COOPERATION BUILT THIS CHURCH

(Editor's Note: This is the second in a weekly church page series of articles concerning churches in the Klamath Basin.)

Last Sunday Klamath Lutheran Church held its 15th anniversary services.

Yesterday it started playing host to over 300 delegates to the Pacific District Luther League convention, scheduled to end this Sunday with mass worship services of delegates and church members at Klamath Armory.

REV. C. R. COLLIER—from Sacramento, will conduct two-weeks revival services at Stewart-Lenox Baptist Church starting this Sunday. Services will be held each night starting at 7 p.m.

History of this church is one of early growth and rugged perserverance.

First services of the church were held at the Winema Hotel and later in the assement of the church building. Dedication services of the edifice at Cross and Crescent Sts. were held in 1942.

Construction of the church was started in 1939 with members and friends donating labor except for plastering and brick work.

Rev. Irwin Tweet, present amiable and likeable pastor of the church came here in May of 1948. Its predecessors were Rev. L. K. Johnson (first pastor) and Rev. S. J. Topness.

Still comparatively a youngster in local church circles, Klamath Lutheran has quite a few charter members still living in Klamath Falls.

They are Mrs. Christ Stuland and Ronald, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Hoff, Eileen Hoff, Arthur Solie and son, Arthur Jr., Mrs. Frank Sobczak and Frank Jr., Hialmer Johnson, Mrs. Astrid Johnson, Ruth Johnson Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Solie and Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. Henry O. Solie and Arnold Johnson, leased reported fist-fighting and

First officers and members of the church council were Henry O. Solie, president; T. G. Hoff, vice-president; Mrs. Chris Sterland, secretary; Mrs. T. G. Hoff, treasurer, and Arthur Solie, Mrs. Astrid Johnson, Elmer Solie, L. J. Orres, Mrs. Frank Sobczak and Mrs. Henry I. Solie.

The first women's organization was headed by Mrs. Henry O. Solie as president with Mrs. Chris Sterland, vice-president; Mrs. Frank Sobczak, secretary and Mrs. L. J. Orres, treasurer.

Officers of the first Sunday school were Rev. and Mrs. L. K. Johnson, superintendent and assistant superintendent, and T. G. Hoff as secretary-treasurer.

Cooperation is the essence of any growing organization and when the going got rough and money was needed, the ladies served dinner and banquets and held bazaars to raise money for church furnishings and the building.

Growth of organizations in the church has been steady. The Sunday school started out with seven members and now has 200. Other organizations formed include the Luther League for young people, young married couples' club, Boy Scout troop, men's brotherhood, Ladies' Aid and six circles.

Expansion is in the wind for Klamath Lutheran when finances permit. Needed are a parish worker and more Sunday school rooms.

In announcing the fifteenth anniversary celebration last week, Rev. Tweet indicated the church building itself will be further beautified with addition of eight stained glass windows, depicting the life of Christ.

Film To Depict Good Samaritan

Puppets acting out the parable of the Good Samaritan will be shown in a film at the Sunday evening worship service at Congregational Church. The film, "The Good Samaritan," was produced recently by the Protestant Film Commission. It will start at 7:30 p.m.

During the evening an old film taken during the early days of the Congregational church will be shown. There will also be a display of photographs showing the church, its activities and the surrounding city of Klamath Falls in 1930.

Refreshments will be served after the program.
