

Parties Given For Mrs. Poole

KLAMATH AGENCY—Guest of honor at two farewell parties last week was Mrs. Otto Poole...

Friday afternoon Mrs. Harold Wing entertained at tea in her home for Mrs. Poole...

During the afternoon Mrs. La Hoback, Mrs. Gail Edmonson and Mrs. Lawrence Myers from the Modoc...

From Cliftonville were Mrs. Walter Zimmetman, Mrs. Guy Helger, Mrs. Vernon Norval, Mrs. Dwight Kircher, Mrs. Joseph Mercer and Mrs. Aluel Rozer.

Local women were Mrs. Matt Spencer, Mr. Garud Shelland, Mrs. E. J. Diehl, Mrs. Clayton Nichols and Mrs. F. D. Wilder.

The Pooles left April 1, returning from the government service after 24 years...

The organization had 47 members last year and has more than doubled it with 107 as of now.

Chairman Walter Caruthers was very pleased with the way the members worked making comment that they always work together when the need arises.

Special thanks go to the Klamath Falls people who took part in the completion of this successful venture...

Those making it possible were the Baileget Motor company who furnished a brand new Ford with a chauffeur for the winners...

Chauffeur for the losers: the Coca Cola Bottling Works; Derby's; C. C. Cameron; S. B. and Gene...

Pathe who gave so his fine; the Esquire Theatre for complimentary tickets; Drew's Men's Store; Herman's; Har-field's; J. C. Penny Co; Charlie Mack's Flower Shop; the Herald...

and Mac Shely; Joe Wheeler and Dale Childers and the Spangon Barber Shop; Steve's Charm Center...

who made the contestants look like they stepped out of a fashion magazine and the Winema Hotel which treated its guests graciously.

Much fun and hilarious excitement was had as the day progressed from 11:00 a.m. to the finish which was the show as the last thing up the program.

Several people wanted to know who the brilliant person was who would think up such a good idea as this. The answer is Caruthers himself. He has been the instigator of other successful ideas. He is known as one who puts his whole heart into anything he tries to do.

Friday March 29 a deal was completed on the sale of the Ira Boydston place southeast of Madras to Miss Althea Edsall of Vallejo. The Boydstons were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Short and Mrs. Mina Edsall during their stay here. At present Boydston is with the Rural Electric Community and Mrs. Boydston with the Greenwood offices both in Amarillo, Texas.

REFLECTIONS FROM Milly's Mirror
SINCE MUCH SPACE—time and labor has been expended in catering about the weather—NOW is the auspicious 'I hope' moment to be thankful for what definitely is "spring in the air"—and pray that my favorite weather prognosticator (an ole achin' corn to me) (but a "pound" to you Time readers) is not in error—and AWAY with the winter wardrobe—and bring out that dress you like last spring—but don't crowd your luck—a growth on the toe isn't infallible, 'y know.
SPEAKING OF SPRING—the style show at the Zuleima luncheon at Jened's must have been sump'n—from the waves of raves still rolling in!
DELICIE HAZZARD and son John Owen have returned to Sacramento and family—Jay, his papa, and Rosalie his sister. They spent their time with his maternal grandparents, "Mom and Dad" Foster, the E. O's, on Jefferson Street. (The O is for the Owen as in young Hazzard's name.)
PATTY AND NEILE Tveitinos were more Jefferson Street visitors recently—when they visited Patty's mother, Lucille Gold, over the weekend, from San Francisco. They were one of the "top" 1951 bridal couples.
SIX WEEKS OF "just travellin' around"—for the Charles Etonis, Cuba, Florida, parts of Mexico, southern states—a visit with Gracie's mother, Mrs. H. C. Miller, in St. Francis, Kan.—before they rest their "vacation-weary" heads (the poor kids) on their own dowdy pillows at 4376 S. 6th Street.
THE BRIDE ON THE FRONT PAGE OF SOCIETY—is established in this writer's opinion as a clever and to say the least—practical gal—she designed the dresses and jackets for her attendants, including the flower girl—and she MADE the jackets, herself—Mr. Richard F. Clarke, nee Donna Marie Hansen—is the talented bride.
I DUNNO—maybe I should have skipped any mention of spring—but nothing ELSE could account for the sounds emanating from any room where "PEOPLE" between the vague ages of 12 to 20 are gathered. They go from a confidential lull to a giggling crescendo—but not for long, for crescendo is crescendoing like mad—and soon reaches the frutissimo apex of cacination—and when you've heard that you've been listening to a "teenage" session!
OVER THE AP WIRE—came the info about the application for a marriage license—Lancelot W. Dilworth and Esther Lawler—At present their address in Blaine, Wash.—on the Canadian border.
