REST CURE
SAN GABRIEL, Calif. (AP)—Doctors told Lloyd (Swede) Larson, 54, to take life easy about three years ago, but he's not sure they would appreciate the way he's doing it. Swede and Hugh Hutchins, 59, are leaving on a motorcycle tour of the untraversed country between Guatemala, Mex., and Panama.

ELECTION BOARD at the KUHS student body elections completed Monday at the high school is set up on lines similar to municipal polling methods. Board members are Sophomores Paula Horne, Richard Lorcama and Sylvia Gerber.

Death Claims Congressman

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Reid F. Murray (R-Wis.), died Tuesday in Bethesda Naval Hospital. He was 64. He was serving his seventh term in the House as a representative of Wisconsin's Seventh District. The cause of death was nephritis, the hospital said. Murray had suffered for sometime with a kidney condition.

PRIVACY of the voting booth was invaded by the flashlight camera momentarily during the KUHS student body elections, and caught Sophomore Carl Stewart in the act of marking his ballot. The voting system was set up with the help of the Klamath County Clerk's office.

Terry Denies Hot Sweater Girl Battle with Marilyn

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Gays and Dolls: Skip those reports of a popping-hot feud between two of Hollywood's foremost sweater girls—Terry Moore and Marilyn Monroe. At least there's no hostility on Terry's side. Shapely Terry says the rumors of all-out war started when she snagged the role of a busting-with-health sweater girl away from Marilyn in "Come Back, Little Sheba," and explains: "My own agent was trying to sell Marilyn for the part. I didn't like it one bit and I knew I was absolutely right for the role. So I marched right down to Paramount's casting office myself, without my agent, and convinced them I was the actress to play the part." Terry on her torrid love scenes with Richard Jaeckel in the picture: "Very exciting, but innocent as two puppy dogs. One cutter saw the scenes and said that he couldn't sleep all night."

The movie-stars-are-not-a-people-bunk Hollywood is trying to sell as part of its dignity campaign has veteran Director William Wellman wincing. A director since 1920, he's yelling: "Hollywood is stifling temperament—and it's the worst mistake the studios ever made. Temperament makes a personality. I once directed Clara Bow. She was mad and crazy but what a personality! Show me a temperamental star and I'll show you a great personality—and great boxoffice. Movie stardom isn't acting ability—it's personality and temperament."

Meat a doll with no kicks—perky Doris Day. Leaping from a straight dramatic role like Mrs. Grover Cleveland Alexander in "The Winning Team" to the singing, dancing star of the new Warner tune film "April in Paris" is the kind of a career leap Doris likes. "A complete change is wonderful for me," she confided. "I love it. That's why I'm getting such a kick out of my new radio show, too. It's something I haven't done since I was with Bob Hope. People give me the lifted eyebrow routine when I tell them I've been at War-

Northwest Plans For Floods

SALEM (AP)—Civilian defense officials of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana are making plans to deal with possible floods. Jack A. Hayes, Oregon civilian defense director, said Monday. Hayes said Oregon and Washington defense officials already had conferred with Army Engineers, Federal Civil Defense officials, and the Federal Housing Administration. Civilian defense officials of the four states will meet Thursday with Army Engineers at Walla Walla. Hayes said he doesn't expect serious floods this spring, but there is a possibility.

APPLE FOR TEACHER OK'D Moline, Ill. (AP)—Is it all right to give the teacher an apple? The Moline Board of Education says it is, providing the teacher has no hard collecting money, to pay for it. That's the gist of a new rule being written into the redrafted rules and regulations of the board.

Grocer Peeved Embezzlement For Woman? Geo. N. Taylor. "The fellow had a family and at length I let him run a charge account. Then one night he moved out, not paying me one cent and I have been holding the bag ever since." Yes, Mr. Grocer, and just like that we have all been tempted to run away from our just debts and so was Christ. Yes, Christ was tempted at all points like we. Yet He sinned not. At the end and sinless Himself, He took every sin and died for you. ONE—Believe in Him as bearing your sins and God gives you eternal life. TWO—God also names you Justified, i.e., God puts all his own righteousness over you. He sees you so clothed, when you have Christ as Savior. Therefore being Justified by Faith—Romans 5:1. Sum it up—not that we loved God but that he loved us and gave his Son to die for us. An Oregon family sponsors this space to tell you again the outreach of God's love.

boys are chasing me. It's wonderful. Now it's the French version of Claude Dauphin... bringing more mature sex appeal to the screen... whether Italian movie dolls like it or not. Dauphin, French movie stage star who clocked on Broadway in "The Happy Time" is adjusting out with the Maurice Chevalier-type songs and the French charm of Warner Bros. and confiding: "The studio wanted me to give my gray hair, I said, 'What about Pinza?' The studio thought it over and said: 'Claude, you are right. You will be the French Pinza.' It's Dauphin's singing debut, he confesses, but says: "I'm not really a singer, but I always say 'Yes' when they ask me to do something in a picture." In his film debut in "Deported," he plays an Italian detective speaking English with a French accent. "If I can do that," he said, "I can sing."
