

Radio

KFLW-1450 Kc.-PST
 Saturday Evening, April 12
 6:00 Sports Highlights
 6:15 Home Town News
 6:25 World News Summary
 6:30 Science Editor ABC
 6:45 Words of Life
 7:00 Mr. District Atty. ABC
 7:25 Political Microscope
 7:45 KUBR Radio Speech Dept.
 8:00 The Lone Ranger ABC
 8:30 Pacific Coast Baseball
 10:00 10 p.m. Headlines
 10:15 Pacific Coast Baseball
 10:30 Maddox Bros. & Rose
 11:00 News Summary
 11:05 Sign Off

KFLW-1450 Kc.-PST
 Sunday, April 13
 6:30 Easter Sunrise Services
 7:00 Concert Hall Revue ABC
 8:00 News ABC
 8:15 Morning Song ABC
 8:30 Light and Life Hour ABC
 9:00 Country Echo
 9:15 Chapel in Sky
 9:30 Negro College Choir ABC
 10:00 Sunday News Special ABC
 10:15 Brunch Time ABC
 10:30 National Vespers ABC
 11:00 Presbyterian Church
 12:00 Christian in Action ABC
 12:30 The Church in the Home ABC
 1:00 Old Fashioned Revival ABC
 2:00 Voice of Prophecy ABC
 2:30 Greatest Story ABC
 3:00 Hour of Devotion ABC
 3:30 Songs of Faith
 3:45 The S. Navy Band
 4:00 The S. Navy Band
 4:15 Jimmy Fidler
 4:30 Stop the Music ABC
 4:00 Drew Pearson ABC
 6:15 Meet Captain Archer ABC
 6:45 Home Town News
 6:55 World News Summary
 7:00 Caudwell Revue ABC
 7:30 The Great Adventure ABC
 8:00 Chet Huntley ABC
 8:15 Monday Morning Headlines ABC
 8:30 Paul Harvey ABC
 8:45 Pacific Coast Baseball
 9:00 Pacific Coast Baseball
 10:00 10 P. M. Headlines
 10:15 Pacific Coast Baseball
 11:00 News Summary
 11:05 Sign Off

KFLW-1450 Kc.-PST
 Monday, April 14
 6:00 Sign On News Sum.
 6:05 Corn in the Morn
 6:45 Farm Fare
 7:00 News Breakfast Ed.
 7:15 Charlie's Roundup
 7:30 Bob Garret, News ABC
 7:40 Top of the Morning
 8:00 Breakfast Club ABC
 9:00 Hank Henry Show
 9:30 Break the Bank ABC
 10:00 Chet Huntley News ABC
 10:15 Lone Journaler ABC
 10:30 My True Story ABC
 10:35 Whispering Streets ABC
 11:15 Stop and Shop
 11:30 Against Storm ABC
 11:45 County Agent Speaks
 12:35 Market Report
 12:50 Noon Edition News
 12:15 Payless Sidekick Show
 12:30 Lucky "The Ranch ABC
 1:05 Paul Harvey ABC
 1:15 Better Living
 2:00 Mary Margaret McBride ABC
 2:00 Basin Briefs

KFLW-1450 Kc.-PST
 Monday, April 14
 6:00 Sun On News Sum.
 6:05 Corn in the Morn
 6:45 Farm Fare
 7:00 News Breakfast Ed.
 7:15 Charlie's Roundup
 7:30 Bob Garret, News ABC
 7:40 Top of the Morning
 8:00 Breakfast Club ABC
 9:00 Hank Henry Show
 9:30 Break the Bank ABC
 10:00 Chet Huntley News ABC
 10:15 Lone Journaler ABC
 10:30 My True Story ABC
 10:35 Whispering Streets ABC
 11:15 Stop and Shop
 11:30 Against Storm ABC
 11:45 County Agent Speaks
 12:35 Market Report
 12:50 Noon Edition News
 12:15 Payless Sidekick Show
 12:30 Lucky "The Ranch ABC
 1:05 Paul Harvey ABC
 1:15 Better Living
 2:00 Mary Margaret McBride ABC
 2:00 Basin Briefs

WURLITZER
 A magnificent piano. Money lovely styles and finishes to choose from.
LOUIS R. MANN
 PIANO CO.
 120 No. 7th

Mobile
 RADIO REPAIRING
 Right At Your Home
 • Save Time and Money
 • All Work Guaranteed
 Ph. 9551 4535 Denver Ave.

