Nuptial Vows Exchanged At Lasueur Home

Home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Clemence Lesueur, 515 North Third Street, was the setting for the informal wedding of Sylvia C. Winkelman, daughter of William C. Winkelman, Lincoln Park, New Jersey, to Clement O. Lesueur, Pastor Irvin Tweet, officiating.

The service was read at five o'clock in the evening, April 24, before a small group of close friends and relatives. The bride wore a light gray, white embroidered afternoon dress and wore a white orchid corsage and white accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred B. Winkelman were attendants, and during the benediction "The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Alfred Winkelman, brother of the bride. Immediately following the double ring ceremony, a wedding dinner was served by the bridegroom's mother. After a honeymoon on the Oregon Coast the couple are now at home.

Jean Rajnus Is Installed As Worthy Advisor

MALIN — At public installation ceremonies held by the Malin Rainbow Assembly for Girls 49, Friday, May 16, Jean Rajnus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rajnus, was installed as Worthy Advisor. Ceremonies were held at the Malin Church, where the assembly room was decorated with huge baskets of yellow and lavender tulips and lavender lilacs, against a background of potted palms. In the East large letters spelled out the word "Aloha" and colorful crepe paper leis were placed around the neck of each officer as she was installed.

Installing officers were Worthy Advisor, Ilyis Smalley; Chaplain, Barbara Cornett; Charities, Elizabeth McVay; Hope, Pat Smith; Faith, Darla Sarutski; Recorder, Betty Bunnell; Treasurer, Joanne Parker; Chaplain, Pearl Ottoman; Drill Leader, Barbara Havlina; Musician, Barbara Bunnell; Love, Janet Elmore; Religion, Ruth Kalina; Nature, Barbara Salyers; Immortality, Marsha Beasley; Fidelity, Kathleen Wilson; Patriotism, Wanda Beate; Service, Jacquetta Saunders; Confidential Observer, Carol Lou Weatherly; Outer Observer, Marlena Vacknitz; Choir Director, Delores Steward.

In the addenda honoring the newly installed advisor, eight girls wearing the crepe paper leis, entered the room. They were led by Lynette Lyons and Dianne Micka, who were dressed in brightly colored hula costumes. As each girl gave her message of love and good wishes to Jean, they placed their leis around her neck and then presented her with a bouquet of yellow roses.

Following the addenda musical numbers were given by Mrs. Eileen Herringshaw, who sang "Over the Rainbow" and a Hawaiian dance was portrayed by Lynette Lyons and Dianne Micka. Words to the song by which they danced were sung by Pearl Ottoman, accompanied by Mrs. Rudy Payer. Outgoing Worthy Advisor, Ilyis Smalley, was honored with a clever addenda, also carrying over the Hawaiian theme, and a gift presented to her from her officers. Following the installation of officers the gavel was turned over to the new Worthy Advisor, who greeted her new officers and outlined her program for her term of office. Nature, Friendship, and Service were chosen by Jean as her theme and buying new jewelry will be her major project. Also planned for future dates will be a reception honoring Patti Smith, who was appointed Grand Religion of Oregon Rain-bow and Mrs. Ethel Hamilton, District Deputy for Rainbow. A fashion show as a possible way of earning money for the assembly and parties and a camping trip was also planned.

The traditional ceremony of presenting her bouquet to her mother and her Ebble to her father, was carried out by Jean. They in turn responded with appropriate thanks. Honored guests escorted to the East were Patti Smith, Grand Religion, and Mrs. Alma Coulson, District Deputy for Rainbow in California. Installed as Rainbow Board Directors were Mr. and Mrs. Jess Smith. Mother Advisor, Agnes Shreiner, presided at the presentation of awards, which the girls had worked so diligently to receive. Those receiving their first Merit Badges were: Carolyn Fargo, Sandra Field, Lynette Lyon, Artie Micka, Dianne Micka, Marie Rogers and Lucile Webber.

Colored service bars were awarded as follows: Red, Joyce James; Orange and Yellow, Barbara Bunnell; Red and Orange, Carol Lou Weatherly; Yellow, Beverly Martin; John Parker, Marlena Vacknitz; Yellow and Green, Delores Steward; Green and Blue, Wanda Beate; Green, Gene Loveness; Blue, Betty Bunnell.

A large cake bearing the names of Jean and Ilyis and having the sign of a rainbow on it, was served downstairs after the meeting. The tea table was set with lace and silver and surrounding the large cake were lavender flowers. Small Hawaiian dolls added an island touch.

Naomi Shrine Annual Session

Interesting reports of the 58th annual session of the Supreme Shrine, Order of White Shrine of Jerusalem, held at Toronto, Ontario, Canada, home of the Supreme Worthy High Priestess, were given at a stated meeting of Naomi Shrine 5 which was held at the Masonic Temple, Klamath Avenue, Tuesday evening, May 20.

These reports were given by Blanche Schulze, Worthy High Priestess, and Jack Schulze, Past Watchman of Shepherds, who were delegates to the Supreme Session from Klamath Falls, and Sojourner Kate D. Peyton who accompanied them on their trip. The Supreme Session was presided over by Meta Pointer, Supreme Worthy High Priestess, and John Pettis of California, Supreme Watchman of Shepherds. Miss Pointer holds the distinction of being the first and only Canadian Supreme Worthy High Priestess. Naomi Shrine had the honor of a visitation from this distinguished Sojourner, February 29, when she paid her official visit. Sojourners Vivian M. Parrish, Murphysboro, Illinois, was installed as Supreme Worthy High Priestess, and James McCreadie, Kenosha, Wisconsin, was installed as Supreme Watchman of Shepherds at a beautiful installation ceremony at this session.

Members of Naomi Shrine 5 receiving Supreme Honorary Appointments were as follows: Sojourners Blanche Marks, Chairwoman of the Material Objective Committee for District No. 4, Neil Retherath, District Deputy for District No. 4, George Retherath, Deputy Supreme Watchman of Shepherds, Blanche Schulze, Supreme Matron of Honor, and James Hunter, Supreme King's Guard.

Following the routine business meeting of Naomi Shrine, a brief but impressive Memorial Service was presented in memory of our departed Sojourner, Bernard Zollman, a charter member. The meeting then adjourned and refreshments were served in the banquet room which was beautifully decorated with lilacs. Refreshment committee members were: Sojourners Phyllis Foote, Dorothy Post, Teresa Teare, Arzella Voight and Martha Powell.

Next meeting of Naomi Shrine will be Tuesday evening, June 3, at which time there will be a ceremonial for the initiation of candidates.

PEACH SALAD

For spring luncheons we like to serve our prettiest salads. This one is easy to do. Put two golden canned cling peach halves together with a ball of softened cream cheese in the middle. Then roll the whole peach in toasted shredded coconut. Place on a garnished salad plate along with three spiced prunes.

NATIONAL AUDITIONS FOR ACADEMY PIANO STUDENTS

Climaxing the year's activities in the music department of Sacred Heart Academy were the National Piano Playing Auditions conducted at the school auditorium from May 14 to 17. Miss Dorothy Judy Klein of Long Beach, California, a well known concert pianist of the West, acted as adjudicator for this event. Miss Klein entertained music students and their parents with an informal concert Friday evening. Her pleasing stage presence and thorough musicianship won the enthusiastic approval of the audience. Miss Klein will adjudicate for similar auditions in Bend, Portland, Vancouver, and Roseburg before returning to her home in Long Beach.
