

GUARDIAN OF THIRD BASE is bat-handy Don Foreman who currently leads the Oregon Tech Owls with a .550 mark. Foreman will hold down the hot corner when the Owls face Shasta JC at Recreation Park, 2 p.m. Thursday.

Oretch, Shasta Mix Here

Southpaw Chuck Tykeson seeks his fifth pitching win in six starts when Oregon Tech faces Shasta Junior College of Redding tomorrow, 2 p.m., at Recreation Park.

Oretch Coach Art Kirkland has made few changes in line-up as the Owls attempt to even their season's record to 6-6.

Len Genetin has dropped out of school until the fall term and his left field position will be filled by Letterman Jim McIntosh.

Jack Brown will catch with Dan Barnes going to first base.

The rest of the infield remains the same with Don Foreman and Querino Lelli, one-two punch of the club, at third base and shortstop and Al Foreman on second base.

Foreman is currently hitting .550, Lelli .439.

Paulsen leads in home runs with 4.

Pitching — Sal Maglie, New York Giants, limited Cincinnati Reds to three hits in 2-1 victory.

Batting — Al Rosen and Jim Fridley, Cleveland—Rosen hit three home runs and had seven RBI's while Fridley got six hits in six appearances in 21-9 win over Philadelphia Athletics.

Simmons Still Has It

Southpaw Shackles Chicago

By The Associated Press
Cold and rain continued to paralyze baseball in the east and a strike threatened to black out a park in the West but followers of the Philadelphia Phillies could find no gloom anywhere Wednesday — Curt Simmons is back and he's in the groove.

The hard-throwing, 22-year-old lefthander, three weeks out of the Army, made his first Major League start in 19 months Tuesday and proceeded to tame the Chicago Cubs with a smooth seven-hit performance, 8-2.

NO CHANGE
He didn't look any different from the trim, young southpaw whose blazing fast ball won 17 games for the Phillies and helped lead them to the National League pennant before Uncle Sam snatched him up in September, 1950.

In the season's first head-on collision of East and West, the favored Brooklyn Dodgers strengthened their grip on the National League lead by turning back the St. Louis Cardinals on the masterful clutch pitching of Preacher Roe, 4-1.

The game was delayed 65 minutes by a strike of AFL bartenders who threw a picket line around St. Louis' Sportsman's park.

The Dodgers thus increased their lead to a game and a half over both Chicago and Cincinnati Reds, who fell victim to the New York Giants at Cincinnati, 2-1.

SPAHN WINS
In the other National League game Warren Spahn, the Boston Braves' crack lefty, nailed Pittsburgh tighter to the cellar by humbling the Pirates, 5-1, on five hits.

Only one game was played in the American League as unseasonable cold and wet grounds, which already have cost Eastern clubs more than a quarter of a million dollars, forced three more postponements.

The single American League conflict was at Philadelphia.

The Cleveland Indians won, 21-9, in a wild slugfest that saw the two teams pound out a total of 43 hits, 25 of them by the Indians.

The veteran Bob Feller, who lost a double one-hitter on his last outing to St. Louis' Bob Cain, won this one although he gave up 18 safeties and went all the way. Alex Kellner was the loser.

Newark, N. J. — Joey Lupo, 147 Lodi, N. J. outpointed Joey Carkido 145 Youngstown 8.
Milwaukee — Dan Bucceroni 178 1/2 Philadelphia stopped Aaron Wilson 194 1/2 New York 8.
Portland, Me. — Bob Stecher, 166 1/2 Portland Me. outpointed Enrico Dominguez 164 New York 10.

SLEEP PRODUCING Toi Yamato put Georges Dusette asleep just 30 seconds after the opening bell last week at the Armory and the Herald and News photographer caught him in the act. The Japanese Sandman tries the gimmick against Frankie Stojack, Pacific Coast junior heavyweight champion tonight.

Yamato-Stojack Tiff Mat Feature Tonight

It's been many months since wrestling fans have seen Frankie Stojack in action here — and they may not see him very long tonight if Toi Yamato has his sleeper in working order.

The unpopular Jap will be seeking his fifth straight win here. Last week Georges Dusette became victim Number 4 in just 30 seconds. Scoring with his rockabye hold on the Pacific Coast junior heavyweight champion is a chore Yamato may not be able to cut.

The ex-Washington State College football star is tough—and he uses the airplane spin with dispatch. This is just one of three main events on the star-studded card.

In another Dusette matches his full nelson against Bill Melby's grapevine hold.

Buck Weaver, Pacific Coast lightweight champion, also working on a win streak, may get his come-uppance tonight when he clashes with Kurt Von Poppenheim.

The Armory ticket office opens 7:30, one hour before the opener.

Huskies Slap Oregon Into Knot With OSC

By The Associated Press
The Northern Division baseball scramble was tied at both ends Wednesday with Washington in the middle holding an even split.

The Huskies edged Oregon 6-5 in 10 innings Tuesday for their first win in four starts in the Willamette Valley. At the same time, Washington State clipped Idaho 7-2.

Washington's victory at Eugene was the fourth of the season for the Huskies against four losses. It left Oregon, formerly alone in first place, tied with Oregon State, each with four wins and two losses.

DERBY WINNERS

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—In the last 22 years the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs has been won thirteen times by horses sired by sons or grandsons of two stallions —Smyrnoff and Teddy. Both were bred and raced in England but Teddy was imported to this country after his son, Sir Gallahad III, was so successful as a sire here.

Joe Rosamondo, assistant baseball coach at Yale, is a graduate of St. Viator's in Bourbonnais, Ill.
