

ELKS' INAUGURAL BALL

American Legion Winema Post 142

Membership list of Winema American Legion (all women veterans) Post 142 was added to Wednesday night, April 9 and Olive Adamson, and Edith Pierce received membership cards from Post Commander LaVenne Roemer. Olive is Department Chaplain, DAV, State of Oregon, and is a member of Chapter 12, Klamath Falls. As guest speaker, she spoke in behalf of the disabled veterans lying in hospitals throughout the nation and asked that every effort be made to help cheer them along in their effort to rehabilitate themselves. She also stated she was proud to become a member of Winema Post and praised the way the Post is progressing in membership, usefulness and sincerity of purpose in serving "God and Country." After the short business meeting, a surprise shower, honoring Mrs. (Jeanie) Thomas took place.

Games, with prize awards were offered as entertainment, followed by refreshments served by LaVonne Roemer and Irene Young. Table decorations were in keeping with the Easter theme, and Chaplain Olive Adamson offered the blessing.

A special remembrance for each member, a souvenir from St. Louis Missouri brought back by Commander Roemer recently was in each little Easter basket at the plates.

At the refreshment table, Edward M. Adamson, husband of Olive, was introduced as the latest "Auxiliary member" to Winema Post, having received his lifetime membership card that evening.

FIFTH ANNUAL PARADE OF BARBER SHOP QUARTETS

"SPEBSQSA" is not a linotype error. It means: Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Singing in America. To this writer it means the promise of a full evening of varied musical entertainment.

Looking at the full house—a "sell out" days before the show, April 12, in the Pelican Theater — one realized a great contribution to "Building a Better Klamath Basin" is being made by this group of men who take time out of busy lives to assemble faithfully for long hours of practice and rehearsals to produce a superior show. They come from Merrill, Tulalake, Bly and other outlying districts.

Now in its fifth year, the non-profit organization has given over $2,000 to the Camp Fire Girls and Girl Scout Camps at Lake of the Woods, also to the Boy Scout Camp at Crescent Lake.

Each member pays his own traveling expenses. Tonight they are appearing in Tulalake. On the weekend of the 26th they are participating in a program in Roseburg. The Sunday of that weekend they entertain the veterans at Camp White, Medford.

It was requested at the April 12th program by Director John Houston, that no applause follow the final number to be sung by the combined Eugene and Klamath Falls choruses. Explanatorily he announced that, since the following day would be Easter Sunday, they would sing "The Lord's Prayer."

They sang it. No one applauded. The heretofore acclaiming crowd quietly left the theater — thinking.

Couple United In Susanville

WILLOW RANCH—The Methodist Church in Susanville, California was the scene of the wedding Easter Sunday of Barbara Mae Deaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Deaton to Melvin Borlotti of Sacramento.

Creed Gammell sang two solos, "Trust in Me" and "Because".

The bride, dressed in a ballerina length white lace gown with finger tip veil, carrying white orchids on a white Bible was given in marriage by her father. She was attended by her sister Mrs. Emil Pochop as atron of honor, who wore a green ballerina taffeta carrying a bouquet of carnations and rosebuds. Donna Potort in yellow and Betty McKinney in rose taffeta were bridesmaids.

Sharon Lee Vaa Cleave and Nancy Jo Clemens in blue ankle length taffeta wore flower girls. William F. Flint of Sacramento was best man. Ushers were Emil Pochop and Bill Portorf.

After the double ring candlelight ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Deaton.

Out of town guests were the brides two granddaughters Mrs. W. M. Deaton of Emmet, Idaho and Mrs. E. Frost of Meridian, Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor High of Klamath Falls and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Pochop. There were 61 guests at the reception.

After a short trip to Carmel, Calif. the young couple will make their home in Sacramento. The bride well known here, was a Bly High School graduate, and attended the University of Oregon.