NOTICE
 County Clerk's Office will be open evenings commencing Tuesday, April 8th, 7 to 9 p.m., for Registration of Voters.
 Registered Electors who will be unable to go to Polls to vote on Election Day on account of illness, may make application for Absentee Ballot.
 Chas. F. DeLap,
 County Clerk

CUSTOM
 Killing and Cutting, Wrapping and Curing at the BAKER'S PACKING CO.
 off Summers Lane and Bristol Ave.
 Ph. 5323

PAUL BUNYAN
 Coffee Shop
 Lenten dinners... the finest!
WILLARD HOTEL

INVESTIGATE THE AMANA
 FOOD CLUB PLAN
 Membership - 15% MONTHLY DUES
FREE!
MERIT'S
 609 So. 6th Ph. 2-3429

2:15 When A Girl Marries ABC
 2:30 Mary Martin ABC
 2:45 Tom Postel's Winters ABC
 3:00 Betty Crocker ABC
 3:15 Ted Malone ABC
 3:30 Dean Cameron ABC
 3:45 Errands of Mercy
 4:00 Requestfully Yours
 4:15 Fun Factory ABC
 4:30 World Flight Reporter ABC
 4:45 Chet Huntley ABC
 4:55 B & B
 5:00 Sports Highlights
 5:15 Home Town News
 5:30 World News Summary
 5:45 Headlines Edition ABC
 6:05 Coming Attractions on ABC
 7:00 The Lone Ranger ABC
 7:30 Henry Taylor ABC
 7:45 Stewart Craig ABC
 8:00 The Big Hand ABC
 8:30 Whom Should We Choose for Congress?

KFLW-1450 Kc.-PST
 Saturday Evening, April 12
 6:00 Around Town-News
 6:15 Klamath Theater Quiz
 6:30 Assembly of God Hour
 7:00 College Choir MBS
 7:30 Klamath Temple
 8:00 MGM Theatre MBS
 9:00 News MBS
 9:15 Bowling
 9:30 News MBS
 10:00 The Red Barn
 10:30 Lombardo Land-USA MBS
 11:00 Night Owl Club
 11:05 Night Owl Club
 12:00 Sign Off

KFLW-1450 Kc.-PST
 Sunday, April 13
 6:00 Wings of Healing
 6:20 5-Min. News
 6:45 Children's Chapel
 8:00 Radio Bible Class MBS
 8:30 Radio Bible Center
 8:45 Island Melodies
 10:00 News MBS
 10:15 News MBS
 10:30 Lutheran Hour MBS
 11:00 Frank and Ernest MBS
 11:30 Guest Star
 11:45 To Be Announced MBS
 12:05 News MBS
 12:15 Bill Cunningham MBS
 12:30 News MBS
 1:00 Official Detective MBS
 1:25 News MBS
 1:40 Crime Fighters MBS
 1:55 Bobb's Benson MBS
 2:00 The Shadow MBS
 2:15 Enchanted MBS
 2:30 4-11-11-11 MBS
 2:45 Nick Carter MBS
 3:00 Cecil Brown, News MBS
 4:00 The Hoover Report
 4:15 Steam Heat MBS
 4:30 Musical Arts Council
 4:45 Under Attack MBS
 5:00 Around Town-News
 5:15 Klamath Theater Quiz
 5:30 Under Attack MBS
 5:45 Around Town-News
 6:00 Salvation Army Easter
 6:30 Twenty Minutes MBS
 6:30 Forward America
 6:50 Glenn Hardy-News MBS
 7:15 Voice of America
 7:30 The Whistler CBS
 10:00 MGM Musical Comedy Theater
 11:00 Sign Off

KFLW-1450 Kc.-PST
 Monday, April 14
 6:00 Sun On News Sum.
 6:05 Corn in the Morn
 6:45 Farm Fare
 7:00 News Breakfast Ed.
 7:15 Charlie's Roundup
 7:30 Bob Garret, News ABC
 7:40 Top of the Morning
 8:00 Breakfast Club ABC
 9:00 Hank Henry Show
 9:30 Break the Bank ABC
 10:00 Chet Huntley News ABC
 10:15 Lone Journaler ABC
 10:30 My True Story ABC
 10:35 Whispering Streets ABC
 11:15 Stop and Shop
 11:30 Against Storm ABC
 11:45 County Agent Speaks
 12:35 Market Report
 12:50 Noon Edition News
 12:15 Payless Sidekick Show
 12:30 Lucky "The Ranch ABC
 1:05 Paul Harvey ABC
 1:15 Better Living
 2:00 Mary Margaret McBride ABC
 2:00 Basin Briefs

WURLITZER
 A magnificent piano. Money lovely styles and finishes to choose from.
LOUIS R. MANN
 PIANO CO.
 120 No. 7th

Mobile
 RADIO REPAIRING
 Right At Your Home
 • Save Time and Money
 • All Work Guaranteed
 Ph. 9551 4535 Denver Ave.

