Chiloquin

By DARLENE WOLFF

A postmistress party and dinner at the C. I. clubhouse in Port Klamath on Saturday evening, April 26, was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Anton Zadina of Chiloquin and by Mrs. Gail Ridenour of Modoc Point and her guest, Mrs. Les Hoback. Mrs. Ridenour has recently had the Modoc Point post office moved from the store building at the north end of town to her own home.

Don Ling left Saturday for Treasure Island where he will enter a special navy training school. He will learn to be an engineer of detail engines. Don recently finished boot camp in San Diego and is the son of Mrs. Orville Mendenhall. He was graduated from Chiloquin high school last spring. Her parents until his return.

LIBRARY CLUB

The final meeting of the Library Club will be held Monday afternoon 2 p.m., in the City Library Auditorium.

Title for the program will be "Americans" which will appropriately bring to a close the "Magic Carpet" series of programs which have taken members on mythical tours of such places as Hawaii, Great Britain, France, Scandinavia and South America.

The musical portion of the afternoon will be songs by American composers, featuring Mrs. Norman Fraley as soloist. The speaker for the afternoon will be Miss Roberta Hyde, KUHS instructor, whose subject will be "Our Generous Heritage". Miss Hyde will show slides to illustrate her talk.

Tea chairman will be Mrs. Frank Weaver, assisted by Mrs. Ray Lamb, Mrs. Elton Thompson, Mrs. Seth Kerron. Pouring will be Mrs. Albert Zenger, scrapbook chairman, and Mrs. C. W. Fyock, defense chairman. Hostesses will be Mrs. George Blanas and Mrs. Gus Vlahos.

Mrs. Vlahos Palmerton president, reports on the state convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, of which the Klamath Falls Library Club is a member. Mrs. LeRoy Carter, Mrs. Fred Hoagland and Mrs. Archie James accompanied Mrs. Palmerton to the convention which was held in the Multnomah Hotel in Portland on April 30, May 1 and 2.

Theme of the convention was "Paths to Security and Freedom" which is a continuation of the program of the General Federation of Women's Clubs to promote world peace through international friendship and understanding. The Klamath Falls "Magic Carpet" theme has carried out the same idea.

Clubs from all over Oregon have sent food, clothing, seeds and bedding overseas as one part of this program, and have contributed over $1700 for Pan American fellowships to be awarded during the 1952-53 academic year.

Some changes in the Federation were reported, including changing Klamath Falls' club from the sixth to the first district. Junior clubs were given added stature by a revision of the bylaws creating a junior council to be headed by a vice president of the federation. Klamath Falls has no junior club, but they are important in other parts of the state.

The membership report showed four new clubs being added during

Beta Sigma Phi Banquet

The three local chapters, Zeta Delta, Kappa and Tau of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, held their annual Founders Day Banquet April 30, at Jene's.

Places were laid for 53 and the tables were beautifully decorated with yellow net umbrellas holding bouquets of yellow and white daisies. The decorative theme was carried out in the programs and favors, cleverly designed by Phyllis Eastburn and Shirley Otterbein.

Olive Cornett, mistresses of ceremonies, and advisor for Tau Chapter, also gave the welcome address to new members.

Isabelle Brixner, advisor for Kappa Chapter, led the Founders Day Pledge. The remainder of the program was given by members of the three chapters.

Guest speaker for the evening was Mrs. Lynn Propst, recently returned from Guam where she spent eight months with her husband who was a member of the armed forces.

Chosen for special recognition were the following: Margaret Thompson, Zeta Delta; Cornelia Flynn, Kappa; and Shirley Perkins, Tau; who have been outstanding and inspirational members of their respective chapters.

The decorating committee join in thanks to Isabelle Brixner for the cut flowers so generously contributed from her garden.

One feature of the convention was a brief report from each club on the outstanding project of that club. Mrs. Palmerton chose to outline the Children's Case Beneath Fund which provides tonsillotomies for needy local children.

The opening banquet of the convention honored the Oregon mother of 1952, Mrs. A. C. McIntyre of Pendleton, who has been very active in civic and club work in Eastern Oregon. The convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs was an extremely appropriate setting for the award since Mrs. McIntyre is a past president of that group.

