Pelicans Place 2 In State

The Klamath Pelicans managed to sneak in for two berths in the Friday-Saturday state track and field meet in Corvallis after the District 3 meet Saturday on Modoc Field that saw Grants Pass upset the mighty Black Tornado of Medford.

Rodney Klus a surprise second in the mile run, and Harold Simmers, second-place winner in the half-mile, earned tickets to the state track classic.

Pole-vaulter Jerry Johnson, although tying Gary McFarland of Grants Pass and Dave Newland of Medford at 11-6 in the pole vault, had to settle for a third place because of more misses.

Johnson earns a place in the Portland-Southern Oregon meet a week after the state meet.

The first two finishers in each event Saturday qualified for the state meet, the first three for the Portland-Southern Oregon meet.

The Cavemen of Grants Pass piled up 166 points to win the meet and place eight boys in nine events plus the relay team.

Medford finished with 126 1/3 points, qualifying six boys in eight events plus the relay.

The Pelicans were third with 62 7/9 points followed by Ashland with 15 8-9, Crater with 19 and Illinois Valley with 7.

Ashland picked up three seconds and a first, Crater one first, Illinois Valley one third place.

Harry Pitts got a third in the mile, Leon Gordy a third in the broad jump to bring to five the number of Pels who will compete in the Portland-Southern Oregon.

No records were broken Saturday. Probably the outstanding performance was Jim Hallhill's win in the 440-yard run. The Crater boy toured the lap in 50.7, believed to be the best in the state this season.

Medford's Ed Bingham was a double winner, in the javelin and high jump.

Oretech, Humboldt Divide

Chuck Tykeson hurled his sixth victory of the season yesterday a four hit 12-0 shutout over Humboldt State as Oregon Tech split a doubleheader with the Lumberjacks at Recreation Park.

Humboldt won the opener, 9-8. Both were seven-inning contests.

Tykeson gave the Jacks just four hits in the second game as the Owls jumped on two Humboldt pitchers for 11 hits, highlighted by a fifth-inning binge that saw seven hits in a row and seven runs.

The Owls went ahead 1-0 in the third inning on a wild pitch by starter Bob Matthews.

Oretech went to work in earnest in the fourth inning when Don Foreman parked one of Matthew's pitches over the right field fence to drive in two runs ahead of him.

DOUBLE

Quetimo Lelli, who got four hits in seven trips in both games, led off the fifth with a double. Wayne Paulsen clobbered a home run that bounced off a house past the fence in left field and the rout was on.

Five more successive hits — singles by Tykeson, Floyd Miller, Al Foreman and Larry Jeter and a double by Dan Barnes—added up to seven runs in all before Humboldt retired the hit-happy Owls.

Oregon Tech went ahead 8-6, with a six-run rally in the fourth inning of the first game.

Humboldt closed it to 7-8 in the fifth and scored two runs in the seventh for the slim victory. The winning run, by Keith Darling, came on a questionable play. One of Jack Brown's pitches got by Catcher Al Foreman. Brown rushed in to make the put-out and appeared to have Darling dead to rights when he took the throw from Foreman.

SAFE

But Darling was called safe.

Oretech had the bases loaded in their half of the seventh. But Don Foreman was thrown out at first to nip the rally.

The Owls got just six hits off Humboldt pitcher Wally Maciel while the Lumberjacks raked Brown for 15 hits. But eight Humboldt errors evened matters.

Line scores:

Washington opens its final home stand of the Northern Division baseball season against league - leading Oregon Monday.

And the Huskies will need to sweep the Monday-Tuesday series at Seattle to pull the pace-setting Ducks back within overtaking distance. Two wins for Washington would leave Oregon ahead by half a game but a double - triumph would put the Ducks out of the Huskies' reach.

After the series against Oregon, Washington has only a four-game road trip to the Palouse to play two each with Idaho and Washington State.

Oregon tightened its grip on the top berth Saturday by edging Washington State 3-2 in a seesaw game at Pullman. It gave the Ducks a sweep of the two-game WSC series. They won 4-2 in 10 innings Friday.

Oregon State also was slated to see action Monday but against a non - conference opponent.

Spokane Leads WI Race

By The Associated Press

The Western International League entered the fourth week of the 1952 baseball season Monday with the Spokane Indians and the Victoria Tyees still the pace - setters.

The Indians kept their edge over Victoria by sweeping both ends of a doubleheader with Tri - City's Braves Sunday while the Tyees were splitting with the Wenatchee Chiefs.

The Indians came back from a Saturday night 5-2 defeat at the hands of Tri-City to clip the Braves 8-3 and 7-3 Sunday. The Tyees, who blanked the Chiefs 6-0 Saturday, won Sunday's opener 5-2 and dropped the nightcap 7-0.

That left Spokane still one game out in front as the clubs swapped opponents for new series opening Tuesday. No games were scheduled Monday.