NOTICE
 County Clerk's Office will be open evenings commencing Tuesday, April 8th, 7 to 9 p.m., for Registration of Voters.
 Registered Electors who will be unable to go to Polls to vote on Election Day on account of illness, may make application for Absentee Ballot.
 Chas. F. DeLap,
 County Clerk

Goodye Body Odors
 all day... all over WITH FULL STRENGTH
NULLO
 Chlorophyll Tablets
LEE HENDRICKS
 Your Neighborhood Drugist
 2212 So. 6th Phone 4321

Bankers Rap Truman Acts

PULLMAN (AP) — Pacific Northwest Bankers opened a two-day conference here Thursday with sharp attacks on the Truman administration.
 Edward C. Sammons of Portland, president of the United States National Bank said the Truman administration has "kicked the props out from under the monetary controls program."
 He told the 225 western bankers that credit controls had stopped inflation "in its tracks."
 "Then," he charged "President Truman, recognizing this as a political year and feeling pump priming is necessary, took two steps which kicked the props out."
 He said the President "sabotaged" the monetary controls program by authorizing municipalities to issue bonds which he said is in violation of the voluntary credit restraint program. The other step, he said, is the President's endorsement of a wage hike for steel workers.
 William E. Irvin of Boise, vice president of the Idaho First National bank, said he is "wondering when the administration will wave its benevolent wand and try to get the bankers to go along on that steel wage increase."

Insecticides' OK Held Up

WENATCHEE (AP) — Federal Security Administration Chief Oscar Ewing says publication of an order on tolerances for fruit and vegetable insecticides will continue to be delayed.
 Ten months of testimony by federal and industry officials and scientists on the sprays were completed in September 1950 and Rep. Horn (D-Wash.) asked if an order would be issued soon.
 Ewing told Horn this week that the complexity of the testimony and loss of FDA personnel specialized in analyzing the findings is delaying establishment of the order.
 Rep. Horn had expressed fear that further delay would hamper research and production use of the toxic sprays, which are widely employed for fruit and vegetable insect control.

Kind People Bring Tears

SEATTLE (AP) — A blind woman whose guide dog was killed by a car had tears in her sightless eyes Friday as she heard of a public move to get her another.
 "People are very kind," commented Mrs. Melba King, who thought two days ago that her dog was only injured as it lay dead beside her.
 A radio station and a community civic club launched separate drives to buy another dog and to finance Mrs. King's one-month training period with it at San Rafael, Calif.
 Mrs. King, a native of Alaska, is a secretary at a salvage yard. She was not with the dog when it was killed in front of the yard. Her husband is partly blind.

Dulles Seeks U.S. Action

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — John Foster Dulles called Friday night for the United States to seize the initiative in foreign policy.
 "We should create crisis for Russia instead of Russia creating crisis for us," declared Dulles in opening his attack on the administration's handling of foreign matters.
 In recent years, the Republican, who had been a top State Department adviser, said most steps "were all practically taken as emergency measures to meet situations created by Russia."
 "That is not the right way to run our foreign policy," he added firmly. "We need today foreign policies which are faithful to our great tradition."
 Dulles severed his ties with the Truman administration last month to speak out on foreign affairs this presidential-election year. He addressed a regional meeting of the American Bar Association.
 He paid tribute to President Truman and Secretary of State Acheson as men who "really want bipartisanship in foreign policy" and urged him to "bring 100 per cent backing."
 But he made it clear he was critical of some things the administration was doing abroad.
 He said Democrats and Republicans alike in Congress realize the need for national unity. But just wanting it isn't enough, he said. The problem is how to achieve it.

