

Maglie Shaves Cincinnati

Barber Wins 6th Straight

By The Associated Press
Sal (The Barber) Maglie is shaving National League hitters so close the boys are objecting to the lather.

Cincinnati did its best to upset the New York Giants on Wednesday with repeated demands to see the ball. The intimidation was that Maglie might be sneaking in a "splitter". The umpires could find nothing wrong.

Maglie was so upset he cooled off the Reds with six hits, 8-3, for his sixth straight victory. Unbeaten in 1952, the 34-year-old right-hander is off to a flying start toward another big year, like his 23-6 of last season.

Gerry Staley, beaten only by Maglie in compiling a 6-1 record for St. Louis, shoved Brooklyn another game behind the Giants with a steady six-hitter for a 5-1 victory. Solly Hemus was the big hitter for the Cards, hammering home three runs with a home run and triple.

SPURT
With Granny Hamner and Willie Jones doing the heavy bombing, Russ Meyer finally dodged the hard luck that trailed him in four previous games to lift the Phillies over Chicago, 9-2. Although Meyer allowed 11 hits he kept them well scattered as the Phils continued their spurt toward the first division.

Pete Whisenant's single with the bases loaded, juggled by shortstop George Strickland just long enough to let Jack Daniels score, gave the Boston Braves a 10th inning 4-3 edge over Pittsburgh.

Hank Bauer and Johnny Sain were the chief agents helping the New York Yankees catch up with Cleveland for a 5-3 win after losing four straight to the Tribe.

Bauer, sizzling as a leadoff hitter, paved the way for tobacco-chawin' Sain with a homer, double and four runs batted in.

HOMESICK
The Boston Red Sox continued to wrestle with their same old problem — how to win away from Fenway Park — as they lost their sixth straight on the road, 6-3 at Chicago.

Newly-wed Vic Wertz rejoined the Detroit Tigers and blasted a tie-breaking home run off Washington's Sid Hudson in the eighth for a 3-2 win. Art Houtteman turned back the Senators, who had won nine of their last 10, with a six-hitter.

The St. Louis Browns snapped out of a batting slump to rack up four Philadelphia pitchers with a 16-hit attack as they broke a three-game losing streak with a 12-7 win.

Mrs. Charles Kindred, Corvallis, and Mrs. A. C. Stepp, Portland, tied for low gross honors in the championship bracket with 89's.

Beavers' Late Rally Nips Hollywood, 7-6

By The Associated Press
San Diego was still out in front in the Pacific Coast League Thursday but the Padres' lead was cut to 2 1/2 games by Wednesday night's 3-1 loss to Los Angeles.

Oakland stayed on the Padres' heels by whipping Sacramento 8-4 while San Francisco shut out Seattle 5-0 and Portland nipped Hollywood 7-6.

San Diego pitcher Grumpy Guy Fletcher fell victim to heavy hitting Max West, who knocked a home with one aboard and also slammed a double that scored two runs.

At San Francisco "tough luck" Chuckie Elmer Singleton, whose teammates had scored only three runs in his last 46 innings, finally got some support as the Seals battled him to victory over Seattle. Singleton struck out seven and allowed only five scattered hits.

San Francisco scored three runs in the fourth on three hits and a Seattle error.

Portland came from behind with four runs in the eighth inning to stop Hollywood. Eddie Barr's bases-loaded single accounted for two. Then Aaron Robinson came home on Don Egger's out and Eric Tipton singled to score Barr. The Stars' Gene Handley knocked in two runs with a double in the seventh.

Hal Gregg, the PCL's top fliker, remained undefeated as he pitched Oakland to victory over Sacramento. He fanned eight and allowed eight hits in gaining his seventh win of the season. The Acorns helped him along with their biggest inning of the year — six runs in the seventh.
