Beavers Skid To 5th Spot

By The Associated Press

San Diegos persistent Padres, clinging to a one-half game Pacific Coast League baseball lead, square away at Hollywood Tuesday with the now twinkling Stars in this week's top first division scrap.

The Stars, after a partial eclipse during the opening sets, increased their brilliancy with five straight wins over Sacramento to move from sixth to third place.

While San Diego and Hollywood meet head-on, the Los Angeles Angels, pressing from second place and back on the winning track again, hope to improve their position at the expense of the Portland Beavers in the Oregon City.

Seattle's Rainiers, the defending 1951 champions now residing in the PCL cellar, play host to Oakland while Sacramento is at San Francisco.

GAIN

Los Angeles gained a full game on San Diego Sunday as the Angels tripped Seattle 5-1 and 4-2 while the Padres dropped the opener to San Francisco's Seals 4-3 but came back for a 3-1 nightcap win.

Hollywood continued its superiority over the Solons of Sacramento by dumping them twice 7-5 and 6-0 while Oakland was putting the double whammy on Portland 5-2 and 4-2.

Los Angeles took advantage of good pitching by Bob Spicer and Bob Zick, the latter limiting the Rainiers to four hits in the finale. The Angels batted around at the expense of Art DelDuca to give Zick a three-run lead.

VICTIM

Charley Schanz was victimized by heavy Los Angeles hitting in the opener. During a fourth inning uprising, Bob Talbot and Andy Anderson singled while Gene Baker doubled, the hits accounting for two runs. Baker later added a homer.

Tight hurling by Bill Ayers in the opener and Lloyd Hittle and Al Gettle in the finale gave Oakland its victories. Jay Ragni homered in the winning runs in the afterpiece while Tookie Gilbert's two-run triple was decisive in the opener.

King Wins Pentathlon

Winning two of the five events, James King was the pentathlon winner on Bob Hendershott's Class B Pelican track team in an intra-squad feature on Modoc Field last week.

King raced to an 8.7 75-yard dash win and copped the high jump with a leap of 5 feet, 2 inches.

Elvis Mitchell tossed the shot 33 feet, 6 inches to win that event and place second in the competition.

Third-place winner was Lloyd Kooken, who tied with fourth-placer Charles Guptill in the broad jump at 16 feet, 1 inch. Guptill got another first-place tie, with John Gritman in the 80-yard low hurdles.

Pelicans 13th In Haywards

Medford's well-balanced track and field team is wearing the Class A Hayward Relays crown for the eighth time in the 15-year history of the event while last year's champions, Klamath Falls, tumbled to thirteenth place in the annual cinder classic Saturday on the University of Oregon field.

Medford finished with 63½ points, nosing out a strong Grant team of Portland. The Generals collected 59 points.

Third was the surprising Grants Pass team with 45 1-3. Then came Jefferson 24 1-3, Salem 24, Bend 16, Marshfield 15½, Lincoln 14½, Eugene 13, Springfield 11, Roosevelt 10½, Corvallis 10, Klamath Falls 8 1-3, Milwaukie 5 and Franklin 4.

Not a single meet record fell.

The Pelicans picked up their points in the discus, pole vault, broad jump relay and distance medley.

Greg Schultz picked up a fourth in the platter event. Jerry Johnson shared a three-way tie for fifth in the pole vault.

Jim Dougherty, Dean Gordy and Dick Abraham placed fourth in the broad jump relay.

Don Wells, Clinton Mills, Harold Simmers and Barry Pitts copped a fifth place in the distance medley.

Merrill will try tomorrow afternoon to do what two other Klamath County high school baseball clubs have failed to do — score against Malin's Wayne Rick.

The Huskies travel to Malin in one of the three league games.

In others, Bly visits Chiloquin and Bonanza invades Recreation Park against the Sacred Heart Trojans.

It's a big job that faces Merrill. Rick's right arm steered the Mustangs to the County diamond title last year and in two league outings this season, the Malin hurler has pitched 14 innings of shutout ball, beating Bly, 11-0 and Chiloquin 3-0.

He had a no-no game cooking through six frames against Chiloquin Friday but was touched with a scratch single in the seventh chapter.

Bly found Rick for three hits.

Merill Coach Ray Rader will probably send Bruce Sanders against Malin.

It will probably by Bly's Max Martin, one-hit 4-1 winner over Bonanza Friday, against either Jo Jo George or Champ Hatcher for Chiloquin.