Circus Lion Bites Trainer

NEW YORK (AP) — Some 12,000 circus spectators at Madison Square Garden Friday night saw a lion grab in his jaws the left forearm of animal trainer Oscar Konyak.
 But attendants came to the trainer's aid and he walked leisurely from the ring. Then he left the garden and took a taxicab to a hospital.
 Officials of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Circus said his condition was not serious and that he probably would perform on schedule Saturday. He was to spend the night in the hospital.
 Konyak, 45, who comes from Milan, Italy, works with 10 lions.

Rotarians Hear German Band

The Rotary Club was entertained Friday by the club's "Little German Band" in spring concert under the direction of Walt McIntyre, managing director.
 The group is composed of McIntyre, director; Bob Chilcote and Earl Kent, cornets; Mike Balsiger and Dr. John Merryman, "slush pumpers"; Andy Loney, "rain pump"; Charlie Martin, bass horn; Delon (Whitey) Mills, bass and Frank Fleet, bass drum.
 It was announced by Lloyd Prock chairman of the day, that the band is open for engagements.

HERE TONIGHT—Maddox Brothers and Rose, colorful Western band, makes its fifth Klamath Falls Armory appearance tonight. The outfit is one of the most popular units offered by Promoter Baldy Evans.

Week's Business Focused On Steel Mills' Seizure

NEW YORK (AP) — Government seizure of the nation's steel mills dominated industrial and financial activities this week.
 A strike in the strategic industry was averted. Production was getting back to normal. But government seizure left pressing problems.
 Leaders in the basic steel industry and businessmen in other fields lined out at the seizure with sharp words. One called it "united dictatorship."
 The industry went into the courts to battle legality of the order. It lost its first attempts to obtain a rapid review of its case.
 Negotiations for a settlement of the dispute between management and CIO workers continued. But as the week ended there was no settlement in sight.
 Meanwhile, a Western Union strike dragged on. The company claimed service was restored during the week to many communities. But there were still large numbers without service.
 A strike of telephone workers in Michigan was settled. Little progress was reported toward settlement of other communications strikes. But many felt the Detroit agreement might provide a base for others.
 There were rumblings of labor trouble ahead in the oil industry. C. A. Knight, president of CIO Oil Workers' International Union, said 125,000 members of 20 unions would strike if pending issues aren't settled.
 The retail merchants had a little happier tale to tell. Shoppers spent a little more in the pre-Easter week. But the retail reports were spotty.
INCREASES
 There were some price increases in the food line. Bread, cake and pie prices are due to go up during the next 30 days.
COUNTERFEIT FOUND
SINGAPORE (AP)—Counterfeit Indonesian currency, imported into Singapore from Java, Borneo and Sumatra is being bought and sold in the colony. This became known when a Chinese was charged in court with having sold 50 fake Indonesian notes to an agent of the Indonesian consulate general.

Kind People Bring Tears

SEATTLE (AP) — A blind woman whose guide dog was killed by a car had tears in her sightless eyes Friday as she heard of a public move to get her another.
 "People are very kind," commented Mrs. Melba King, who thought two days ago that her dog was only injured as it lay dead beside her.
 A radio station and a community civic club launched separate drives to buy another dog and to finance Mrs. King's one-month training period with it at San Rafael, Calif.
 Mrs. King, a native of Alaska, is a secretary at a salvage yard. She was not with the dog when it was killed in front of the yard. Her husband is partly blind.

Dulles Seeks U.S. Action

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — John Foster Dulles called Friday night for the United States to seize the initiative in foreign policy.
 "We should create crisis for Russia instead of Russia creating crisis for us," declared Dulles in opening his attack on the administration's handling of foreign matters.
 In recent years, the Republican, who had been a top State Department adviser, said most steps "were all practically taken as emergency measures to meet situations created by Russia."
 "That is not the right way to run our foreign policy," he added firmly. "We need today foreign policies which are faithful to our great tradition."
 Dulles severed his ties with the Truman administration last month to speak out on foreign affairs this presidential-election year. He addressed a regional meeting of the American Bar Association.
 He paid tribute to President Truman and Secretary of State Acheson as men who "really want bipartisanship in foreign policy" and urged him to "bring 100 per cent backing."
 But he made it clear he was critical of some things the administration was doing abroad.
 He said Democrats and Republicans alike in Congress realize the need for national unity. But just wanting it isn't enough, he said. The problem is how to achieve it.

