K.U.H.S. Highlights

By JEAN OWENS

"George Washington Slept Here" promises to be one of the more outstanding three act student body plays ever presented by our dramatics department. A preview was given yesterday featuring introductions of the characters and scenes from the various acts, and a special matinee production was presented to the student body at the regular student price of forty cents. The curtain rising at 11 o'clock this morning. The entertaining comedy is a Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman production.

Adults and parents will be given a chance to view this play Thursday evening in the KUHBS auditorium. First act begins at 8 o'clock sharp. Adult admission is 60 cents, students, 40 cents.

Lets all come to the auditorium tomorrow night, support and show our appreciation for the time, work and money contributed by all participating in this truly outstanding play.

Two more names have been added to the list of student body officer candidates. Included in the running for first vice-president is Don Dexter, while Lyle Mills is now running for the office of yelling. These names were added by petition, upon which 100 student names were signed.
