Malin Holds Honor Court

MALIN—The annual Girl Scout Court of Honor was held Friday evening May second, at the Grade School Gymnasium in Malin.

The program was opened with a welcome by Janet Elmore to all Mothers and Fathers present, after which the flags of the Brownie and Girl Scout Troops were presented.

Mrs. Ethel Roberts, hostess, introduced the following Brownie and Intermediate Girl Scout leaders: Mrs. Irene Freitag, Mrs. Pearl Paris, Mrs. Merle Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Berdine Mullanix, Mrs. Beverly Micka, Mrs. Mariden Lyons, Mrs. Joe Watkins, Mrs. James Bunnell, Mrs. Betty Bailey, Mrs. Amy Kolkow, Mrs. Bernice Kolkow, Mrs. Lee Martin, local neighborhood Chairman and Mrs. Ella Redkey Girl Scout Executive.

Starting the entertainment part of the program was the Brownies of the Second Grade. Each little Brownie wore a brightly colored crepe paper apron, upon which were large black dots. Each apron had a different number of dots, so as they were arranged in different order they made up various arithmetic problems. Music was played to their musical arithmetic problems as they danced on and off the stage.

The third grade Brownies sang the song "M-O-T-H-E-R" in honor of Mother's Day.

Brownies of the Fourth Grade sang "The Organ Grinder" accompanied by Donna Lee James one of our own brownies, at the piano. The girls then repeated the Brownie promise and laws.

COSTUMES

Intermediate Girl Scout Troop No. 48, dressed in costumes of many lands, carried the flag of the country they represented. Flags and costumes of Jugoslovia, Netherlands, Alaska, Norway, Cuba, Russia and Japan were displayed, then the girls sang "Many Flags".

The girls of Troop 44, having combined their Girl Scouting with 4-H work, modeled skirts with matching aprons, which they had made themselves. Some of the girls modeled dresses, besides the skirts and aprons. Modeling the clothes were: Beverly Martin Lucille Webber, Sandra Fields, Marie Rogers, Lynette Lyons, Edith Faulkner, Shirley Mock and Sharon Scott. Mrs. Lee Martin is the girls leader assisted by Mrs. Lyons. Mrs. Clara Scott has helped the girls with their 4-H work.

Girl Scout Troop 48 presented a pantomime written by Janet Elmore called "Wither Next." It concerned the problems of families of transients.

Troop 45 portrayed the actions of the different kinds of girls sometimes found in Girl Scouts from the undesirable ones to the reliable. Janet Elmore was reader for the skit.

Awards Following the entertainment, the program was turned over to Miss Redkey who made the awards.

Brownies of the second and third grades received Rosettes and Brownies of the 4th Grade received their Flyup Wings. These girls receiving Flyup Wings and now eligible to enter into intermediate Girl Scout were: Sharon Woltjer, Nina Ellen Perkins, Donna Lee Weatherly and Phyllis Unruh.

Troop 48 girls who received their second Class Badges and Stars were Judy Cullimore, Janet Drager, Juanita Kolkow, Sharon Lyon, Karen Rajnus, Vlasta Rajnus, Darla Reber, Carol Vacknitz and Donna Derry.

Second Class Badges and stars were presented to the following girls of Troop 45: Dena Fields, Joan Freitag, Joyce Taylor and Maxine Paris. Mariena Vacknitz, Helper, received her first Class Badge and Curved Bar. Janet Elmore Senior Scout, received a Hostess Badge and a star.

The Curved Bar, which is the highest award presented in Intermediate Girl Scouting, was awarded to Sharon Scott, Lynette Lyons, Beverly Martin, Shirley Mock, Sandra Fields, Roxanne Wilson, Marie Rogers and Lucille Webber. First Class Badges were awarded to Edith Faulkner and Nina Bell

Price, who is a lone Scout from Chiloquin.

PRAISE Following the presentation of awards, Miss Redkey praised the girls for the work they had done the past year and spoke of the possibilities of Girl Scouts going higher and doing better things in the years to come.

Mrs. Roberts closed by extending thanks to the Malin VFW and the Malin American Legion Auxiliary for sponsoring the groups, to the Creamery for donating ice cream to Mr. Floyd Mauney for the use of the Gymnasium and cafeteria, to Mrs. George Micka and Mrs. Jerry Rajnus for the coffee and tea services, and to Mrs. Vatz Kalina for the table decorations and to Mrs. Teresa McComb who was in charge of the guest book.

HIT THE ROAD

It's time to dust off the picnic basket and get in some pantry supplies for impromptu picnics should a day suddenly turn warm and sunny. Don't forget to include ripe olives on your market list. Whole and ready chopped ripe olives are available. Whole ones are good for eating out of hand while the chopped ones can be the base of so many good-tasting sandwich fillings.