Circus Lion Bites Trainer

NEW YORK (AP) — Some 12,000 circus spectators at Madison Square Garden Friday night saw a lion grab in his jaws the left forearm of animal trainer Oscar Konyak.
 But attendants came to the trainer's aid and he walked leisurely from the ring. Then he left the garden and took a taxicab to a hospital.
 Officials of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Circus said his condition was not serious and that he probably would perform on schedule Saturday. He was to spend the night in the hospital.
 Konyak, 45, who comes from Milan, Italy, works with 10 lions.

Rotarians Hear German Band

The Rotary Club was entertained Friday by the club's "Little German Band" in spring concert under the direction of Walt McIntyre, managing director.
 The group is composed of McIntyre, director; Bob Chilcote and Earl Kent, cornets; Mike Balsiger and Dr. John Merryman, "slush pumpers"; Andy Loney, "rain pump"; Charlie Martin, bass horn; Delon (Whitey) Mills, bass and Frank Fleet, bass drum.
 It was announced by Lloyd Prock chairman of the day, that the band is open for engagements.

Ava Nixes Mixing Career And Marriage in Publicity

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Behind the Screen: Ava Gardner's blending over a full magazine's billing as Ava Gardner, she's Mrs. S. of the screen, but wants to mix of marriage and career in her publicity.
 There's a comeback movie in the crystal ball for Luba Rainer. Terry Moore's still winning. A college campus mail shop where she toniques with Richard Jankel in "Come Back Little Sheba" is named The Room. Grid star Glenn Davis is The Room to whom Terry's not saying come back.
 A newly-arrived British actress was asked if she attended Elizabeth Taylor's London wedding. "No, darling," she said. "But I hope to catch the next one."
 F. Hugh Herbert, the producer-writer slated for a $500,000 income tax refund, met Paramount producer Harry Tugend, who asked "Have you received that refund yet?"
 "Not yet," said Herbert.
 "Well, don't worry about it," said Tugend, who's also in their high brackets. "I just paid my income tax and if my check clears, you'll get your $500,000."
 Writers hastily erased the name of a hotel from the script of "Stars and Stripes, Forever." The story had Ruth Hussey and Clifton Webb as Mr. and Mrs. John Phillip. Snuggly checking into the "Belvedere Hotel."
 Merle Oberon denied it last summer and she's still saying that she will never wed Dr. Rex Ross, her constant admirer. He went to South America with her on that good-bye tour, however. Polly Bergen's recording her own album of sophisticated songs to convince the record companies she's no longer in the hillbilly class.
 Television has been blamed for overstraining poor movie business, turning the kids into junior comedians and Chira Welch's escapades, and stirring arguments between Moon and Pop over whether to tune in Dagmar or the wrestler.
 But by golly, it's proven that women don't need all that fancy dress. Male cheerleaders in here please!
 Gorgeous, black-haired Marylin Sinclair, the first TV queen headed for movie stardom just signed a Paramount contract. It's still wide-eyed and breathless over the $500,000 TV show on which she's starred since 1949 in New York.
 She told me: "On my first half-hour show I had seven costume changes in 22 minutes. It was a revelation to me. I can't get into one dress that quick at home."
 Is it true what Hollywood hears about New York's TV madonnas? "Honey," she smiled, "It's Hollywood's spending hours fixing my hair. In television I was lucky if my hair stayed on. One day I was rehearsing with John Hertz. He asked me how quick and how I looked unconscious by a microphone. On another show the camera stopped just in time. But it's wonderful training."
 Once rejected by Paramount when she was a teen-ager from San Diego, Mary's now due for a big Paramount star buildup. But she told me, it's not her movie debut.
 Eight years ago she and a girl friend wrote an extra in the Marlene Dietrich movie "Kismet." The girl friend, another TV queen — Maria Riva, daughter of Marlene.
 Paramount's cooking up a boat for the main title on the Hugo-Crosby-Lombard reuniting in "The Road to Hall." Plans call for a gaily slave striking a going-a-la South America with her on that good-bye tour, however. Polly Bergen's recording her own album of sophisticated songs to convince the record companies she's no longer in the hillbilly class.
 Television has been blamed for overstraining poor movie business, turning the kids into junior comedians and Chira Welch's escapades, and stirring arguments between Moon and Pop over whether to tune in Dagmar or the wrestler.
 But by golly, it's proven that women don't need all that fancy dress. Male cheerleaders in here please!
