Radio Show Honors Lodge

Ted Malone, American Broadcasting Company, will pay tribute to the Fraternal Order of Eagles on a nation-wide broadcast scheduled for KFLW tomorrow at 3:15 p.m.

Women of Klamath Falls Auxiliary No. 2090, FOE, have been waging an intensive phone campaign among Klamath residents to insure a large listening audience for the broadcast tribute to the Eagles and their part in bringing about the national observance of Mother's Day. According to C. Marvin Hamstreet, President of the Klamath Falls Aerie, it was a Prof. Frank Young who back in 1904 first entered a plea for a Mother's Day observance. He was then National president of the Eagles. Twelve years later Congress officially set aside the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day.
