GRAINS

CHICAGO — A mid-day advance in grain prices on the board of trade ran into heavy selling Friday and prices backed down to the close.

Dealings were active and price swings became quite wide, particularly in soybeans. Beans had gains extending to around 5 cents at one time. In the subsequent sell-off beans managed to hold small gains, but corn and oats fell under the previous close.

Wheat went ahead on exports to West Germany and lack of sufficient moisture in the Northwest.

Wheat closed 1 1/2-1 3/4 lower, July 12 3/4, corn 1-1 1/4 lower, July 11 1/4-1 1/8, oats 1/2 to 1 cent lower, July 7 1/2-7 3/4, rye 1/4 lower to 1/2 higher, July 32.00-32.50, soybeans 1/2 lower to 1 1/2 higher, July 32.99-32.98 1/2, and hard unchanged to 7 cents hundred pounds lower, July 12 1/2.

LIVESTOCK

CHICAGO — Heavy hog receipts plus 1,000 head held over from Thursday's market drove prices sharply downward Friday with some late sales as much as $1.25 lower.

The pig market was generally steady with some small sales obtaining strong prices. There were hardly enough sheep to make a market. Prices were nominally steady but weak undertone.

Hog trading was very slow and uneven and all receipts were not sold. Choice 180 to 220 pound butchers were down to $21.00 to $21.25 with $2.50 paid sparingly for a few small lots of choice lightweights.

A few sales of good to high choice steers and yearlings were made from $31.00 to $38.00. Two loads of choice 1,225 pound steers sold for $34.25 and load of low commercial 954 pound holsteins brought $27.75.

Quotable prices in the small sheep market listed choice old crop woolled lambs at $29.50.

Lakeview Plans Jackpot Rodeo

LAKEVIEW — The third annual jackpot rodeo, sponsored by the Lakeview Roping Club, has been set for Saturday and Sunday, June 7 and 8, at the fairgrounds. Plans are progressing rapidly according to committee reports made at the last meeting of the club.

Club secretary Mrs. Doris Herlich and Mrs. Genevieve Hanks will be at the fairgrounds Saturday morning, the first day of the show, to sign up riders. Hours will be announced after the next meeting at which time final arrangements for the stock will be announced.

It has been decided to add a special feature to this year's show by awarding a $50 bonus purse to the winners of both bronco and bareback riding in the finals.

SAVINGS, LOAN MEET

13 Graduated At Merrill

MERRILL — Thirteen seniors, eight girls and five boys, the class of 1952 of Merrill High School, were graduated with appropriate ceremony May 21.

To the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance," played by Mary Jane Payr on the organ, the graduates, dressed in blue caps and gowns, entered the high school gym, and proceeded to the stage.

Rev. George Milne pronounced the invocation, and was followed by the salutatorian's address given by Evelyn Ochs.

The girl's chorus, directed by Eldon Payant, sang two numbers "Little Chocolate Baby" and "I Picked By Your Window."

Valedictorian Roberta Kirtley in her address, pointed out the problems facing the class as they leave school, and also the debt owed parents and teachers in helping them to a successful conclusion of their grade and high school education.

Commencement speaker was Sen. Phil Hitchcock.

An organ selection "Waltz Serenade" was presented by Mrs. Payr, just preceding the presentation of awards by Principal H. J. Hendrickson.

Roberta Kirtley received a scholarship to OTY and a year's subscription to the Reader's Digest. Patricia Noonan was chosen the best girl athlete, and Wesley Haskins the best boy athlete. Wesley also received the award for the best school citizen.

Senior class president Billy Barber presented the class gift, a rheostat for the gym lights, to Danny Barry, next year's student body president.

E. E. Kipatrik, chairman of the local school board, presented diplomas to Billy Barber, Wesley Haskins, Roberta Kirtley, Betty Kothoff, Patricia Noonan, Evelyn Ochs, Carol Winter, Wilma Palka, Dick Reeves, Bruce Sanders, Freda Schlicht, Alice Swafford, and Billy Welshans.

Legion Post Holds Party

WINEMA Post 142, American Legion, held a party in the Veterans Memorial Hall Wednesday night, May 21, for the "Auxiliary" members of the Post, who purchased lifetime membership cards in the organization, some, dating as far back as one year ago.

Unlike other Legion Post Auxiliaries, Winema's "Auxiliary" is made up of male Veterans, who served in either World War, and is the holder of an honorable discharge certificate. The first of what is scheduled to be an annual affair, for the holders of these cards, was given last Wednesday night.

With an appreciable attendance a full evening of fun and entertainment was enjoyed, the highlight of the evening being a "hat promenade" with women's hats modeled by the men. Bruce Hall was judged the winner for the cleverest portrayal of "a woman with a new hat." Ben Sammons proved his adeptness in donning ladies' apparel in the quickest time.

In addition to the "fashion show" put on by the men, various games, competing for prizes, were played. A Dutch auction for a fancy apron and a home baked cake took place with Hal Ogle and Frank Roemer in the role of auctioneers.

A buffet supper was served by Adra Turner, Dorothy Hall, Irene Young and Lavonne Roemer. John Soto took flash pictures of the "special" evening, out of which Katherine Sammons was presented a past commander's pin, by Lavonne Roemer, present Commander.

Any male veteran wishing to obtain membership in our "auxiliary" may purchase membership cards from any one of Winema Post members, at $1.25 each.

Lake Roundup Queen Sought

LAKEVIEW — The 1952 Lake County Roundup queen will be chosen in June this year, under plans now being carried out by James Howard, chairman of the queen committee.

Howard is now mailing letters to the granges and to Lakeview organizations inviting these groups to nominate girls for the honor. The nominations are to be named by June 7.

Walt Leemann Jr., president of the 1952 show, has announced that the queen this year will be selected solely on the basis of horsemanship. Howard said that a date for the riding tests and queen selection will be set as soon after June 7 as possible. It is desired that the queen and two princesses will be named in time so they can attend the Klamath Falls, Altura and other shows, prior to the Lake County event.
