CARMEL FINNIGAN — to Eugene last weekend—object—Sigma Chi "Ski-Road" house dance.

WEEKEND GUESTS — at the Wilbur A. Jones home were Carl Newbury—Walnut Creek—and Wilbur W. Jones—Pittsburg— both sons in the golden state—and both sons of the Jones—and this is the first time they've visited here together sans wives — went home via Medford to see friends and relatives.

ROD LIVESLEY'S WIFE—Faye —my (unpaid) Salem reporter devoted a major part of an 1-4 phone call the other night telling me of a tea she had attended in Portland—"Non-tea-gor" that she is —her enthusiasm for the one given for bride-elect Caryl Dezell —was immediately credible to me —because Caryl is the dir of Tom and Sally D—well remembered KF residents—who lived here when Faye did—Mrs. Frank Bosch and Mrs. John J. Elliott entertained for about 150 guests at the Bosch home—on Canterbury Lane—revealing the forthcoming marriage of Caryl to Harry Mangan, new Portland— from Minneapolis — Happily renewing old friendships with Clara DeVal (Mrs. Berkeley) — Letty Harding — Irma McCulloch (Mrs. Claude) — Peg Holmes (Mrs. Frank "Ducky") — Betty Glover—Mrs. W. A. Dezell (Tom's mother)—Mrs. Roland Geary and Mrs. Everett Geary—all ex-Klamathites or well known visitors here—the latter two are sisters-in-law of Ed Geary—

IT WOULDN'T HAVE BEEN COMPLETE without Irma McCulloch—so she was contacted in Arizona where she has been with husband—Federal Judge Claude McCulloch (on assignment in Tucson)—asked to pour on May 3rd—scheduled date of tea—she accepted and made plans for that date—conflicting guest lists with another previously arranged event on the Portland social calendar necessitated moving the tea date back to April 26th — frantic phone calls — hastily changed plans — and TWO hours before Mrs. Mc was to grace the tea table — she arrived in town—but she made it!

INCIDENTALLY—Tom appeared on the scene for the sole purpose of taking a few pre-tea pix of Caryl—got there late—some guests had arrived so—he chit-chatted a good half-hour — then graciously said "goodby"—MUCH later Sally was told—"your husband is out in front—stealing the show!—it seems Tom had his own receiving line

MR. AND MRS. ANDREW ANDERSON, 2338 Eberlein Avenue, are proud parents of Andrew George Anderson, 3 1/2, and younger brother, Keith Alan, six months. Grandmother, Mrs. Christine Harman, lives in Centerville, Calif. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson, Arlington, N.J. —Photos by Gueridan

Stevie Stiles 9th Birthday
Nine years old, May 1, Stevie Stiles celebrated his birthday April 26, when he invited 30 young guests to go on a hike and Weiner roast. After the long hike, with Stevie's father, Elbert Stiles and Lee Stouder riding herd, they returned to the Stiles residence, 525 Mesa for birthday cake and ice cream, served by Mrs. Stiles.

Malin Garden Club Meets

MALIN—At a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Jerry Rajnus Wednesday afternoon, April 23, the desire of many ladies of the Malin Community was fulfilled, with the organizing of the Malin Garden Club.

Coming from Klamath Falls to organize the new club was Sub-District Deputy of the Oregon Federated Garden Clubs, Mrs. Will Wood.

With the help of Mrs. Wood, officers to serve the club were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Jerry Rajnus, vice president, Mrs. Phil Blohm, and Treasurer, Mrs. Merle Loosley.

New officers will form a planning committee who will meet before the next meeting to draw up the summer's program. Tentative plans now include the engaging of guest speakers and instructors for some of the meetings.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Loyal Lovens, May 28, at which time it is hoped that all ladies interested in joining the club will attend.
