

GRIGGS-ROWLAND NUPTIAL VOWS EXCHANGED IN HOME WEDDING

A home wedding was solemnized April 20, 2 p.m., when Evalyn Inez Rowland and James Lee Griggs exchanged vows with the bride's father, Rev. L. W. Rowland of the First Baptist Church, as officiating minister. The service was read in the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Griggs, 4305 Laverne Avenue.

Distinctive arrangements of pink and white snapdragons in two beauty vases backed with woodwardia fern, placed at either end of a large mirror, were illuminated with lighted white tapers in candelabra. The bride was given in marriage by Cres Reed, a friend of the family.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white Chantilly lace over heavy white satin with a net yoke outlined in seed pearls. Her fingertip veil was of imported French lace held with a headband of seed pearls. She carried a large white orchid with stephanotis tied with white satin streamers on a white Bible.

Her only attendant was Barbara Perkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Perkins, 2433 Hope. She wore a pale pink ankle length frock with a full skirt, and a fitted cap to match. Her bouquet was of carnations, rose-buds and stephanotis.

Flower girl was JoLene Webber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Webber, 4323 Laverne Avenue, and ringbearer was Johnny Hendershot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hendershot, 4307 Clinton.

The bridegroom's attendants were: Cameron Stewart, best man, and Larson Griggs and Jay Griggs, ushers. Cameron is the son of Mrs. Nell Stewart, 1623 Portland. He is a pre-med student at Portland University. Larson Griggs is uncle of James, and Jay Griggs, a cousin.

Mrs. Rowland, mother of the bride wore a floor length dress of navy blue crepe, with navy blue accessories and her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Griggs chose a rose-pink crepe, also floor length and her corsage was the same as Mrs. Rowland's.

Ronnie Hershberger, organist, accompanied Patsy Young, soloist.

After the ceremony the reception was held at the Griggs home.

Sharon Ash poured and Martha Ivie cut the cake. Mrs. Carl Woods assisted. Deanne Noel passed the guest book.

Out of town guests included the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Matson, Payson, Utah; and Mrs. Clifford Woods, Downey, California.

For her going away costume the new Mrs. Griggs wore a white nylon Jersey suit with red accessories. They honeymooned in Los Angeles, and will be at home, 814 East 12th Street, Eugene until June 15. The bridegroom will enter military service immediately upon his graduation from the University of Oregon.
