Yacht Club March 21, was attended by 28 couples. An "Easter Parade" theme was cleverly carried out in decorations and favors. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Payette won the award for the prize waltz. Committee assisting: Mrs. Dakin included: Mrs. W. J. Payette, Mrs. J. J. Howard, Mrs. C. E. Leithoff, Mrs. Keith Witherspoon and Mrs. Rex Hunsaker. Mrs. C. E. Leithoff and Mrs. Archie James were hostesses during the social hour at the regular meeting. Prizes were awarded to: Mrs. H. Phillips, pinocle; Mrs. George Roberts, canasta; and Mrs. John Ashley, bridge. Next meeting April 9, 1:45 p.m. preceded by no-hostess luncheon at 12:30 p.m. same location. Newcomers to Klamath Falls cordially invited.

Meeting

Prosperity Rebekah Lodge met March 20, IOOF Hall for a regular business meeting and initiation. The meeting was well attended with all officers and degree team present. The beautiful degree was conferred upon Lucille Bukasky of this city. After the meeting delicious refreshments were served in the dining room. Table decorations were lovely centerpieces of Iris, Daffodils and red Carnations which were furnished with compliments of the Suburban Flower Shop. Pussy Willows were featured in the table decorations.

Aloha Chapter OES Meeting

Aloha Chapter 61 Order of Eastern Star was very active during March; with two stated meetings and a special school of instruction, the regular meeting of the social club and a benefit rummage sale. The meeting on March 11, was dedicated to the 53rd anniversary of this chapter and a historical skit was presented by several of the "Friendship Girls," under the leadership of Mrs. Leona Angel. The skit, with appropriate costumes and furniture, was enacted with Mrs. Angel as "Aloha" reading from her "memory book" numerous interesting facts and incidents during the 53 years of Aloha Chapter which was founded in 1899. Those participating in the skit were: Leona Angel, Maude Wright, Geola Hellbroner, Sally Wood, Dorothy Tyrell, Arzella Voligt and Martha Powell. Also, at this meeting, several new members were initiated into the order. The meeting was followed by refreshments served on tables representing the twelve months of the year; with members and visitors seated at the table corresponding with their birthday months. On the refreshment committee were: Ethel Karlson, Corriette Larson, Jane Howell, Ethel Hopkins and Verla Land. On March 16, a special school of instruction in ritual was held by Mrs. Leila Wimberly, associate grand matron of Oregon. Her home is in Roseburg. After the meeting a no-host dinner was enjoyed at Jened's by a large number of local and visiting members. March 25 a large attendance of members met in regular session, after which refreshments were served by a committee headed by Mrs. Raymond Owens. Mrs. L. A. Murphy, worthy matron and Mr. Elmer Bramlett, worthy patron expressed their appreciation to all officers and members for the splendid cooperation and good fellowship displayed during this month.

Home Ceremony Unites Couple

The home of Mrs. Avila Dunlap 733 Old Fort Road, was the scene of an informal but pretty wedding March 19, when Kathleen Duncan, formerly of Texas and Lee Smith, Harrisburg, Oregon, were married at 2:30 p.m. before a small gathering of friends and relatives. Rev. Lloyd Holloway of the First Methodist Church officiated. The bride wore a gray tailored suit and a corsage of red roses. Her only attendant, Karen Kelley, wore a navy and gray suit, and her corsage was of carnations. The bridegroom was attended by John Jardine, a classmate from OTI. Present at the small reception following the ceremony were: Mrs. Dunlap, Edna Warner, Dorothy and Karen Kelley, Jo Ann Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Taylor, Alesia, Oregon; Mrs. Taylor is the bride's sister; John Jardine, Thomas Dunlap, Roger Heinrichs. The young-marrrieds postponed their wedding trip until later, since Lee is still a student at OTI.

PNG Club Meets

Past Noble Grand's Club met April 1, at the home of Alma Cofer, 1017 High Street, for a one o'clock potluck luncheon. In keeping with date, the hostess planned and prepared a menu which included delicious rolls (filled with cotton). She also officiated an April Fool puzzle on her guests, which, after they were all well tangled up in string, Vera Clemmens emerged as winner of first prize. The remainder of the afternoon was devoted to canasta and games. Mrs. Effie Train was guest of the day, and following members were present: Mae Anderson, Florence Custer, Ada Willis, Nellie Wattenburg, Emma Schuresman, Elizabeth Ramsby, Adeline Cofer, Jennie Hunt, Margaret Elden, Esther Mast and Vera Clemmens. Next meeting will be May 6, at the home of Florence Custer, 241 Hillside Avenue.

Women of Moose

MERRILL—Social Service committee held its chapter night program at the last regular meeting of the Merrill Women of the Moose. Hazel Hundley presented the following numbers: Faye Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Adams of Tulelake, two tap dance numbers; Don Skalicky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Skalicky of Tulelake, entertained with several acts of magic; a group of young boys known as the Tulelake Hillbillies sang western tunes. In this group were Wayne Osborne, Mike Adams, Richard Moore, Bill Havlina, Mickey Vernon and Hugh Mullins, all of Tulelake. The chapter gave a donation to the community lounge. The executive board and auditing committee is to meet at the home of Hazel Hundley of March 31. Refreshments for the next regular meeting, April 1, will be served by the Homemaking Committee with Bertha McKoen, chairman in charge.