Either Julian Hood or Irwin Crume will get the mound assignment for Bonanza against Sacred Heart's Bob Howard.

All games go at 3 p.m.

Harris Repeats Ping Pong Win

Roy Harris beat Dave Robb in a best three-of-five series to win the city table tennis title for the second year in a row in the tournament that ended last week.

Wayne Yancey won the consolation title with victories over Bob Logan and Bill Loomis.

Western International League Opens Tomorrow

By The Associated Press

The Western International League, a Class A circuit this year for the first time, embarks on its 1952 schedule Tuesday with appropriate ceremonies slated for the four opening day games.

Wil President Robert Abel will be on hand at Lewiston, the loop's newest member, to welcome the Broncs into the league. Lewiston replaces Tacoma which lost its franchise at the end of the 1951 season. The Broncs will be host to the Tri-City Braves.

The Spokane Indians, the defending champions, will open at home against the Salem Senators with Miss Spokane (Marcia Gusman) pitching the first ball.

At Wenatchee, Tuesday will be "Baseball Day," by proclamation of Mayor Arthur H. Pohlman who also is the club president. There will be a Fan's Club breakfast, and an afternoon parade in addition to pre - game ceremonies. Vancouver will be the Chiefs' opponent.

Yakima also opens at home as host to Victoria's Tyees. The Bears tuned up for the opener by sweeping a three-game exhibition series with Vancouver over the weekend. They won the regulation first game 8-5 Saturday and took two seven-inning games Sunday 5-3 and 3-0.

The remodeled league will have four new managers this year. Dario Lodigiani will be at the helm for Yakima. Dick Adams is new at Wenatchee, as is Charlie Gassaway at Tri - City and Cecil Garriott at Victoria. Bill Brenner, Yakima's manager last year, will pilot Lewiston, and Don Osborn will succeed Alan Strange at Spokane. Veterans Bill Schuster of Vancouver and Hugh Luby of Salem complete the roster of managers.

Klamath Wallops Lakeview

Freddie Friedel was hit-stingy Saturday behind the booming bats of his Pelican teammates as the Klamath Falls nine walloped Lakeview, 25-2, for its first victory of the season.

Friedel gave up just two hits, a single by Dodson and a triple by Pitcher Graves in the sixth inning, to give the Honkers their only two runs.

Meanwhile the Pels were jumping on Graves for 17 hits to score in every inning, ten runs pouring across in the big second frame.

Ron Owings led the attack with four singles in five trips. George Hanson hit three-for-four. Ing Montgomery smacked a home run in the second-inning rally.

Jay Korsen, Clayton Hannon and Les Fiocchini collected doubles. Friedel struck out 18 batters.

Tykeson In First Defeat

Chuck Tykeson, Sherwood, Ore., left-hander, lost his first game of the current season yesterday as the Hilt Jets, 1951 Northern California League champions, waxed the Oregon Tech baseballers 10-6 at Recreation Park.

Tykeson was pitching four-hit ball and the Owls were leading 3-2 going into the seventh inning.

Then Shortstop Chuck Jandreau's single tied the score and third-baseman Tony Marin followed with a two-run single to give Hilt a 5-3 edge.

In the eighth Tykeson was relieved by Don Keaton after Tom Hogan and Hy Hatfield accounted for three more runs on singles. The Jets had two more runs and a 10-3 lead before Keaton stopped the rally by whiffing Barney Riggs.

The Owls managed to close the count to 6-10 in the eighth on successive singles by Don Foreman, Keaton and Querino Lelli. But the rally was nipped when Al Foreman was caught going home on Floyd Miller's single.

The Owls jumped on Hilt starting pitcher Harvey Smith in the first inning when Len Genetin led off with a single and Don Foreman chased him across with a booming triple. Wayne Paulsen's 402-foot home run in the second-inning leadoff spot gave Oretech its second run.

Jandreau closed it to 2-3 in the fifth when he scored Loren Cummins, second Hilt pitcher, with a triple and scored from third on a balk called on Tykeson.

The loss dropped the Owls' season record to 5-5.

Oregon was the baseball kingpin of the Pacific Coast Conference's Northern Division Monday, thanks to a freshman player who didn't don a uniform until the 10th inning of a 13-inning thriller with Washington State.

