By ROBERTA McGEE

On Monday afternoon, April 21, the Fort Rock 4-H Club was organized with the helping hand of Lee Hansen, Mrs. Arthur (Margaret) Kaley was appointed the leader of the club. Mrs. Kaley led a 4-H group in the month of three children, Fred attends Paisley high school and Jean and Joe attend the Fort Rock grade school.

Mrs. Maurice Ward, Mrs. Floyd Branch and Mrs. A. Kaley were the mothers present when the club was organized.

The project for the boys is Bachelor Sewing and Camp Cookery, and the girls will learn sewing and cooking in the Home Management and Canning.

Elected officers are: Teresa Ward, president, Max Smith, vice-president, Jean Kaley, secretary, Clinton Perry, reporter, Bobby Blander and Dwight Rutherford, song leaders, and Jerry Picher, yell leader.

Their first meeting was held Thursday afternoon, April 24, and will be held every Thursday afternoon after school is out.

Wednesday afternoon, April 23, a nine-foot Warren Deep Freezer was delivered to the Fort Rock Store, thereby making history as to being the first deep freezer in Fort Rock. Delbert Rutherford is keeping it stocked with a variety of ice cream bars and larger packages. He also plans on stocking it with frozen meat and vegetables in the very near future.

Thursday afternoon, April 24, part of the Electricity Committee met at the Fort Rock Grange hall to discuss plans for a public meeting to be held in about a month. The meeting will be for the purpose of signing up those who wish to see power in this section. There will be movies, talks from engineers, etc. pertaining to bringing power to this section of the county. The committees are working overtime trying to get the necessary data prepared, so that a definite date can be set for the meeting.

Saturday afternoon, April 26, Mrs. and Mrs. Robert McGee, Mary, the twins Pat and Mike and Jim McGee arrived from Camp Stoneman, Calif., to visit the McGee families for a few days. Robert will leave for Camp Kilmore, N. J., about May 10, where he will await orders to be shipped overseas, probably to Germany June and the children will live in Klamath Falls until other plans are made.

On Sunday afternoon Howard and Robert McGee were caught opening fishing season a little early by State Patrolman Kaye Hollie. They were to make a trip Monday night to see Austin Deboy the local Justice of the Peace at Summer Lake, P. S. They didn't have any fish for supper.

The farmers here appreciated the rain we had Thursday evening and most of the day Friday. It gave the freshly planted crops a good head start.

Friday afternoon, April 25, David McGee was honored with a birthday party. He is now four years old. The party was held at the schoolhouse after school. Mrs. Jack Kellum played the Happy Birthday tune while the children sang and David blew out the candles on the birthday cake. Mrs. Howard Mc-

Malin

By MRS. JOE HALOUSEK

Folk from Malin who attended the Red Bluff Rodeo last weekend were happy to return home with the report that many prizes were taken by Malinites in the various events.

Theresa Jones' horse, Vanilla, set a record for the quarter-mile race event by covering the distance in 22.4 seconds.

Lightning Streak, the horse owned by Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Smith, took first in the Glass H Quarter mile race and Loyd Saunders' horse, Beauty Quarter, took first in the 330 yard Quarter Horse race.

Attending the Confraternity of the Christian Doctrine held at Hedmond, last week were: Mrs. Hedmond, Mrs. Bob Johnson, Pat Bum Scott, Mrs. Edna Johnson, Mrs. Meddica, Mrs. Martha McAllister, Mrs. and Mrs. A. Kaley.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Price and family were in Malin over the weekend, from Raymond's Camp, where they now reside.

Mrs. O. C. Shonk returned to her home in Portland Sunday, after spending ten days with the Byron Johnsons.

Gene helped the hostess, Mrs. Donald McGee, serve the refreshments, cake, ice cream and coffee to the children. Cheryl Kellum and David McGee, recited. There were 18 children at the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kellum and Mrs. Cheryl Kellum visited the McGee families Friday, April 25. They returned home the same day.

Hope you folks that are Grange members are making plans to be present May 10. Mrs. A. Kaley will present a little number entitled, "Her First Vote," and I am sure we all will enjoy it. We would like to contribute to this program please contact her.

Sandy Panner from Bend spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Parks and children. Sandy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Panner, called for him Sunday evening. The Panner's and Mr. and Mrs. Darl Hunt enjoyed a weiner roast Sunday Evening with Mr. and Mrs. Parks.

Bud and Helen Parks are now driving a new 1952 half-ton Ford pickup. They purchased it in Bend, Friday. It had been on order for some time.

