CHIPPER CHICAGO SURPRISE OF NL

By The Associated Press
Everybody is cheering for the giddy St. Louis Cardinals. How about three runs and a tiger for the chipper Chicago Cubs?

Take a look at the National League standings. That club in second place isn't the "rocket horse" Philles. It isn't the "rocket rocket" of the Boston Braves. It isn't even the defending champion New York Giants. CHICAGO is the word.

A year ago the windy town ran a fever over its White Sox. The go-go Sox were the rage. Paul Richards was the reigning genius. Now the Sox are struggling along in sixth place. Wrigley Field interest is perking up.

RIDICULE
Most of the National League owners ridiculed the Cubs all winter for not making deals.

"What can they do with that club?" they asked. "How can they afford to stand pat?" Eddie Miksis is the only pro on the roster.

Sure the Cubs won the Grapefruit League title. But they did that last year. It didn't mean a thing. Or did it?

The Cubs have carried their fine pre-season play into the regular season. With a 6-2 record they're within clutching distance of the lead, trailing Brooklyn by only one game.

SENSATION
Frankie Baumholtz has been a spring sensation. In Friday's 7-3 victory over Cincinnati, he rapped a triple and two singles to boost his average to .455. He has hit safely in all eight Cub games.

Frank Baumholtz's home run and two runs batted in boosted him into a second place tie in both departments with three homers and 12 RBIs. Bob Ramoazzotti, hitless Friday, had been so hot at bat that he chased Miksis over to shortstop when he returned to the lineup.

The Oregon State Beavers knocked the Washington Huskies out of the top spot in the Northern Division baseball standings Friday by downing the visitors at Corvallis 7-1.

Oregon, idle this weekend, was pushed up into the No. 1 slot on the ladder.

Oregon State and Washington were to meet again Saturday.

Pitcher Joe Nuyhall of the Cincinnati Reds holds the distinction of being the youngest player ever to perform in the majors. He played with the Reds in 1944 when he was only 15 years old.

Bob Kelly silenced the Reds with five hits.

The St. Louis Cardinals' Gerry Staley needed help from reliever Al Brazle and solid hitting by Westlake Stan Musial and Steve Bilko to whip Pittsburgh, 6-4.

The 28-year-old curvier had a shutout until the seventh. When the Pirates jumped him for two more in the eighth, Brazle came in Westlake and Musial smashed three singles to account for half the Cards' 12 hits.

Local Retrievers Place in Trials

Duchess, Nero Get Fourths

Local dogs edged into fourth place in two events yesterday as the Shasta-Cascade Retriever Club opened its three-day meet at the Klamath Falls Municipal Airport.

Duchess of El Dorado, female Golden, owned and handled by Gingers Konechuck, placed fourth in the Derby Stakes in a field of puppies. Judge Jim Stibell and a flut rotoek called the "best in the history of dog trials here."

It took a sixth series to finally pick the winner. Jack-Pot Pepper, male Labrador owned by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cherry, Altadena, Calif., and handled by Cherry.

Fourth in the Amateur All-Age Stakes went to Champion Nero of Menzantia, male Lab owned and handled by Dr. George Mason.

Winning handler in the Amateur was well-known CHH Brignall of Anaheim, Calif., owner of Inter-Grand and Na-Nel Chum in Gringo, now retired.

Brignall, steering by Nick to first place in the event.

The first series in the Quail-Hike Stakes was run late yesterday afternoon and is expected to finish this morning.

Then comes the feature of the trials, the Open All-Age Stake.

Other places in Derby went to Attention Drake Quest, male Chesapeake, owned by Sam Romas, Boise, Idaho, handled by Dr. John Lundy, second; Marian's Timothy, male Labrador, owned and handled by Marian McPhail, Tacoma, Wash. third; Thundercloud of Amador, male Labrador, owned and handled by Ursula B. Patton, Chico, Calif., reserve certificate of merit; and Tintinor Duke, male yellow Labrador, owned by Ted Timmer, Kelchum, Idaho, handled by Cliff Brignall.

Brignall's California, male Labrador, owned and handled by Brignall, first; First male Labrador, owned by Hugh Adams, Bakersfield, Calif., handled by Brignall; Biminy Licorice Kid, male Labrador, owned by Mrs. John Deuel, San Marino, Calif., handled by Hugh Adams; and Bear Creek's Java, owned and handled by David H. Holmes, Medford.

Other places in the Amateur went to:

Jupiter of Avandale, male Labrador, owned and handled by F. R. Bacon, Jr., Canby, Calif., second; Black Joe, male Labrador, owned and handled by Maurice C. Tilden, Vancouver, Wash., third; Ebony Duchess of Madras, female Labrador, owned and handled by M. D. Samuelson, Santa Rosa, Calif.

Robinson Goat In Bevo Loss

By The Associated Press
Lewistown White Sox, tabbed one of the Pacific Coast League's hottest pitching prospects until he developed five - innings, was to get another starting chance Saturday night.

And as the 21-year-old Mexican went to the league leading San Diego Padres, as they tried to square their series with Hollywood Stars and stay ahead of the pressing Los Angeles Angels, just one game behind.

Friday night the Padres and Hollywood Stars ran a tight race, with Lewistown's Tim Lincecum, a half-game on the leaders with a 6-0 win over Portland in 10 innings. It was the first of several victories for the Sox as the Angels took the Angels by the same score in 15 games Thursday.

FROM BEHIND
San Francisco overcame a two-run deficit with three in the ninth to beat Sacramento while Seattle not a right relief pitching from Vern Knapf to gain a 4-1 win over Oakland.

Afternoon games are scheduled with San Diego at Hollywood and Sacramento at San Francisco while Oakland and Seattle in a pair under the lights.

Jack Hollis was the big man for Los Angeles Friday night as he led the count in the ninth with a homer. Then he and Ed Lavigne singled in the 10th. The hits combined with a sacrifice, an error and a long fly to tally two.

PLUNKS
Portland scored one in its half of the extra frame and had the bases filled but Aaron Robinson—a hero in the early innings—became the goat by hitting into a double play. Robinson had a two-out, one-batter danger in the second. McLish pitched the victory.

At Seattle, Kindorf relieved starter Charlie Schanz in the ninth after one run had scored, the bases were loaded and none were out. He forced the first batter facing him to fly out and then fanned the next two. It should also have been Wilson night. Shortstop Artie Wilson whacked three singles and Catcher Bob Wilson smacked a pair of doubles. Each scored a run and Artie knocked in another.

Owls Go To Hilt Sunday

Don Keaton gets the mound assignment tomorrow at Hilt when the Oregon Tech Owls face the Northern California league champions in a return game.

The Jets beat Oretch here last Sunday, 10-6.

The loss was Pitcher Chuck Tykeson's first against four wins. Keaton, a big right-hander, pitched last year for Yreka in the NC loop.

But Coach Art Kirkland will take advantage of Tykeson's hitting talent tomorrow, working him in the outfield with Wayne Paulsen and Floyd Miller.

Larry Jeter will be Keaton's battery mate, while Jack Brown gets the nod over Dan Barnes at first base with a better batting percentage.

Don Foreman at third base, Al Foreman at second and Quirino Lelli at shortstop completes the infield.

The Owls leave tomorrow, 8 a.m., for the 2 p.m. tilt.