Elsewhere around the league, Yakima's Bears, the tailend club most of the season, dropped Vancouver twice 5-4 and 5-4 and Salem and Lewiston split a pair, Salem winning the first game 5-4 and Lewiston the afterpiece 9-2. Vancouver and Yakima were rained out Saturday but Lewiston fashioned a 9-2 win over Salem.

12th STRAIGHT

Pitcher John Conant turned in his 12th straight win, tying the league record for consecutive victories in Sunday's opening game against Tri-City at Spokane. He gave up eight scattered hits and struck out eight Tri-City batters after a shaky start. A six-run scoring splurge in the seventh inning put the game on ice for Conant.

Spokane won the nightcap on timely baseblows by Merl Burlson, Mel Wasley, and Bill Sheets.

Charley Oubre, outloned to Wenatchee by the Pacific Coast League Oakland Oaks last week, hurled a shutout in his first appearance in a Wenatchee uniform. He handcuffed the Tyees with only four hits in the seven-inning nightcap. Victoria Pitchers Bill Wisneski and J. Heard held the Chiefs to six safeties in the opener.

HOME RUN

Yakima Manager Dario Lodigiani lobbed a home run ball over the left field fence in the sixth inning of Sunday's opener at Yakima to put the Bears on the victory trail. The second game scheduled for seven innings, went into overtime when Yakima's Jerry Zuvela chased in the tying runs with a two-on triple. Charles Malmberg came in with the winning run in the eighth after a pair of singles and a sacrifice hit which was bobbled by the Caps' Bud Ellsam.

Beavers Home To Twinks

By The Associated Press

Ailing Bob Boyd returned to the Seattle lineup as a pinchhitter Sunday and provided the punch the Rainiers needed to score the second win of their seven - game Pacific Coast League series against Portland.

Boyd, out for two weeks with a stomach ailment, whacked out a triple in the second extra inning of the scheduled seven - inning nightcap. George Vico raced in from first and the Rainiers, who had lost the opener 5-3, took the second game 2-1.

The Beavers left for home and a clash with Hollywood with a 4-2 bulge in the series against Seattle. One rained-out game will be made up when Portland returns to Seattle in August.

The first game saw Charley Schanz taking his fourth loss after giving up four Portland runs in five innings. Wes Bailey, Bob Hall and Jim Davis followed Schanz to the mound.

They gave up 13 hits — four by Don Eggert who got on base five times and scored three Portland runs.

In the seventh, Seattle got three runs off Marino Pieretti, the Beaver winner, ending a string of 16 innings in which Seattle had failed to score off Portland pitching.

Around the rest of the loop it was the same — all divided double headers. San Diego maintained a 3½ game league lead by winning from Sacramento 3-2 and losing the final 4-1. San Francisco clubbed Hollywood 10-4 but then lost 4-3.

Los Angeles won 4-3 in 11 innings but lost the nightcap 6-5.

Hanson walked six and struck out nine in this first appearance on the mound for the Pels.

Dick Lundsten led the Klamath attack with three hits in four trips.

The Pels got nine hits off two Lakeview pitchers.

Tribe Dumps Browns Twice to Puff Lead

By The Associated Press

What happened to the lively ball? Like the Dodo bird it appears to have become extinct.

Remember when those pitchers were wailing about too much jackrabbit on the ball? That was only two years ago. Now the hitters are doing the moaning and groaning, and with good reason.

The Major League season is less than a month old and already 28 shutouts have been pitched. American League hurlers, who have turned in 17 whitewashing jobs, have spun seven 1-0 games to equal their full-season total of 1951.

Bob Lemon of Cleveland and Allie Reynolds of the New York Yankees pitched brilliant 1-0, two - hit victories Sunday. That boosted the total of low-hit games this year to 35.

Lemon's two - hit victory was followed by Mike Garcia's eight-hit, 3-1 triumph. It enabled the Indians to sweep a doubleheader from the Browns and increase their American League lead to two games over the runner - up Washington Senators.

Reynolds, who hurled a no-hitter against the Red Sox last September nearly duplicated the stunt. The only hits the Red Sox got Sunday were first - inning singles by Dom Dimaggio and Vern Stephens as New York won 1-0.

The Senators defeated the Philadelphia Athletics, 5-2 in 11 innings of the first game of a scheduled doubleheader. Rain washed out the second tilt after two scoreless innings.

The Detroit Tigers snapped their seven - game losing streak, nipping Chicago, 2-1, after the White Sox had won the first game of the doubleheader 6-5.

The Dodgers whittled New York's National League lead to one game, edging Philadelphia, 4-3, in 10 innings.

Joe Adcock walloped two homers and a single to lead the Cincinnati Reds to an 8-5 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Chicago split a twin bill with Pittsburgh. The Pirates, who had lost 20 of 24 starts, rallied to whip the Bruins, 11-2, after losing the opener, 8-2.

The scheduled doubleheader between the Giants and Braves in Boston was postponed because of rain.
