

CONVERTED RICE to accompany roast, is a wonderful idea any time. It's especially good now when traditionally used potatoes are a scarce item. The above dish, known as Greek Pilaff, is delicious served as illustrated, alongside a tender and juicy beef roast. Cooked with consommé instead of water in preparing the rice, using a little butter and bay leaf and one tablespoon of lemon juice. Cook in double boiler 35 minutes, stirring occasionally. Garnish with baked apple stuck with cloves.

Tea for Mothers

FORT KLAMATH—Honoring their mothers and three special guests, little members of the local Blue Bird group of Campfire girls and Cub Scouts, entertained at a delightful tea in the Civic Improvement Clubhouse May 8.

Preceding the festivities, a short business meeting was held, conducted by Mrs. Joseph Halford, den mother of the Cub Scouts and Mrs. James Van Wormer leader of the Blue Birds. Arrangements were made for summer outings during school vacation.

Darla Brewer was initiated from the Blue Bird group into the Campfire girls, the candlelighting ceremony being conducted by Blue Bird leader Mrs. James Van Wormer, assisted by Phyllis Woods of the Blue Bird group.

Tea was served by Blue Bird girls and uniformed Cub Scouts at long tables in the main room of the clubhouse. A spring theme was carried out in favors and appointments, arrangements of jonquills, narcissi and pussywillows. Each mother and special visitor was given a hand-made gift, the creation of a Blue Bird or Cub Scout. Mothers present were Mrs. Richard H. Wilson, Mrs. William Brewer, Mrs. Joseph Halford, Mrs. H. T. Williams, Mrs. Wilbur Hecock, Mrs. James Van Wormer, Mrs. Don Veach and Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson. Also in attendance were Mrs. Lawrence French, regional director of the Campfire Girls,

USE AVACADO

We're enjoying the peak of the avocado season these days. The fruit is very choice and in perfect condition for salads and sandwiches. Use one that has become too soft for slicing in a salad dressing. Mash the avocado and combine with enough French dressing to give the desired consistency. Try this on a citrus fruit salad.

KREMLIN—A rumor is abroad that some person has stolen the results of the 1956 Russian election.

"Old at 40, 50, 60?" —Man, You're Crazy

Forget your age! Thousands are peppy at 70. Try "pepping up" with these. Contains little for weak, run-down feeling due to lack of "old" food. Tastes like candy. No sugar. No calories. Tastes like candy. No sugar. No calories. Tastes like candy. No sugar. No calories.