 Gorgeous, black-haired Marylin Sinclair, the first TV queen headed for movie stardom just signed a Paramount contract. It's still wide-eyed and breathless over the $500,000 TV show on which she's starred since 1949 in New York.
 She told me: "On my first half-hour show I had seven costume changes in 22 minutes. It was a revelation to me. I can't get into one dress that quick at home."
 Is it true what Hollywood hears about New York's TV madonnas? "Honey," she smiled, "It's Hollywood's spending hours fixing my hair. In television I was lucky if my hair stayed on. One day I was rehearsing with John Hertz. He asked me how quick and how I looked unconscious by a microphone. On another show the camera stopped just in time. But it's wonderful training."
 Once rejected by Paramount when she was a teen-ager from San Diego, Mary's now due for a big Paramount star buildup. But she told me, it's not her movie debut.
 Eight years ago she and a girl friend wrote an extra in the Marlene Dietrich movie "Kismet." The girl friend, another TV queen — Maria Riva, daughter of Marlene.
 Paramount's cooking up a boat for the main title on the Hugo-Crosby-Lombard reuniting in "The Road to Hall." Plans call for a gaily slave striking a going-a-la South America with her on that good-bye tour, however. Polly Bergen's recording her own album of sophisticated songs to convince the record companies she's no longer in the hillbilly class.
 Television has been blamed for overstraining poor movie business, turning the kids into junior comedians and Chira Welch's escapades, and stirring arguments between Moon and Pop over whether to tune in Dagmar or the wrestler.
 But by golly, it's proven that women don't need all that fancy dress. Male cheerleaders in here please!
 Gorgeous, black-haired Marylin Sinclair, the first TV queen headed for movie stardom just signed a Paramount contract. It's still wide-eyed and breathless over the $500,000 TV show on which she's starred since 1949 in New York.
 She told me: "On my first half-hour show I had seven costume changes in 22 minutes. It was a revelation to me. I can't get into one dress that quick at home."
 Is it true what Hollywood hears about New York's TV madonnas? "Honey," she smiled, "It's Hollywood's spending hours fixing my hair. In television I was lucky if my hair stayed on. One day I was rehearsing with John Hertz. He asked me how quick and how I looked unconscious by a microphone. On another show the camera stopped just in time. But it's wonderful training."
 Once rejected by Paramount when she was a teen-ager from San Diego, Mary's now due for a big Paramount star buildup. But she told me, it's not her movie debut.
 Eight years ago she and a girl friend wrote an extra in the Marlene Dietrich movie "Kismet." The girl friend, another TV queen — Maria Riva, daughter of Marlene.
 Paramount's cooking up a boat for the main title on the Hugo-Crosby-Lombard reuniting in "The Road to Hall." Plans call for a gaily slave striking a going-a-la South America with her on that good-bye tour, however. Polly Bergen's recording her own album of sophisticated songs to convince the record companies she's no longer in the hillbilly class.
 Television has been blamed for overstraining poor movie business, turning the kids into junior comedians and Chira Welch's escapades, and stirring arguments between Moon and Pop over whether to tune in Dagmar or the wrestler.
 But by golly, it's proven that women don't need all that fancy dress. Male cheerleaders in here please!
 Gorgeous, black-haired Marylin Sinclair, the first TV queen headed for movie stardom just signed a Paramount contract. It's still wide-eyed and breathless over the $500,000 TV show on which she's starred since 1949 in New York.
 She told me: "On my first half-hour show I had seven costume changes in 22 minutes. It was a revelation to me. I can't get into one dress that quick at home."
 Is it true what Hollywood hears about New York's TV madonnas? "Honey," she smiled, "It's Hollywood's spending hours fixing my hair. In television I was lucky if my hair stayed on. One day I was rehearsing with John Hertz. He asked me how quick and how I looked unconscious by a microphone. On another show the camera stopped just in time. But it's wonderful training."
 Once rejected by Paramount when she was a teen-ager from San Diego, Mary's now due for a big Paramount star buildup. But she told me, it's not her movie debut.
 Eight years ago she and a girl friend wrote an extra in the Marlene Dietrich movie "Kismet." The girl friend, another TV queen — Maria Riva, daughter of Marlene.
 Paramount's cooking up a boat for the main title on the Hugo-Crosby-Lombard reuniting in "The Road to Hall." Plans call for a gaily slave striking a going-a-la South America with her on that good-bye tour, however. Polly Bergen's recording her own album of sophisticated songs to convince the record companies she's no longer in the hillbilly class.