Governor Douglas McKay read his official citation and a framed citation from the American Mother's committee was presented. Officers were elected for a two-year term, headed by Mrs. Marion Weatherford of Arlington who will replace the out-going president, Mrs. Hildred Zell of Wasco.

Women of Moose Chapter 18 Meeting

MERRILL—Members of Merrill Chapter 18 Women of the Moose, attended the annual convocation of the Academy of Friendship held in Eugene, on Sunday, May 4. The Friendship degree is conferred once a year in one city in the state of Oregon, on co-workers who, by invitation, are accepted, due to their outstanding work during a previous year.

Six members from the Merrill chapter receiving this honor were Lucille Gray, Helen Brumley, Eva Hundley, Odie Ruffill, Blanche Fies and Ruth Hudson.

Other members and their husbands who journeyed to the Willamette valley city to witness the ceremony were Mary Groves, Leta Stolt, Dovie Reeder, Hazel Hundley, Elizabeth Holland and daughter Kay, Mr. and Mrs. John Baley.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bradshaw Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Icebnice, and Clarence Hundley.

Hazel Hundley and Rose Baley were appointed to the ritual staff. This was the largest class ever receiving the degree, a total of 85 candidates. After the ceremony, all candidates were presented a gold baby ring, the symbol of the degree. Mary Groves made the presentations. A Friendship breakfast preceded the morning session.

Following luncheon served at the Eugene Moose hall, the afternoon session "Friendship Rally" was held, with the five top chapters in the state participating. During the "Friendship Swing", a donation was made by the Academy of Friendship scholarship fund by Mary Groves.

Richard Hall Claims Bride In Portland

Richard Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hall, 6345 Simmers Avenue, was married to Harriet Cox of Portland, Saturday, April 19.

The bride is a graduate of Kansas State College and is at present a librarian in the Portland City Library. Hall is a KUHS graduate and was overseas three years with the Army during World War

II. Since his graduation as an industrial engineer from Oregon State College in 1930 he has been a resident of Portland.

His younger brother, Norman, San Rafael Calif., was best man, and Elizabeth Gillev, Portland, fellow librarian of the bride was her attendant.

The marriage was solemnized in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry DePiner, with Rev. Robert Russell as officiating minister.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hall and the bridegroom's older brother, Winfield Hall of Eureka, Calif., attended the wedding.

Merrill

By ROBERTA DEWEY

MERRILL—Boy Scout Troop 7 saw a movie on "scouting and handicrafts" at their last meeting in the recreation hall. Plans were made for an overnight hike to Dodd's Hollow and also for the Court of Honor at Henley High School April 25, at which time awards were to be presented.

At the last meeting of Merrill Parents-Patrons, April 17, a film was shown by Mr. Donahue from J. W. Kerns in Klamath Falls, on "bird life" in Klamath County. Plans were made for the preschool round-up April 25. Mrs. Homer Fields, Mrs. John Stoll, Mrs. Alfred Carleton, Mrs. C. M. Cahlan, and Mrs. Lloyd Lisk were the committee in charge. At the next meeting May 15, the officers for next year will be installed. Mrs. Tom Barry was refreshment chairman.

Mrs. Herbert Graybael former Merrill resident, now living in Madras, visited here for several days with relatives.

O-tak-yue Campfire Girls held a Friendship ceremonial in the recreation hall. The group's sponsors, Mrs. Paul Lewis, Mrs. Warren Fruits, and Mrs. Roland West were invited. Other guests were Mrs. Robert Burtleigh's 4th grade Bluebirds, who will be Campfire Girls next year. Following games, refreshments were served by Donna Jean Carson and Mary McCullough.

On April 18, the girls visited the airport, depot, and County Home in Klamath Falls. They were accompanied by their leaders, Mrs. Dale West and Mrs. Troy Qualls.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hodges and children, Ricky and Cindy, have returned from a vacation trip, which took them to El Paso, Tex., old Mexico, and San Diego, Calif.
