Van Fleet Thinks Reds May Be Faking on Peace

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — Gen. James A. Van Fleet said Tuesday there are indications the Communists never have wanted to make peace in Korea.

Bread, Spud Stocks Short

PORTLAND (AP) — Portland grocery stores had few potatoes and very little bread on their shelves Tuesday.

...most 10 months of truce negotiations. But, Van Fleet said, the United Nations still can either outfight the Reds on the battlefields or "outwit them" at the conference table.

The Eighth Army commander said his officers report the Communists have built up strong defenses and moved in large amounts of artillery during the period of relative inaction since truce talks began July 10.

Van Fleet said he was "discouraged" over the lack of progress of armistice talks at Panmunjom. But he has the "utmost confidence" that U.N. delegates are capable of "negotiating an honorable peace if it is at all possible."

The Communists may yet decide peace is the best policy he said, adding: "We can either out-fight them or out-wit them."

Van Fleet's pilot son is missing in action and may be one of the prisoners of war which U.N. and Red truce delegates are haggling over.

He has repeatedly asserted that his Eighth Army would welcome a Communist attack so its superior firepower could get to Red soldiers, now relatively safe in their strong bunkers.

Crippled Wasp In New York

NEW YORK (AP) — The Aircraft carrier Wasp, looking like a "blunt-nose brass" with her collision-battered bow, anchored in New York harbor Tuesday bringing home the 61 survivors of the destroyer-minesweeper Hobson.

The two warships collided during Atlantic maneuvers April 26. The Hobson broke in two and sank with a loss of 176 lives.

Captain and crew had fought an 11-day battle to bring the crippled carrier to port.

For a time she sailed backward to keep rough seas from pounding at the hole in her bow.

Navy barges brought the Hobson survivors ashore from the carrier, far out in the harbor, and ushered them into the Navy Receiving
