DAR Eulalona Chapter Meets

Mrs. W. J. Owsley, 224 N. 2nd street, was hostess to Eulalona chapter, Daughters of American Revolution, at the regular monthly meeting, April 7. Assisting hostesses were: Mrs. H. A. Nitschelm, Mrs. H. A. Pedersen, Mrs. Arthur Denison and Mrs. Guy Barton. Mrs. Warren G. Noggle, chapter regent, presided. Mrs. Roland E. Wright and Mrs. William D. Foster gave interesting reports of the 38th annual state conference of Oregon Daughters, held in Eugene during the week of March 18. Election of officers for the Oregon DAR was held at this conference and Mrs. Allan E. McLean, Portland, was elected to serve as DAR state regent. Vice regents elected are: Mrs. Albert H. Powers, Coos Bay; and Mrs. Millard A. Pekar, Salem.

Miss Anne Lang, The Dalles, longtime Oregon DAR, 90 years of age, was buried Tuesday afternoon during the conference, and members stood in prayer in her memory.

Miss Lang had been Oregon state regent from 1922 to 1924, a vice president-general of the national society, and reporter-general to the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D. C. It was during Washington, D. C. that Miss Lang's term as state regent that Eulalona chapter of Klamath Falls was organized. Miss Lang appointed Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg as organizing regent and the chapter organization was completed in 1922.

The state conference voted to continue the present one-dollar per capita contribution toward the Champeo Memorial building fund for eventual construction of a cantakers' cottage near their mothers' memorial cabin, which attracts about 3000 visitors yearly.

Mrs. Don Zumwalt presented two of her pupils in delightful musical numbers, Aurelia Patterson sang "A Brown Bird Singing" by Wood and "A Bowl of Roses" by Clarke, Paul Dumvill sang "Beautiful Dreamer" by Stephen Foster, and "Ol' Man River" by Jerome Kern. Mrs. Zumwalt accompanied all numbers at the piano.

Officers for the coming chapter year will be elected at the May meeting. Elected to serve on the nominating committee are: Mrs. W. J. Owsley, Mrs. Charles J. Martin and Mrs. B. W. Zollman.
