Swiss Women to Decide On Future of Suffrage

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH AP Newsfeatures
GENEVA—Swiss women will go to the polls for the first time in history here this year in a referendum to help decide whether they want to vote in the future.
The referendum will be confined to the canton of Geneva and will have only a "consultative" character. Whatever the women want, the last word will remain with the men.
Switzerland is among the last countries in Europe where women are still denied the vote. All national, cantonal and local elections are confined to men and only men can become members of the national and cantonal parliaments and the local councils. A large body of public opinion is in favor of extending the right to vote to women, but under the constitution such an innovation must be approved by referendum.
Many Swiss cantons have held a referendum on this issue in recent years, but women's suffrage has invariably been rejected. Only the canton of Vaud, which contains Lausanne, produced a 60 per cent majority against a law permitting local district to grant women the vote on purely local issues.
One of the major props of the anti-feminist platform in all these campaigns has been the slogan, "Women don't want to vote." Since Women have never voted in Switzerland, no one was able to prove or disprove this statement. Mainly in the hope of disproving it, the pro-feminists, members of the cantonal parliament of Geneva carried by 51 votes to 36 recently a proposal to hold a "consultative" referendum among the women of Geneva.

Manzanita Chapter OES

Manzanita Chapter, Klamath Falls, was host to Cascade Crest, Chiloquin, Prosperity, Malin; and Aloha, Klamath Falls, at a recent district meeting.

The annual official visit of the Worthy Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, Alice Robinson, Independence, Oregon, was made April 19, to the Order of Eastern Star chapters.

Each chapter exemplified a portion of the ritual: Manzanita 172, "Opening, Business and Closing," Cascade Crest, Escort and Introductions; Prosperity, Balloting; and Aloha Chapter conferred the initiation on a class of three candidates.

More than three hundred members from Klamath Falls, surrounding Southern Oregon and Northern California were in attendance.

The lower banquet hall of the Masonic Temple was the setting for the reception. Members of each chapter presided over tables appropriately decorated and named for their chapter. A large committee was busy serving all who represented the four Eastern Star Chapters.

Visiting Grand Officer, Alice Robinson, was presented with handsome gifts from each chapter by officers with floral addendas.

Assisted by a capable committee each chapter, was well represented by: Vera Fritsch, Manzanita; Letha Murphy, Aloha; Eva Cook, Cascade Crest; and Hazel Bowman, Malin.

Cooked and drained egg noodles, tossed with melted butter and poppy seeds, make a delicious accompaniment to chicken.
