REFLECTIONS FROM

Milly's Mirror

THAT BIG SMILE on Maxine Lukey's face is really for JOY—Joy Kent—Maxine's bridal plans were all OK—except for one important factor—She wanted Joy to sing at her wedding—but Joy lives in Chicago—and one hesitates to suggest such a long trip—even to a lifelong friend—that was the situation until it was necessary for Joy to come to us Alto—she will be here—she'll sing—and so—oo—THE SMILE!

ART AND JEAN TRIEBWAHER—Jean Wiesendanger's visit of the West—some to make their new home in Sacramento—They and their children—Scott 3½ and Craig 2—will be at home—2309 Bernardo Road—All to new host as manager of Kenneth Lambie's branch office.

FRED HOUSTON—by choco-choo—to Chicago to see his daughter Virginia and her family—Virginia and John Tidwell have moved there after years spent in Latin American countries—so that's why you miss Fred's face in Kaddy's.

RUTH KING—Mrs. A. J. J.—is always busy—but while talking to her on the phone the other evening after she had put her daughter Marie to bed after a tussle—she said she had just cut 8 baby turkeys to be—was playing nursemaid to her grandchild—and I thought—if and when she got the tyke to bed—that she'd be READY FOR BED!!!

BPW CONVENTION—over—but the memory lingers on—I keep thinking about a nice gesture made by two girls who come from countries far away—with customs—the antithesis of ours—and yet—Ma Khin Thi—from Rangoon, Burma— instructor in Domestic science—at the U of Rangoon—now here at OSC on a BPW scholarship—for further study in her field—for one year—and Chiyono Matsushima—also here on a BPW scholarship—has been here almost two years at OSC—will return home after graduation—Well enroute—they were guests of Polly and Phil Schroeder while here—and the girls were greatly impressed with American kitchens—the heavens of the households to them—AND it WAS Mother's Day—so they insisted that Polly play lady—and Ma Khin cooked a Burmese dinner and Chiyono and

Young Phil 8 served it—and to this day—I don't know what that Burmese banquet included—

TO THE GENE FAVELLS—(Winfred Lamm) a daughter—8 lbs. 2 oz.—born at Klamath Valley—almost a Mother's day gift—arriving the day before on the 10th of May—Sister Alice, 18 mos., was named for her grandmother Alice (Mrs. Wilfred E.) Lamm—Mother—Paternal grandparents are the K. G. Favelles—Lakeview—

TEA FOR MRS. GILES L. FRENCH—given by Coral Sabo and Rose Poole—was a delightfully informal affair in which to meet the charming visitor—Helen Buyer and Nell Hardenbrook always create an "old home week" atmosphere when they breeze in—Not knowing that either of them were in town—was surprised—George and Helen and Byron (Kaddy) and Nell have kept in close contact with KP friends—and ditto—the other way around—

WHEN WRITING OF new arrivals—am reminded that the Frank X. Reston's FIRST grandchild arrived April 29th—Kathleen Ann's her name and the poppa and muma are Patricia and Harold Bissell—Richmond—of course—Patricia is sister of Mary Louise—whose wedding is in today's paper.

THE ONE DAY—that I'd remember enough to put money in the parking meter—I was reminded that I was wastin' it—yesterday—ELECTION DAY!

Julian Abbotts Tour Many States

The Julian Abbotts have returned to their home, 2233 Reclamation, from a trailer and airplane trip—trailer for leisure and plane for speed. Through California to Los Angeles. Stopping in Livermore to visit brother and wife, the Ednae Abbotts, then to Los Angeles, continuing south to San Antonio, where they left trailer, made plane connections for Mexico City and a week's guided tour.

Returned to pick up trailer, continued to Eunice, Louisiana, then to Greenville, Mississippi, where they visited son, Dean, a cadet in the USAP one week there, before going to Bainbridge, Georgia, for brief visit with nephew Earl W. Weaver, also a cadet in the USAP.

From there into Florida for a week, then back into New Orleans, where they were joined by Earl and Dean for a few days more of visiting. Returned by way of New Mexico and Arizona, then north through the Painted Desert, Petrified Forest, Grand Canyon, Mt. Zion and Bryce national parks.

Home via Salt Lake and Idaho stopping in Baker to see daughter Elaine Abbott also Jordan Valley to spend some time with Mrs. Abbott's brothers and families. Ten weeks of trailer travel, with many interesting side trips.

Chemult

By VIRGINIA TAYLOR
Among the happy families with servicemen home on leave last week were the Rodmans, son, Bill, Bixie Lamy on leave from Germany. He has been away for three years. The Thompsons, with son, William Polster, home on leave from Korea. He has been in the service. The Broders, son David, on leave from boot camp and to report to Moffett Field upon returning to base.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Damon motored to Hornbrook, Calif., over Mother's Day to spend the day with Mrs. Damon's mother, Mrs. Ida Chapman. Mrs. Damon's brother of Calistoga, Calif., also was there to celebrate Mrs. Chapman's 70th birthday and also Mr. Damon's birthday which was May 5th.

Several little friends of Sharon and Pat O'Brien were served with cake and sundae on their 11th birthday, May 12. Those attending were Larry and Norman Masten, Denny Jessup, John Evjonn, Claude Ramsey, Billy and Ernie Taylor. Klamath County Engineer Bill Canton was in Chemult Tuesday on business, concerning the securing of a right of way for the new city dump south of town. It was found that the property in question was owned by a Mr. Rice.

Birdhouses of all descriptions and sizes have been appearing in strategic spots all over town. They were made by the fifth and sixth grades and were on sale at the Garden Club convention at Gilchrist Saturday.

Chemult women members of the Gilchrist Garden Club attending the affair were: Mrs. V. I. Brader, Mrs. Grant Damon, Mrs. C. C. Long, Mrs. Ray Darnell, Mrs. C. Jessup Sr., Mrs. G. Galbreath, and Mrs. William Taylor.

Klamath Falls Garden Club

Klamath Falls Garden Club met Monday afternoon for installation of new officers. Mrs. Earl Redman, past president, was installing officer. Mrs. Will Wood presented each of her officers with a gift of a small butterfly made of feathers.

Mrs. Fred Karlson, incoming president, in behalf of the club, presented Mrs. Wood with a gift. Mrs. G. A. Krause gave a very interesting description of arrangements she saw in a flower show in California.

Material for next year's program was discussed by members and a program was outlined. Newly elected officers are: Mrs. Fred Karlson, president; Mrs. M. Marvin, vice president; Mrs. Will Wood, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Norman Saunders, secretary; and Mrs. E. B. Epperson, treasurer.
