HE GOT THE CHAIR— J. Howard McGrath, recently ousted attorney general, leaves the White House in his car after being presented with the chair he occupied as a Cabinet officer. It is customary that former Cabinet members are presented with the chair they occupied during their tenure in office.

BACK IN NEAL'S ARMS— For the first time since her celebrated breakup with Actor Franchot Tone, blonde Barbara Payton dances in public at Hollywood with Tom Neal. They went night clubbing several days after she reached a financial settlement with Tone that ends the divorce woes in which Neal played a prominent part.

FAREWELL— Gen. and Mrs. Matthew B. Ridgway wave farewell before boarding their plane at Haneda Airport near Tokyo for their flight to the United States. The general is replacing Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as NATO comander and he in turn has been replaced as supreme commander in the Far East by Gen. Mark Clark.

Klamath Man on Adventure Trip Through South Seas

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)— Ten persons seeking high adventure and a new life, set sail here on Monday night's high tide in the 37-year-old schooner "Eloise," bound for Hawaii and the South Pacific.

They plan to sail for at least six months and then more than half the party will make their homes in Honolulu.

Aboard are Capt. and Mrs. Harry Farrell, formerly of Seattle, owners of the schooner; Dr. and Mrs. Harry N. March of Grass Valley, Calif., and their three teen age children, Hugh 17, Martha 16, and Jane 11; William Spencer, Klamath Falls, Ore.; William Jackson, San Francisco, and Mrs. Kay Jurgensmeyer of Chafpaign, Ill.

Except for Captain Farrell, who served 12 years as an officer in the navy and now is in the naval reserve, all are amateur sailors.

The schooner Eloise was built in 1915 by Lawlers in Boston as a government mail schooner on the Aleutian and Bering Sea run from Southeastern Alaska. She was purchased from the government in 1926 and brought to San Francisco by Commodore John Piver, who rebuilt the 86-foot vessel into a luxury yacht. Since then the Eloise had been a fixture in Bay Area [illegible] circles, between several trips to Honolulu, Tahiti, Mexico and the North Pacific.

The present cruise calls for about 15 days to Honolulu, and five months of wandering after that in the South Pacific, with course and destination set by whim and the prevailing winds.

After the cruise, the Farrells, the Marchs and the Spencers plan to make their permanent homes in Honolulu. Mrs. Spencer, not one of the cruise party, will join her husband in Hawaii.

LEONARD I. LINDAS, present District Attorney for Clackamas County, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Attorney General.