 Television has been blamed for overstraining poor movie business, turning the kids into junior comedians and Chira Welch's escapades, and stirring arguments between Moon and Pop over whether to tune in Dagmar or the wrestler.
 But by golly, it's proven that women don't need all that fancy dress. Male cheerleaders in here please!
 Gorgeous, black-haired Marylin Sinclair, the first TV queen headed for movie stardom just signed a Paramount contract. It's still wide-eyed and breathless over the $500,000 TV show on which she's starred since 1949 in New York.
 She told me: "On my first half-hour show I had seven costume changes in 22 minutes. It was a revelation to me. I can't get into one dress that quick at home."
 Is it true what Hollywood hears about New York's TV madonnas? "Honey," she smiled, "It's Hollywood's spending hours fixing my hair. In television I was lucky if my hair stayed on. One day I was rehearsing with John Hertz. He asked me how quick and how I looked unconscious by a microphone. On another show the camera stopped just in time. But it's wonderful training."
 Once rejected by Paramount when she was a teen-ager from San Diego, Mary's now due for a big Paramount star buildup. But she told me, it's not her movie debut.
 Eight years ago she and a girl friend wrote an extra in the Marlene Dietrich movie "Kismet." The girl friend, another TV queen — Maria Riva, daughter of Marlene.
 Paramount's cooking up a boat for the main title on the Hugo-Crosby-Lombard reuniting in "The Road to Hall." Plans call for a gaily slave striking a going-a-la South America with her on that good-bye tour, however. Polly Bergen's recording her own album of sophisticated songs to convince the record companies she's no longer in the hillbilly class.
 Television has been blamed for overstraining poor movie business, turning the kids into junior comedians and Chira Welch's escapades, and stirring arguments between Moon and Pop over whether to tune in Dagmar or the wrestler.
 But by golly, it's proven that women don't need all that fancy dress. Male cheerleaders in here please!
 Gorgeous, black-haired Marylin Sinclair, the first TV queen headed for movie stardom just signed a Paramount contract. It's still wide-eyed and breathless over the $500,000 TV show on which she's starred since 1949 in New York.
 She told me: "On my first half-hour show I had seven costume changes in 22 minutes. It was a revelation to me. I can't get into one dress that quick at home."
 Is it true what Hollywood hears about New York's TV madonnas? "Honey," she smiled, "It's Hollywood's spending hours fixing my hair. In television I was lucky if my hair stayed on. One day I was rehearsing with John Hertz. He asked me how quick and how I looked unconscious by a microphone. On another show the camera stopped just in time. But it's wonderful training."
 Once rejected by Paramount when she was a teen-ager from San Diego, Mary's now due for a big Paramount star buildup. But she told me, it's not her movie debut.
 Eight years ago she and a girl friend wrote an extra in the Marlene Dietrich movie "Kismet." The girl friend, another TV queen — Maria Riva, daughter of Marlene.
 Paramount's cooking up a boat for the main title on the Hugo-Crosby-Lombard reuniting in "The Road to Hall." Plans call for a gaily slave striking a going-a-la South America with her on that good-bye tour, however. Polly Bergen's recording her own album of sophisticated songs to convince the record companies she's no longer in the hillbilly class.
 Television has been blamed for overstraining poor movie business, turning the kids into junior comedians and Chira Welch's escapades, and stirring arguments between Moon and Pop over whether to tune in Dagmar or the wrestler.
 But by golly, it's proven that women don't need all that fancy dress. Male cheerleaders in here please!
 Gorgeous, black-haired Marylin Sinclair, the first TV queen headed for movie stardom just signed a Paramount contract. It's still wide-eyed and breathless over the $500,000 TV show on which she's starred since 1949 in New York.
 She told me: "On my first half-hour show I had seven costume changes in 22 minutes. It was a revelation to me. I can't get into one dress that quick at home."
 Is it true what Hollywood hears about New York's TV madonnas? "Honey," she smiled, "It's Hollywood's spending hours fixing my hair. In television I was lucky if my hair stayed on. One day I was rehearsing with John Hertz. He asked me how quick and how I looked unconscious by a microphone. On another show the camera stopped just in time. But it's wonderful training."
 Once rejected by Paramount when she was a teen-ager from San Diego, Mary's now due for a big Paramount star buildup. But she told me, it's not her movie debut.