Coach Don Kirsch called Jim Johnson, a freshman from Boise, out of the stands when he ran out of players in the 10th inning of Saturday's clash at Eugene. Johnson's squeeze bunt in the 13th scored Norv Ritchey and gave the Webfoots a 14-13 win over the Cougars and first place in division standings.

Idaho, meanwhile, evened a two-game series with Washington by downing the Huskies 9-5 at Seattle. Washington won the opening game Friday 14-8.

The Seattle series left Washington, Oregon State and Idaho tied for second place, with a win and a loss each.

Washington State, in the cellar with one win and three losses after Saturday's defeat, moves to Seattle Monday for a pair of games with the Huskies.

Cleveland Wins 7th Straight

By The Associated Press

Cleveland's rampaging Indians, baseball's only unbeaten team, are closing in on the Major League record for consecutive victories at the start of a season.

At the same time, Detroit's Tigers are on their way to a record in reverse — that of losing the most games from opening day.

Combining brilliant pitching with long-range hitting, Al Lopez' winhappy tribe Sunday swept a doubleheader from the toothless Tigers, 3-2 and 7-2, for their sixth and seventh triumphs in succession.

Cleveland needs two more wins to equal the record of nine that the 1944 St. Louis Browns, 1918 New York Giants and 1940 Brooklyn Dodgers reeled off right from the start.

The Dodgers had their unbeaten skein snapped at five when Sal (The Barber) Maglie pitched the New York Giants to a 6-0 victory. Maglie limited the hard-hitting Brooks to two singles as he became the first pitcher to shut out the Dodgers at Ebbets' Field since Johnny Schmitz, then with Chicago, did the trick Aug. 25, 1949. That was 176 games ago.

REDS CLIMB

Cincinnati advanced to within one game of the National League leading Dodgers, winning a pair in Pittsburgh, 8-6 and 12-2. Ted Kluszewski, slugging Cincinnati first baseman, had a field day at bat. He smashed a home run in each game and drove in nine runs.

Ned Garver hurled his second shutout in two starts for the St. Louis Browns, who split a twin bill with the Chicago White Sox. Garver held the Sox to two safeties as the Browns won the first game, 8-0. Chicago bats awoke in the second game to pound out a 10-2 win. Darkness halted this game at the end of seven innings.

Jim Rivera, the Coast League's "Rookie of the Year" while at Seattle last season, drove in four Brownie runs in the opener with three hits including an inside-the-park homer.

BOSOX WIN

A home run by pinch hitter Billy Goodman with two on in the seventh gave the Boston Red Sox a 6-3 victory over Washington.

Manager Casey Stengel shook up his lineup and the New York Yankees responded by beating the Philadelphia Athletics, 9-6, to halt a three-game losing streak and extend the Athletics' losing skein to four.

Steve Bilko hit a home run with Enos Slaughter on base in the fifth inning to give the St. Louis Cardinals a 2-1 victory over the Cubs in Chicago.

Boston's Braves took a 2-1 decision from Philadelphia after the Phillies had eked out a 4-3 victory in 10 innings of the opener.

IS DUSETTE NEXT?—Salt Lake City's Bill Melby is being carried to the dressing room last week after falling victim to Toi Yamato's sleeper hold. Georges Dusette, who refereed the bout, is shown at right helping Melby with the assistance of Second Bill Howard. Dusette faces the Jap Wednesday night in the feature match of a three-bout program.

Promoter Finishes Mat Card

Promoter Mack Lillard late Saturday completed Wednesday night's wrestling card. The feature is the long-anticipated meeting between Georges Dusette and Toi Yamato.

It's a double main event show with Buck Weaver, Pacific Coast light-heavy king, tangling with Danno McDonald in the other one-hour bout.

Bill Melby and Frenchy Roy open the show at 8:30 in a half-hour, one-fall squabble.

GOODNIGHT

Yamato has appeared here three times. Three times he has put his opponent on the shelf with the sleeper hold—Cowboy Carlson, McDonald and last week Bill Melby although he drew a disqualification from Referee Georges Dusette.

Dusette and Yamato mixed furiously after the bout to touch off a demand by fans to put the Jap against the French - Canadian Strongman.

It's Dusette's full nelson against Yamato's sleeper.

DEMAND

The Nip threw last week's mat show into confusion when he demanded main event billing. He was down for the 30-minute opener with Melby.

Lillard had to make the bout one hour, thus giving the fans a triple main event.

Fans are hoping for the end of Toi's slumberland tactics Wednesday night.
