Parr-Mahoney Nuptial Vows In Bay Region

Madeline Mahoney, attractive daughter of Mrs. Joseph A. Mahoney and the late Judge Mahoney, 737 North 9th Street, became the bride of Charles H. Parr, Chicago, in a simple double-ring ceremony in St. Louis Bertrand's Catholic Church, Oakland, California. Monsignor Silva read the service before a small group of close friends and relatives May 10, p. 11.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Jack Mahoney, Paradise, California; and their only attendants were the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn L. McDaniels (Margaret Mahoney).

The new Mrs. Parr was charming in a suit of lavender wool shawl with orchid and pink accessories. Her corsage was fashioned of pink Cybidiums. Her sister wore an eggshell summer weight suit with canary yellow and purple accessories and her corsage was of yellow rosebuds.

Breakfast and a small reception followed at the McDaniels home in Oakland, with Mrs. Paul Bernadou, another sister of the bride presiding as hostess. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Joseph and Robert Mahoneys and children, Paul Bernadou, Justice Edwards, Niles Madden and Warren Doremus.

The newlyweds are both associated with the Western Division of Pollack Brothers' Circus in the promotion department. The bridegroom was formerly a member of the Paroff troupe, high balance act of international fame.

They drove North for a short honeymoon at the termination of their Oakland engagement with the circus.

WTC - Camp 6

By ELEANOR THOMPSON

Two former residents of camp came back to visit old friends Monday, May 12. They were Mrs. Earl Smith and little son, Roddy, also Mrs. Harold Marks. The Marks moved to town last summer and the Earl Smiths moved in last winter. Mrs. Smith drove out accompanied by her rosebushes to transplant to her city home on Manzanita in Klamath Falls. In the afternoon Mrs. E. D. Heywood entertained at a Bingo party in their honor. Nine women were present. Those winning handmade dolls as prizes in the bingo game were Vivian Huck, Helen Smith and Gertrude Good. A luscious cake was served with coffee and a social time enjoyed at the close of the afternoon.

The Elmer Moreheads daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Wood, spent the weekend of May 10 and 11 visiting their parents at Camp 6. The Woods live in Klamath Falls.

D. V. Huck's nephew paid him a surprise visit Saturday morning, May 10. He was Jimmy Barnett of Portland and he was accompanied by two schoolmates from Roosevelt high. The boys drove down from Portland to do some fishing.

Mrs. Sarah Ross of Bonanza visited in camp last weekend with her son and family, the Bob Ross.

The opening of fishing season in camp, usually a lively time, was quiet this year, due to the creeks being inaccessible because of much water still standing in the roads. However a few trucks and pickups were able to get to Merrill Creek. Mrs. Charles E. Zion Lutheran Ladies Aid Act As Hostesses

Zion Lutheran Ladies Aid were hostesses to the Southern Oregon Lutheran Ladies Aid Zone Conference on Sunday, April 27. Lunch was served to the out-of-town delegates and their families immediately following the morning worship services.

The officers of the district are: Mrs. Albert Huntman, Jacksonville, president; Mrs. Gertrude Blind, Klamath Falls, vice president; Mrs. Mary Bohn, Ashland, secretary; Mrs. Bob Faux, Grants Pass, treasurer; and Rev. Richard E. Graef, Klamath Falls, pastoral advisor.

Mrs. Huntman called the business meeting to order in the afternoon and the minutes of the last conference were read. Each Ladies Aid Group made a report of the individual projects accomplished during the year. The project agreed upon for the group as a whole for the coming year is to set up a Financial Aid Fund for a student minister or teacher from this district.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Selma Fischer of Salem, President of the Oregon-Washington District of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League, who spoke on mission work.

A short Bible quiz and vesper services conducted by Rev. Graef concluded the afternoon session. An evening banquet was prepared for 75 delegates and guests by the Young Married Couples Club of Zion Church and served by the Waither League. The Rev. Paul Harris, Ashland was Toastmaster. Rev. Kenneth Kirby, Medford, presented the devotion and prayer. Miss Rhonda Lambie, accompanied by Miss Margie Blind, gave a group of readings. Mrs. Paul Harris, accompanied by Mrs. Richard Graef, sang a selection. A humorous reading was given by Mr. Wally Wunder. Group singing led by Rev. Harris concluded the entertainment.

Roll call was taken with members of these congregations present: St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Medford; Grace Lutheran Church, Ashland; St. Pauls Lutheran Church, Dunsuir and Zion Lutheran Church, Klamath Falls.

An offer extended by St. Pauls, Grants Pass, to be hostesses for the 1953 conference was accepted.

PROETT-BATES MAY WEDDING

Mary Lou Bates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen M. Bates, 4355 Summers Lane, and Daryl M. Proett, son of Mrs. Dena Proett, Ventura, California, were married in Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church, May 3, when the brother of the bridegroom, Rev. Dwayne L. Proett read the 4 p.m. service before 150 friends and relatives.

Soloist, Carl Hagel was accompanied by Mrs. Sam Mushen, organist, who also played incidental wedding music. Candelighters were Neil Olson and Ralph Crawford.

Escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride was lovely in a ballerina length gown of white Chantilly lace over white slipper satin. Her elbow length white nylon veil was held in place with a tiara of white ile a th e r e d carnations. Her corsage was pink and white carnations.

Best man was Rodney Proett, brother of the bridegroom, Santa Monica, and ushers were Harry Lanphear and Harold Peyton. At the reception in the church parlors, immediately after the wedding, Mrs. C. C. Crawford and Mrs. Harold Peyton poured.

Dorothy Rutt cut the cake assisted by Shirley Crawford and Carolee Werner and Joan Meador. Joan was also in charge of the bride's book.

For their honeymoon, in the Middle West, the bride's going-away costume was a gray traveling suit with black accessories, and her corsage was a lavender orchid.

The couple is now at home, 2050 Darrow Street.

Mary Lou is a graduate of KUHS and attended University of Oregon prior to her marriage. Darrell was in the U. S. Army after his schooling in Nebraska.

On April 23, at the Harry Lanphear home, 4523 Laverne, bride-elect was honored at an intimate shower, which included Mrs. Joe Meador, Mrs. H. Davis, Mrs. M. Anderson, Mrs. R. Klatt, Mrs. H.
