This and That About Women

Edited by Ruth King

"It's A Woman's World"

OES District Meeting

Alice Robinson, Independence, Worthy Grand Matron of the Eastern Star of Oregon was welcomed by four OES chapters of Klamath county on her official visit, Saturday evening, April 19, at the Masonic Temple.

Manzanita 172 was the hostess chapter and conducted the opening and closing ceremonies in the chapter room beautifully decorated with forsythia, manzanita and daffodils. Kathleen Ward and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown greeted guests as they arrived.

Cascade Crest 159 was in charge of escort duty. Grand honors were extended to Mrs. Robinson, Worthy Grand Matron, as she was introduced and escorted to the east and presented with a beautiful orchid corsage by Eva Cook, Worthy Matron of Cascade Crest, as a gift from all four chapters.

Other worthy matrons and patrons sitting in the east were: Vera Fritsch, W.M. and John Larson, W.P. of Manzanita chapter, Hazel Bowman, W.M. and Eugene Beasley, W.P. of Prosperity chapter, Eva Cook, W.M. and Harold Wing, W.P. of Cascade Crest, and Letha Murphy, W.M. and Elmer Bramlett, W.P. of Aloha chapter.

Prosperity 160 gave an exemplification of the ballot as its work. The Worthy Grand Matron presented each worthy matron with a golden key for opening the meeting promptly each time. She gave a very impressive talk on the significance of the star work and the history of Robert Morris, founder of the order. All chapters were complimented on their efficiency and special commendation was given to Manzanita chapter on its opening ceremony. Ritualistic work of all was corrected and instruction given.

Speeches were also given by all other distinguished guests. All chapters presented gifts to the honored guest with special addresses. Manzanita chapter gave an impressive address with each officer questioned as to the proper gift, then the Worthy Grand Matron was escorted by Vera Fritsch, W.M. and framed in a five pointed star formed with colored points held by Martha Walker, Ellen Betsch, Kathleen Ward, Iona May Wells, and Thelma Creswell.

Prosperity chapter presented their gift with lovely flowers representing the color of each star point. Cascade Crest chapter had five members attired in colorful caps and capes of star colors, carrying baskets and sowing seeds and flowers. Aloha with their courtesy girls formed a jet of flowers and sang to Mrs. Robinson, Margaret Sheridan, accompanied by Ruth Renie at the piano complimented the Worthy Grand Matron with a lovely solo.

After the meeting guests retired

Complete Your Fashion Picture With Right Scent

Whatever your mood, whatever the occasion, there is a fashion look for you this Spring of 1952. And for each, there is a perfume to complete the picture. Dame Fashion of 1952 has given us wide variety in the clothes for Spring, with one important point always present—femininity. No unnecessary frills or ruffles or ripples are seen, but whether you prefer the full skirt silhouette, or the slim skirt one, every costume you wear will be simple and ladylike in its appeal.

Fashion designers have made it possible for you to look feminine in every type of costume, so you will want to feel feminine, too. And what can better emphasize your own sense of womanly loveliness than that so personal accessory, perfume. When you surround yourself in an aura of fragrance, you feel charming though there is no mirror at hand.

If your Spring costume has the cool look, you are probably wearing white accents with your crisp, cool colors. With this type of costume wear a perfume which is light, airy and fresh, to act as an accent. A ferny scent will have the same refreshing affect on you and those you meet as the crisp pine green or the frosty blue of your fashion ensemble. Or you may prefer the spring-like note of a floral bouquet or a single flower fragrance.

For the young book with its separates, cummerbund, pleated skirts, dashing line, you'll probably enjoy a dashing, saucy scent which is young in spirit. Why not try to the dining room where all four chapters joined in serving refreshments buffet style. Tables were arranged in the shape of a five pointed star and impressively centered with a lacy umbrella sprinkling showers on beautiful rosebuds, lilies-of-the-valley and iris in a crystal bowl. Streamers of colored lace tied each table to its own centerpiece of lighted taper and flowers in the appropriate starpoint color.

Pouring at the various tables were: Thelma Creswell, Virginia Brown for Manzanita chapter, Nell Retherath for Prosperity chapter, Mrs. Walter Zimmerman for Cascade Crest chapter, and Sallie Woods for Aloha chapter.

There are many occasions on which you probably want to portray the classic look. Crepes, twills and the new-old alpaca (this year so very smart) appear in wonderfully subtle neutral colors of least, smoke tones, beige as well as the standard navy and black. Polka dot accessories bring a new excitement to this Spring's classic clothes. Your perfume can bring a new sense of charm—security. Do accent your own personality with a scent as chic and subtle as your new spring costume. Complete your picture to the world your daily audience — those you meet as you go through your day—that you are a woman of good taste. Select a sophisticated worldly perfume, one which is dry like dry wine yet has an overtone of softly feminine flowers. Perhaps you would prefer the smart accent of a scintillating, insistent fragrance which unobtrusively tells people that your personality cannot be ignored.
