This and That About Women

Edited by Ruth King

"It's A Woman's World"

THE LAST DAY OF SCHOOL came this week for two veteran Klamath County teachers who under Oregon's school retirement law will no longer call roll come next September. They are Mrs. Josephine Penrod (left) who began teaching back in Council Bluffs, Iowa, when she was a slip of 17 summers, who came to Oregon 23 years ago and by way of Baker to Peterson school where, when the cameraman found her, the kids were swarming 'round with open admiration. She has a son and daughter, twins . . looks forward eagerly to slipping off her shoes and really resting.

Mrs. Burton who answers to the name of Elsie, has taught more than 30 years in the Klamath system, up at Chiloquin, the Indian Agency where the school was burned, then down at Modoc Point, at Kirk and Plevna, in later years at Altamont where both teachers were honored with a "good-bye" dinner.

She began way back when Twyla Ferguson was school superintendent, has taught the children of her early pupils . . has had them say, "My daddy went to school to you" and loved it . . she has a ranch near Modoc Point where a daughter, Mrs. H. C. Spicer and her family, live . . where a grandson Charles will welcome her until the wide world calls . . she hopes to do some traveling perhaps back to the Buckeye state where she was born . .

Missionary Work Africa Helps Many

Women's Missionary Federation of the Eastern Oregon Circuit held its spring conference Friday May 23, at the Klamath Lutheran Church Delegates from Burns and Central Oregon towns were in attendance.

Mrs. Oscar Hiaasen opened the business session at 10 a.m., followed by a workshop with open discussion of various departments

After a luncheon in the church social rooms, the group reconvened. Rev. Stanley Gunsten, Bend spoke briefly of the pension appeal which is being carried out in the church for the relief of the elderly pastors.

Mrs. Stanley Moris, Tanganyika, East Africa, was the missionary speaker. At present she is at Corvallis on furlough. She gave an interesting picture of a rapidly growing number of African churches.

BAPTIZING

In Tanganyika there are seven million people. Lutheran missions are responsible for approximately 2,000,000 of these and have roughly 200,000 baptized Africans to date as Lutheran members.

The seven hospitals, three teachers training units and a training school for African Medical assistants, are providing valuable avenues for training native leadership.

In Bumbuli province where the Moris' have resided, there is a 160 bed hospital for natives. It is staffed by four American and European doctors and six nurses Three doctors are American, one is German, two nurses are from Finland, two from Germany and two from the United States. This is a venture in joint cooperation in Lutheran churches financed by numerous Lutheran Synods throughout the U.S.

WORK TOGETHER

Not only is there unity of staff but outstanding cooperation in working with other Protestant missionaries in the territory.

A Christian Council of Churches also functions.

Two African pastors will attend the coming large Lutheran Federation in Hanover, Germany, in August. They were trained under German missionaries before the war and both understand English and German.

There is no sharp line of demarcation in Tanganyika as far as color is concerned. Five-sixth of all the land is in the hands of the African.

GOVERNMENT NOD

Great Britian has held to the policy of Tanganyika for the Africans. The government provides supervision for native education, agriculture, health and police for which $2 head tax is expected.

The African has varying standards of living but the Christian church is challenging them to a policy of proportionate giving to the church. The response is good.

Rev. and Mrs. Moris have completed 14 years of service in Tanganyika and will return there in June after a six months furlough.

A banquet was served at the Presbyterian church with Rev. Orin S. Gudmunsen, Prineville, former navy chaplain as the speaker.

Rev. Irwin E. Tweet is pastor of the host church.

FIRST COURSE

Drain syrup from 1 (No. 2½) can fruit cocktail. Place fruit in a bowl, add ¼ cup of the syrup and ½ cup Port Wine. Chill. Serve in sherbet glasses or dessert dishes, with sprigs of mint, for garnish Serves 4 or 5.

Methodist Women Meet Install Corps

Deborah Circle, First Methodist Church entertained members of the Women's Society of Christian Service for installation, in the church parlors, May 3.

Mrs. Robert North gave a brief talk on family life as it was studied during the year.