 Eight years ago she and a girl friend wrote an extra in the Marlene Dietrich movie "Kismet." The girl friend, another TV queen — Maria Riva, daughter of Marlene.
 Paramount's cooking up a boat for the main title on the Hugo-Crosby-Lombard reuniting in "The Road to Hall." Plans call for a gaily slave striking a going-a-la South America with her on that good-bye tour, however. Polly Bergen's recording her own album of sophisticated songs to convince the record companies she's no longer in the hillbilly class.
 Television has been blamed for overstraining poor movie business, turning the kids into junior comedians and Chira Welch's escapades, and stirring arguments between Moon and Pop over whether to tune in Dagmar or the wrestler.
 But by golly, it's proven that women don't need all that fancy dress. Male cheerleaders in here please!
 Gorgeous, black-haired Marylin Sinclair, the first TV queen headed for movie stardom just signed a Paramount contract. It's still wide-eyed and breathless over the $500,000 TV show on which she's starred since 1949 in New York.
 She told me: "On my first half-hour show I had seven costume changes in 22 minutes. It was a revelation to me. I can't get into one dress that quick at home."
 Is it true what Hollywood hears about New York's TV madonnas? "Honey," she smiled, "It's Hollywood's spending hours fixing my hair. In television I was lucky if my hair stayed on. One day I was rehearsing with John Hertz. He asked me how quick and how I looked unconscious by a microphone. On another show the camera stopped just in time. But it's wonderful training."
 Once rejected by Paramount when she was a teen-ager from San Diego, Mary's now due for a big Paramount star buildup. But she told me, it's not her movie debut.
 Eight years ago she and a girl friend wrote an extra in the Marlene Dietrich movie "Kismet." The girl friend, another TV queen — Maria Riva, daughter of Marlene.
 Paramount's cooking up a boat for the main title on the Hugo-Crosby-Lombard reuniting in "The Road to Hall." Plans call for a gaily slave striking a going-a-la South America with her on that good-bye tour, however. Polly Bergen's recording her own album of sophisticated songs to convince the record companies she's no longer in the hillbilly class.
 Television has been blamed for overstraining poor movie business, turning the kids into junior comedians and Chira Welch's escapades, and stirring arguments between Moon and Pop over whether to tune in Dagmar or the wrestler.
 But by golly, it's proven that women don't need all that fancy dress. Male cheerleaders in here please!
 Gorgeous, black-haired Marylin Sinclair, the first TV queen headed for movie stardom just signed a Paramount contract. It's still wide-eyed and breathless over the $500,000 TV show on which she's starred since 1949 in New York.
 She told me: "On my first half-hour show I had seven costume changes in 22 minutes. It was a revelation to me. I can't get into one dress that quick at home."
 Is it true what Hollywood hears about New York's TV madonnas? "Honey," she smiled, "It's Hollywood's spending hours fixing my hair. In television I was lucky if my hair stayed on. One day I was rehearsing with John Hertz. He asked me how quick and how I looked unconscious by a microphone. On another show the camera stopped just in time. But it's wonderful training."
 Once rejected by Paramount when she was a teen-ager from San Diego, Mary's now due for a big Paramount star buildup. But she told me, it's not her movie debut.
 Eight years ago she and a girl friend wrote an extra in the Marlene Dietrich movie "Kismet." The girl friend, another TV queen — Maria Riva, daughter of Marlene.
 Paramount's cooking up a boat for the main title on the Hugo-Crosby-Lombard reuniting in "The Road to Hall." Plans call for a gaily slave striking a going-a-la South America with her on that good-bye tour, however. Polly Bergen's recording her own album of sophisticated songs to convince the record companies she's no longer in the hillbilly class.
 Television has been blamed for overstraining poor movie business, turning the kids into junior comedians and Chira Welch's escapades, and stirring arguments between Moon and Pop over whether to tune in Dagmar or the wrestler.
 But by golly, it's proven that women don't need all that fancy dress. Male cheerleaders in here please!
 Gorgeous, black-haired Marylin Sinclair, the first TV queen headed for movie stardom just signed a Paramount contract. It's still wide-eyed and breathless over the $500,000 TV show on which she's starred since 1949 in New York.
 She told me: "On my first half-hour show I had seven costume changes in 22 minutes. It was a revelation to me. I can't get into one dress that quick at home."
 Is it true what Hollywood hears about New York's TV madonnas? "Honey," she smiled, "It's Hollywood's spending hours fixing my hair. In