Sojourners Tea And Style Show

Sojourners were represented with 11 members opening the style show modeling styles dating from 1790.

Mrs. C. E. Chase modeled the 1790 dress belonging to Mrs. Tennent; Mrs. George Roberts, black lace scarf and muff; Paris creations over 100 years old, owned by Mrs. A. R. James; the shawl and skirt she wore were lent by Mrs. Bert Thomas.

Dress worn by Mrs. E. J. Cleary was circa 1851, also lent by Mrs. Thomas. Mrs. Thomas also owns the 1860 laffeta party dress worn by Mrs. Charles Dakin, Mrs. Avis McConnell owns the dress and bonnet made in 1870, worn by Mrs. G. E. Lowe.

Mother and daughter models, Mrs. J. G. Miller and Lea, wore 1963 models, also owned by Mrs. Bert Thomas. An auto duster, hat and scarf from Mrs. Thomas, and shoes lent by Mrs. H. E. Moreau, Everett, Wash., also depicted the feminine motoring apparel, 1910. Mrs. George Dugan modeled an evening dress and hat, 1915, lent by Mrs. Lorenz.

Sojourners Annual Spring Tea at the Willard Hotel, April 26, was attended by over 100 members and guests.

Mrs. H. L. Robertson was general chairman and she and her committee members carried out a "Colonial Days" theme in decorations and costumes.

Mrs. H. C. Shockey, decorations chairman, used huge multi-colored nose-gays, and streamers for the background in the room. Tallies were cleverly decorated with hand-painted silhouettes.

Twenty-three tables of cards were in play with a prize for each table, high and low alternating. Door prize was won by Mrs. L. Costel.

The Town Shop arranged a lovely arched flower bedecked trellis through which the style show models appeared. Commentary by Mrs. Keith Moon described the wearing apparel on each model as they proceeded down the ramp.

Background music was played by Mrs. Orinon Gildon during the style show.

Bringing the styles nearer to date, a 1920 chiffon formal belonging to Mrs. Thomas, was modeled by Mrs. C. E. Leithoff. Another 1920 style was represented by a black velvet evening dress and hat belonging to Mrs. T. E. Watters, and worn by Mrs. J. R. Rhodes, Mrs. A. R. Modeled a 1935 Paris model of her own.

To climax the "old-fashioned" parade, Beth Chase modeled an early 1900 model bathing suit followed by Dorothy Lowell in a Bikini suit.

Town Shop models included: Doris Cilk, Barbara Johnson, Donna Phillips, Charlotte Adolph, Helen Perry, Georgia Law, Susan Miller, Sue Thompson, Linda Fyock, Nancy Drew, Sherriann Adolph, Nancy Warren, Lynn Forcer, Erma Scoggins, Floren Wamstad and Sharon Taylor.

During the tea hour Mrs. Dick B. Miller Sr., past president, and Mrs. Winston Purvine, president, presided. The table carried out the "Colonial Day" theme, was arranged under the supervision of Mrs. J. J. Thomas.