Mrs. James Barnes, program chairman presented Dianna Vincze in two violin solos and Mrs. Robert Pryor, Mrs. George Lewis and Mrs. Hubert Mills in a clever skit "The Train Leaves In Ten Minutes," a parody on typical family life.

Mrs. J. C. Hunt, retiring president of Deborah Circle; Mrs. Cecil Kollenborn, vice president; Mrs. Walter Southwell, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Marion Lehman, publicity chairman.

The tea table was centered with a clever old-fashioned arrangement made by Mrs Lehman. Pouring were Mrs. J. C. Hunt, and Mrs. Joe Bramhall.

Ladies Aid

MERRILL—Mrs. J. L. Haskins, Mrs. W. F. Jinnette, and Mrs. Frank Hunnicutt were the hostesses when the Presbyterian Ladies Aid Society met May 21, at the Haskins home.

Plans were discussed for removing the window on the south side of the church, just behind the pulpit, and replacing it with a brick wall.

Mrs. Bernace Wilson led the afternoon devotionals. During the months of June, July, and August meetings will be held at 2 o'clock standard time, or 3 o'clock daylight time. The next meeting will be June 28, with the place announced later.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses to Mrs. Eber Kilpatrick, Mrs. Miles Moore, Mrs. Pete McNeill, Mrs. M. A. Bowman, Mrs. E. N. New Bleach Powdered Easy To Use

Nothing on earth is going to make the weekly laundry chore something to look forward to, but here's a product that can make it less work: powdered bleach. And it has a lot of other good points, too. For one thing, it's safe—that is, it can't harm fine fabrics, even silk, wool or nylon, provided you wash these fabrics in the recommended manner. Actually, anything you can wash can be bleached by this new method. It's easy on the hands and, despite its efficient bleaching qualities, it's gentle with even the sheerest lingerie.

It's easy, too. You don't need to soak clothes before washing, or have a special bleaching rinse. Simply add powdered bleach to the wash water.It dissolves instantly —in hot or warm water—and goes right to work. Another easy thing is carrying it home from the market. It's packed in a cardboard box, and a 16 ounce package is a lot lighter and less cumbersome than a bottle or jug of old fashioned liquid bleach. It takes less pantry shelf space, too. There's a lot of other reasons for using it. It's entirely free from odor. There's no glass container to break. There is no liquid to spill. It doesn't lose strength even after months.

And what about washable colors? Here again, powdered bleach is perfect. It gets clothes whiter, and colors brighter. Any color recommended as washable is perfectly safe. And clothes actually get cleaner, because this new bleach acts as a water softener and conditioner, letting your favorite soap or detergent work to full capacity. That saves time, gives you a better looking wash, and saves money on soap, too.

Rich Fruity Flavor For Good Bread

Here's our favorite recipe for "Quick Prune Loaf." You can make it and have on hand to serve with summer fruit salads. The prunes not only give it a rich fruity accent and dark color but also keep the bread moist and fresh for days. From its appearance one would almost think that it was made with whole wheat flour. What's more, you can put it together in a matter of a very few minutes with biscuit mix.

Quick Prune Loaf

1 cup cooked prunes
½ cup walnuts
2½ cups biscuit mix
½ cup granulated sugar
½ teaspoon cinnamon
1 egg
½ cup milk

Cut prunes from pits into small pieces. Chop walnuts. Combine biscuit mix, sugar, cinnamon, prunes and walnuts. Beat egg lightly and add milk. Stir into first mixture. Turn into greased loaf pan (8½ x 4½ x 2½ inches). Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about one hour. Turn out onto wire rack to cool.

Makes 1 loaf.

AN EASY WAY TO HAVE A PIANO

You can rent a lovely new spinet piano from the Louis R. Mann Piano Company, 120 N. 7th, at a low monthly rate. After a reasonable time you can if you wish, change from rent to purchase agreement. The rent already paid is all credited to your purchase account and no other down payment is necessary. The monthly payments can be little higher than rent. Or, if you prefer, you can continue to rent.

FADED CASUALS

You can recapture the original colors of faded slacks, blouses or shorts by dipping them in a dye bath. If color has faded unevenly use a color remover first.
