

SHOW OF FORCE— Tanks and men of the 187th Airborne Regimental Combat Team rumble past compounds holding rebellious Communist prisoners on Kojima Island, Korea, in a show of force to prevent further disturbances. The new guards are veterans of two battle jumps in North Korea.

FLAMES DEVOUR WARNER BROS. STUDIO SET—Rolling flames billow from a four-story studio set on the Warner Bros. lot in Burbank, Calif., as a roaring blaze burned a huge sound stage and six outdoor sets before being controlled. The buildings shown here are only shells, with supporting timbers behind the fronts. Workmen in foreground, who rushed from their lunch hour, fight the blaze as they await the arrival of city fire equipment. Damage was estimated at $1,500,000.

IN SECOND TRAGEDY— Philip Vitter, Jr., 12, (center), smiles in a New York hospital anticipating his parents weekly visit. However, Philip, who is undergoing a skin graft for hand burns suffered when his mother held his hand over a kitchen range 3 1/2 years ago to "teach him a lesson," faced disappointment. His father, Philip Vitter (left), 45, is near death and his mother, Mrs. Anna Vitter (right), 42, is accused of stabbing her husband following an argument in their New York home. She is held without bail.
