Famed Negro Choir Coming

"Wings Over Jordan," famed Negro choir formed 15 years ago in Cleveland, O., is to appear Sunday night at First Methodist Church at 8 p.m.
Currently on a national goodwill tour to foster friendly racial relations, the much traveled singing organization will present its concert free to the public with a good will offering accepted.
In 1937 the chorus gave its first national hookup radio show. It spent 10 months in the European theater entertaining troops in World War II and returned to the concert stage and radio after the war.
Until recently the group continued its radio and concert appearances on a commercial basis, until its director, Rev. Glynn T. Settle, realized the necessity again of using the talents of his choir to bring a message to the people of America.