Alice Miles was 76 years young on April 21, but due to illness of the grandchildren her birthday wasn't celebrated until Saturday, April 26, with a small dinner party held at her home. Mr. and Mrs. Bud Parks, Bill and Alan and Charley were present for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Baert of Silver Lake visited Mr. and Mrs. Donald McGee Sunday afternoon. Seems as though Don and Al are quite the horseshoe fans and played the game most of the afternoon.

William Dehne was on the sick list a few days this past week. He is feeling much better now.

A new sign has been put up in front of the Horse Ranch Lodge, and work has been started on installing gas pumps.

FORT KLAMATH

Mrs. Frank Denton and granddaughter, Cathy Denton, accompanied by Mrs. Eva Pritchett, spent Sunday, April 20, on a trip to Prosser, where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Denton and Leon Love. Mrs. Denton and Love are Mrs. Denton's niece and nephew respectively. They returned with a car load of flowering manzanita and Oregon grape to be used as decorations for the Klamath County Postmaster's Association dinner and meeting held Saturday evening, April 26, in the CI Clubhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Yegge returned last Sunday from Prosser, Wash., where they were called by the sad news of the passing of Mrs. Yegge's younger sister, Mrs. Frank Richmond, to whom death came on Easter Sunday following a lingering illness.

Frank Edwards left Wednesday by bus for Bend, where he was met by his daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Morris of Prineville, the two making the remainder of the trip by car to Portland, where Edwards consulted a nerve specialist in regard to a nervous condition from which he has been suffering since an attack of flu during the winter.

He and his daughter returned here Saturday evening. Mrs. Morris leaving Sunday for her home in Prineville.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strahan spent the weekend as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gray at the state egg-taking station at Spencer Creek, near Keno, where Gray is stationed as watchman for a month. He is a veteran employee of the state fish hatchery located on Crooked Creek south of here.

Mrs. William A. (Sadie) Page was admitted to Hillsdale hospital in Klamath Falls on Thursday, April 24, and on the following morning underwent surgery from which she is recovering satisfactorily.

A group of local enthusiasts meets each Thursday evening at the Fort Klamath schoolhouse for a few hours relaxation in the form of square dancing to the music of records. For several weeks past, the following have been attending square dance classes held at the high school in Klamath Falls: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Orem, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson, Mrs. Stewart Nicholson and Frank Strahan. Others join the group here for the weekly square dancing, which is much enjoyed by all.

On the occasion of his birthday on Friday evening, Donald Parker was the guest for a surprise birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Van Wormer and son, Douglas, at their home here. Local cattlemen have been working long and late, setting fence posts, building fence and where possible dragging pasture land, getting meadows ready for the heavy influx of cattle which will get in full swing in the next two weeks. Planning to ship their stock either by truck or rail in the near future are J. P. McAllister, Patrick and Joseph McAllister, Loren L. Miller and son, Stewart Nicholson, Lloyd Nicholson, to mention some of the heaviest shippers of cattle to Wood River valley from winter pasture lands in northern California.

Thursday night a warm, gentle rain fell continuously, and where the snow has gone, the grass is growing fast under the stimulation of warm sun and the welcome rain. There is still plenty of snow on outlying ranches to the north but with the continuation of the present fine weather, it will soon be gone. On Saturday, Lorin M. Streeter was able for the first time this year to drive from the road to his home, located some distance away. Mr. and Mrs. Streeter have been snowed in until Saturday, and necessary supplies have been taken in from the road to the Streeter home by toboggan. Mr. Streeter using skis as a means of travel.

On Monday evening, April 21, the first regular meeting of the season was held in the CI Clubhouse by the Fort Klamath Business Association, with a good attendance of members present.

Chosen unanimously to again head the Association as secretary-manager was Mrs. Harold Wimer, with the following advisory board to act between meetings: J. Quincy Buell, Gus A. Page, Carl H. Wilson, Walter Midkiff and Clay Thomas.

Plans were made for sending out folders advertising Crater Lake and the Wood River Valley. Last year, 20,000 pamphlets were distributed by mail and locally, and this year it was decided to have more printed, as the demand exceeded the supply last season. The folders are printed in Klamath Falls by the Klamath Printing Co., and are mailed to Chambers of Commerce, Automobile Clubs and travel bureaus, etc., throughout the United States as well as parts of Canada.

At the close of the business discussion, coffee and cake were enjoyed, with Mrs. Elizabeth Loomer, Mrs. Harold Wimer, Gus and William C. Page, acting as hosts for the social hour. The next meeting will be on Monday evening, May 5, and a special invitation to all members present.
