

REGAL BEAUTY reigned at St. Helen's Hall, when Helene Fischer was crowned queen at the May fete, May 9. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Fischer, Tulelake.

HELENE FISCHER MAY FETE QUEEN

Helene Fischer, pretty blond 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Fischer, Tulelake, was crowned queen of the annual St. Helen's Hall May fete, in a colorful ceremony at the Portland school, May 9.

Her parents and brother George Fischer Jr., went north for festivities. Mr. and Mrs. Fischer were patrons at the dance that followed the crowning.

Among the six Princesses in her court were two girls, known locally, Joan McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McDonald, Lakeview and Molly Cashin, Eugene, daughter of J. A. Cashin, this city.

The 1952 queen wore a strapless white tulle formal with sprays of red roses and members of her court were in pastels garlanded with roses. Queen Helene's royal robe was red velvet and her crown was studded with pearls.

She was escorted by Marvin Thomas Jr., Tulelake, junior at Oregon State College.

Helene, an accomplished pianist and vocalist, student of David Campbell, Portland, will be graduated from St. Helen's in June and will enter Stanford next fall.
